

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

MARCH 17th, 1884.

LOYAL ORANGE ASSOCIATION INCORPORATION BILL.

CONTINUED.

Mr. BLAKE. Having been informed, beyond a particle of doubt, that these statements were being circulated at the last meeting in the West Riding on behalf of the Government, knowing there were men in the House who were circulating these stories, I, without repeating them, called upon those who had made them, called upon anybody to come forward and state anything derogatory either to my father or myself, and I would answer them and there. But none of them would come forward. I called on them three times at a public meeting; but although the circulators of these calumnies were present, they would not come forward. In the West Riding of Durham, the same private canvass was going on the same course was taken, the same precise calumnies were being circulated, and when I came to that Riding I was asked how about this and how about that; but I declined to deny things which no man would venture publicly to state. This is the evil of a private canvass, and especially of a private canvass conducted through the medium of a secret society. Do I object to this society because it is a political organization? Not at all. I approve of political organizations. I believe in political organizations which are public, which are avowed organizations, and are not afraid to declare themselves as such; but I do not believe in secret political organizations or political organizations, secret or otherwise, which act under the guise of religion and philanthropy. I do not object to this society because the majority of it are opposed to me in political opinion. That is no reason for objecting to it. They have as good a right to their opinions as I have to mine, and their right to hold their opinions as dear as mine is to hold mine; holding mine by the same tenure as they hold theirs, and as I would not part, for any consideration, with the free right to hold mine, I hold their right equally dear. But if that political organization is opposed to me, I want to meet them as such, and not as members of a religious and charitable society. My religious opinion should be held entirely separate from our political leanings. No greater calamity can affect a community than when the cleavage of political parties is coincident with the cleavage of religious bodies. That is a great calamity and a misfortune. I am anxious that whatever our creed or religious opinions may be, we should feel that they have nothing whatever to do with our political opinions, and that we should agree or differ on political questions entirely irrespective of the faith we may happen to hold on religious questions. The names you set up, as a combination, a great Protestant society, which is also a great political association, the more you make coincident or strive to make coincident, the line of division between the religious and political convictions of the people, you act directly in the teeth of what I believe to be for the benefit of the State. Our political differences are bitter enough, without introducing into them religious differences, and if the odium theologium, which is known to be so bitter, is to be accentuated by political differences, it will become intolerable. I am anxious not to make coincident the line between political and religious opinion, yet this society, which, under the guise of religion and benevolence, is in Ontario largely and chiefly political in its power and efficacy, is doing this very thing which I believe to be for the benefit of the State, for the public good. I do not propose to refer, in support of my view, as to the political condition of this society in Ontario, to anything very ancient. I do not propose to refer even to things so ancient as those to which the hon. member for the West Riding of Huron (Mr. Cameron) referred. It is enough for me to refer to quite recent transactions. The hon. member for Hastings (Mr. White), made a speech in the town of Woodstock on the 12th July, and in that speech he gave some very amusing allusions to the secret history of the conduct of this Bill. In the course of these statements, he took a line which I want to point out, and proved what I have declared with reference to this society being really and substantially a political organization.

Mr. BLAKE. They are very good words. I wish they would be made good.

Mr. Bunting went to Ottawa; he worked day and night for the Bill; he told the Frenchmen if they did not pass the measure they would be doing an act of great injustice. He spoke to Sir Hector Langevin, to Sir John A. Macdonald, and other members of the Cabinet, on the subject. He referred them to the general support which the Conservative party had always received at the hands of the Orangemen.

Sir JOHN A. MACDONALD. Hear, hear, Mr. White.

Mr. BLAKE. Oh! it is not a political party, but it gives a general support to the Conservative party.

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). Those are very good words; I am not ashamed of them.

Mr. BLAKE. He (Mr. White) thanked Mr. Bunting for the noble assistance he gave them during that time of trial, assistance which they hoped would yet result in triumph. In conversation, along with twenty other gentlemen, with Sir Hector Langevin, Mr. Bunting said: "Sir Hector, we must have incorporation." What was the reply? Sir Hector said: "So far as incorporation is concerned, I personally wish you to have it, but I am opposed to all secret societies, because my Church is opposed to them. I like to see the Conservative party prosper, but I like the prosperity of my Church better than that of the Conservative party. My bishops and priests tell us, the members of the Church, not to vote for and support any such societies." Mr. Bunting, in reply, said: "That is a great mistake, for there are no men on earth more anxious to do justice to all parties, and to give your Church an incorporation it may require for its benefit, than the Orangemen." In his (Mr. White's) opinion, Sir Hector Langevin would find out that he had committed a great mistake; for, if ever he obtained the leadership of any Government in this country, it would be impossible for him to hold it without the assistance and co-operation of the Orange society.

"Theirs," says the hon. gentleman, "was the result of enthusiasm towards the perorator."

"Theirs was a great organization; let it be good, prudent and cautious; and he said as a Conservative, remember the next general election, if we do not succeed in getting justice before that time, I should take a lesson out of Archbishop Lynch's book. The Orange society were in a position to rule the whole country if they were only true to themselves."

