

other distilled Spirituous Liquors, and for allowing a Drawback upon all Wines, Rum, Brandy, and other distilled Spirituous Liquors exported from this Island, and to appropriate the monies hereby granted.”

XXII. A bill intituled “An act for appropriating certain monies therein mentioned.”

His Excellency was then pleased to close the Session with the following Speech:

“Mr. President, and Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council:

“Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

“The business of the Session having been brought to a close, I am enabled to release you from further attendance, in your Legislative capacities, and, at the same time, to offer you my warm acknowledgments for the zeal and diligence with which you have applied yourselves to matters of general interest, as well as for the attention you have paid to the several objects particularly recommended to your consideration.

“The Act for the establishment of an Academy in Charlotte-Town, and the encouragement you have afforded the Fisheries and Agriculture of the Colony, will, in my confident expectation, promote the inseparable interests of all classes of the community.

“I thank you for the Supplies granted His Majesty for the service of the present year; and you may be assured that they will be expended by me with the utmost care and economy.”

The President of His Majesty's Council, by command of his Excellency then said—

Gentlemen,

It is his Excellency's will and pleasure, that this General Assembly be prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-sixth day of May next, to be then here held, and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 26th day of May next.

GOD SAVE THE KING.
