

llows, viz.

he first general
om that period.
he first Tuesday
in October.

kets, or wooden
nd two bags to
s of his christian
place in his

kets and bags to
endanger'd, and
re the goods and
places as he shall

ciety shall be in quire.

he shall inform
with a list of the re or shop, and
h.g.

ply to become a
meeting, and if
) such person or

e quarterly meet-
pay a fine of one

ety, being in the
cles agreed on by
clerk—shall cease

s shall be repair'd
within seven days

ll the proceedings
a new clerk shall belonging to the
shall serve as clerk

member be notified three days at least before every quarterly meeting, and shall pay the sum of five shillings.

XII. That the clerk may not be at the expence of stationary, messengers, &c. &c. the sum of ten pounds per annum will be allow'd by the society for the purchase of these articles, but no greater sum.

XIII. That a watch-word be agreed on whereby to know each other in the night-time, which shall continue until the society see cause to change the same; and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a member.

XIV. That in order to pay the expences that may be incurred by the society at any of the meetings, every person becoming a member, by subscribing his name to the list, is to pay the sum of two shillings and six pence, which shall be deposited in the hands of the clerk; and when the sum so collected shall be expended, a second subscription shall be raised, which shall be repeated as often as occasion may require for that purpose.

XV. That should any dispute arise in the society, relating to the construction of any of the articles herein contained, or may be hereafter annexed, it shall be decided by the majority of the members then present.