Then, Sir, the hon. gentleman also delivered an oration at Hamilton. Three years were given for Sir John at a particular time, and at least six of the hon. gentleman followed up the cheers by saying:

"He" (that is Sir John) "was as true and as consistent a friend to the Orange Bill as any member in the House. There was a proposition made that the Bill should be withdrawn, or at least not granted to all the different Provinces, with the exception of the Province of Quebec. Sir John said to him, 'Mr. White, don't accept that, for if you do it will only bring disgrace on your society. Better have the Bill carried for the whole Dominion, and to the country, yourselves by deserting the worthy members of your order in the Province of Quebec.' Those were good words, and he was satisfied that nothing in the world would have given Sir John Macdonald greater pleasure than in handing the Incorporation Bill to the House of Commons, because Sir John was satisfied in his own mind that nine-tenths of the Orange members belonged to the Conservative party."

Why, I see the hon. member is amused. I thought I would amuse him.

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). The speech of mine, which he is reading, is the best part of the hon. gentleman's speech.

Mr. BLAKE. My proofs are always the best part of my speeches, and this is my proof.

Supposing Sir Hector Langevin were the leader of a great party, and in its ranks there was a society which was true to him as the Orange society had been to Sir John Macdonald, he would go to Sir John and say: "It is necessary, in the interests of our party, that this society, which is loyal to the Queen, to the Constitution, and to the country, should have an Act of incorporation. Sir John would have answered: 'Yes, with all my heart you shall have it.' The Prime Minister was leading a party that was fair and just, while Sir Hector Langevin was leading a party that was dishonest and unscrupulous as Orangemen, they were not as anxious as they should have been. He would say to them, so far as the Reformers of Canada were concerned, they should not forget the fact that nine-tenths of the members of the Orange society in the Province of Ontario belonged to the Conservative party."

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). Suppose they do.

Mr. BLAKE. Well, suppose they do. I am sorry for it, but I do suppose it. I am merely showing that this is a political organization.

Mr. FARROW. That does not prove it.

Mr. BLAKE. If that does not prove it to the hon. member for Huron, I despair of proving it to him. I do not address the remainder of these remarks to the hon. gentleman.

"He thought, in justice, according to Reform principles, they should have passed over any little wrongs which they might have suffered in the past, and have voted for the Orange Incorporation Bill. He wished it had been so, and, if they had done it, he was satisfied that at the next election the Orangemen would have divided, and have gone in more for men and measures, and not so strongly for party."

"And not so strongly for party." That is the hon. gentleman's description of the party character of the Orange organization in Toronto, that they have in the past gone very strong for party, and that in the future they might have mended their ways and gone more for men and measures. And that is not a party organization!

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). Those are good words.

Mr. BLAKE. They are very good words. I wish they would be made good.

Mr. Bunting went to Ottawa; he worked day and night for the Bill; he told the Frenchmen if they did not pass the measure they would be doing an act of great injustice. He spoke to Sir Hector Langevin, to Sir John A. Macdonald, and other members of the Cabinet, on the subject. He referred them to the general support which the Conservative party had always received at the hands of the Orangemen.

Sir JOHN A. MACDONALD. Hear, hear, Mr. White.

Mr. BLAKE. Oh! it is not a political party, but it gives a general support to the Conservative party.

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). Those are very good words; I am not ashamed of them.

Mr. BLAKE. He (Mr. White) thanked Mr. Bunting for the noble assistance he gave them during that time of trial, assistance which they hoped would yet result in triumph. In conversation, along with twenty other gentlemen, with Sir Hector Langevin, Mr. Bunting said: "Sir Hector, we must have incorporation." What was the reply? Sir Hector said: "So far as incorporation is concerned, I personally wish you to have it, but I am opposed to all secret societies, because my Church is opposed to them. I like to see the Conservative party prosper, but I like the prosperity of my Church better than that of the Conservative party. My bishops and priests tell us, the members of the Church, not to vote for and support any such societies." Mr. Bunting, in reply, said: "That is a great mistake, for there are no men on earth more anxious to do justice to all parties, and to give your Church an incorporation it may require for its benefit, than the Orangemen." In his (Mr. White's) opinion, Sir Hector Langevin would find out that he had committed a great mistake; for, if ever he obtained the leadership of any Government in this country, it would be impossible for him to hold it without the assistance and co-operation of the Orange society.

"Theirs," says the hon. gentleman, "was the result of enthusiasm towards the perorator."

"Theirs was a great organization; let it be good, prudent and cautious; and he said as a Conservative, remember the next general election, if we do not succeed in getting justice before that time, I should take a lesson out of Archbishop Lynch's book. The Orange society were in a position to rule the whole country if they were only true to themselves."

