An Evidence of This Paper's Standing
In the West. . : . : . : . : .

D. Williams, one of our circulation representatives in the Canadian West, writes:

"This section of Manitoba is pretty thoroughly covered with our paper. Any who are not subscribing are good prospects and I secure the most of them."

The GROCER'S reputation has long since been recognized by progressive dealers in The Great West and on our lists at the present time are the men with the big buying power.

These merchants base their chances of success on specializing and they read the paper that digs down into the problems affecting the grocery trade.