Then, Sir, the hon. gentleman also delivered an oration at Hamilton. Three years were given for Sir John at a particular time, and at least six of the hon. gentleman followed up the cheers by saying:

"He" (that is Sir John) "was as true and as consistent a friend to the Orange Bill as any member in the House. There was a proposition made that the Bill should be withdrawn, or at least not granted to all the different Provinces, with the exception of the Province of Quebec. Sir John said to him, 'Mr. White, don't accept that, for if you do it will only bring disgrace on your society. Better have the Bill carried for the whole Dominion, and to the country, yourselves by deserting the worthy members of your order in the Province of Quebec.' Those were good words, and he was satisfied that nothing in the world would have given Sir John Macdonald greater pleasure than in handing the Incorporation Bill to the House of Commons, because Sir John was satisfied in his own mind that nine-tenths of the Orange members belonged to the Conservative party."

Why, I see the hon. member is amused. I thought I would amuse him.

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). The speech of mine, which he is reading, is the best part of the hon. gentleman's speech.

Mr. BLAKE. My proofs are always the best part of my speeches, and this is my proof.

Supposing Sir Hector Langevin were the leader of a great party, and in its ranks there was a society which was true to him as the Orange society had been to Sir John Macdonald, he would go to Sir John and say: "It is necessary, in the interests of our party, that this society, which is loyal to the Queen, to the Constitution, and to the country, should have an Act of incorporation. Sir John would have answered: 'Yes, with all my heart you shall have it.' The Prime Minister was leading a party that was fair and just, while Sir Hector Langevin was leading a party that was dishonest and unscrupulous as Orangemen, they were not as anxious as they should have been. He would say to them, so far as the Reformers of Canada were concerned, they should not forget the fact that nine-tenths of the members of the Orange society in the Province of Ontario belonged to the Conservative party."

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). Suppose they do.

Mr. BLAKE. Well, suppose they do. I am sorry for it, but I do suppose it. I am merely showing that this is a political organization.

Mr. FARROW. That does not prove it.

Mr. BLAKE. If that does not prove it to the hon. member for Huron, I despair of proving it to him. I do not address the remainder of these remarks to the hon. gentleman.

"He thought, in justice, according to Reform principles, they should have passed over any little wrongs which they might have suffered in the past, and have voted for the Orange Incorporation Bill. He wished it had been so, and, if they had done it, he was satisfied that at the next election the Orangemen would have divided, and have gone in more for men and measures, and not so strongly for party."

"And not so strongly for party." That is the hon. gentleman's description of the party character of the Orange organization in Toronto, that they have in the past gone very strong for party, and that in the future they might have mended their ways and gone more for men and are some other recent proofs of the political character of this religious and benevolent organization, so far as it is managed in Ontario. Brother Marshall, to whom I already alluded, who occupies a high position in the order, and who was with the hon. gentleman at Winnipeg, said:

"The question was asked how they always voted Tory, and the answer was because that party had befriended them."

You see the statement is "they always voted Tory," but they are not a political organization! At the Grand Lodge meeting at St. Catharines, the Grand Master, Mr. Merrick, who is also a member of the Local Legislature, said:

"I hope it will teach us a lesson for our future conduct not to trust to mere political party as such, but to support and work with our best energies for those who will support and work for us; and then no doubt, we will be able to say, with the Grand Master of New South Wales:

"In connection with the recent Parliamentary elections, we find that in every locality, throughout the various electorates, when a lodge was in operation the chosen candidate of the lodge received the greater number of votes."

But it is not a political organization! They, Mr. Johnson, at the same meeting said:

"They are endeavoring to make the association less of a political organization, and more of a religious and benevolent association."

Mr. WHITE (Hastings). How would that suit you?

Mr. BLAKE. That would suit me very well, but I do not perceive that the hon. gentleman is doing it, Sir. Then there was a grand meeting of the Triennial Council in England, at which Canadian delegates were present, including Mr. Marshall and Mr. Bennett. Speeches were made by Mr. Bennett and others, and they indicated the condition of the order in another colony, and so far are not uninteresting. Mr. Neale, who represented New Zealand, South Australia and Queensland, spoke and said:

"The last general election was the grandest triumph for Orangemen ever witnessed in New South Wales. We gained no less than twenty-eight seats in the Colonial Parliament; and a very large number of the other members were returned through the Orange vote, and only eight Romanists succeeded in gaining admission."

That was the statement which those Canadian delegates heard, and which is the condition of things, and the way the order is worked in New South Wales. At that meeting Mr. Bennett was present representing Ontario, and he made this statement:

"I may also tell you that we have in our country an Orange paper, and we have found it to have a beneficial and magical effect, because divided as the Protestants are in the country into two political parties, each of these parties siding with the Roman vote, so they the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and Jesuit press of the country."

So that you find, Sir, that the Order is organized, and that here in Ontario, at the present day, by the confession of its leading members, and by the organs of these political parties are not, for fear of offending the Roman Catholics, saying anything in favor of Orangemen. Having a paper of our own, we not only get all the Orange news from all parts of the world, but have an organ, not only to put forth our views to the country, but to repel all attacks that may be made on us by the Roman Catholic and