

Peerless Dried Beef

Unlike the ordinary dried beef—that sold in bulk-Libby's Peerless Dried Beef comes in a sealed glass jar in which it is packed the moment it is sliced into those delicious thin wafers.

None of the rich natural flavor or goodness escapes or dries out. It reaches you fresh and with all the nutriment retained.

Libby's Peerless Dried Beef is only one of a Great number of high-grade, ready to serve, pure food products that are prepared in Libby's Great White Kitchen.

Just try a package of any of these, such as Ox Tongue, Vienna Sausage, Pickles, Olives, etc., and see how ly happens that a torrent of water rush-es down the mountainsides into the Han, a tributary of the great Yang-tse. Hith-erlo warning of the freshets has been telegraphed from Siang-yang, 400 miles away from the mouth of the Han, and on receipt of the news men have been burgally cont out equipment with great hurriedly sent out, equipped with gangs, to warn the boats at the mouth of the

An eminent physician informs us that he has used the following prescription in his practice for a number of years on the evening of April 6 messengers were sent around with the news that a fieshet, six feet high, was on its way down. The inhabitants and the boat ing ropulation considered a six foot text to be of little consequence, and took no preautions whatever, believing that, as in former years, its arrival need not be expected for another twenty-four heurs.

but could render little service. The ter-ror of the night was increased by three huge junks which took fire and drift-ing toward the foreshore of the British settlement endangered the hulks moored along its front along its front. The native papers state that a small stcamer, 700 large junks and innumer-able smal craft were destroyed. The loss of life, at first estimated at 2,000, probably exceeded double that number. Eighteen hundred bodies were picked up at one bend of the Yang-ise alone. A number of women and children are among the dead. Thirteen hundred masis were recovered at the same spot masts were recovered at the same spot.

TO PREVENT CONSUMPTION.

Successful Outcome of Experiments by German Scientist. Mr. Nathan Straus, of New York, who Mr. Nathan Straus, of New York, who recently established at Heidelberg a la-boratory for the purpose of demonstrat-ing to Germen men of science and health reformers that his method of pasteuriz-ing milk is an effectual way of preventing consumption, has just obtained from Professor Feer, of Heidelberg University, a strikink testimonial. Professor Feer inoculated ten guinea pigs with milk ob-tained from cows known to be suffering ained from cows known to be suffering from tubercolosis. In the case of five guinea pigs, the milk, after having been obtained from tubercolous cows, was pas-teurized by the Straus method. In the case of the other five the milk was inoondition. The result of the experiment has been remarkable. The five guinea pigs which were inoculated with pasteurized milk are thriving on it, and remain in excel-lent health. The five guinea pigs inocul-ated with raw milk are all suffering from tubercolasis in its most visulent form tubercolosis in its most virulent form and are certain to die. The experiment reveals the grave danger incurred by the reveals the grave canger incurred by the use of raw milk taken from diseased cows, and, at the same time, proves that the pasteurization of milk, as advocated by Mr. Nathan Straus, effectively purifies milk and renders it fit for consumption.

culated into the guinea pigs in its raw

 Vientia Satisage, Fickles,
Olives, etc., and see how delightfully different medicines which I took with the ferent they are from others you have eaten.
Libby, McNeill& Libby, McNeill& Libby, Chicago
COST THOUSANDS OF LIVES.
Effect of a Telegraphic Error About Food in China.
Mow a tolegraphic error was respon-sible for th: loss of thousands of lives is kold by a Shanghai correspondent the dasaster occurred during a freshei on th Han River in the beginning of April.
Owing to heavy reinfalls in the moun-tions in northwest Huppeh it frequent.
Destination of the the the control of the theory of the provident of April. Owing to heavy rainfalls in the moun-tains in northwest Hupeh it frequent-to do your part, and it will be plain sail-

A SPLENDID PRESCRIPTION. For Rheumatism, and all Kidney, Liver,

Bladder and Urinary Affections. An eminent physician informs us that not be expected for another twenty-tout hours. Unfortunately the telegram announc-ing the oncoming torrent was delayed for twenty-four hours and by an error in the wording the height was reduced from twenty-six feet to six feet. The froshet arrived at lighting speed at midnight on April 6. The night was pitch dark, the inhabitants were asleep. Suddenly thousands of boats in the Han River were torn from their moor

CAN BE CURED Dr. William's Pink Pills Succeed After Other Remedies Fail.

There are twenty drugs to help your digestion for a time, but there is only cne medicine that can positively cure your indigestion for good. To any one with indigestion a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are worth all the purgatives and mixtures in the country. After all these things have failed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured the worst cases of indigestion by gcing straight to the root of the trou-ble in the blood. You can take a purgative to tear through your bowels and make a clean sweep of your food, whether it is digest-

Inrough your bowels and make a clean sweep of your food, whether it is digest-ed or not. You can take stomach bit-ters to create a false appetite—if you d'on't care what happens after you swal-low your meal. You can drug your slomach with tablets and syrups to di-gest your food for you—if you don't care how soon you ruin your system alto-gether. You can do all these things— but don't call it "curing your indiges-tion." There is only one way to cure tion." There is only one way to cure indigestion, and that is to give your system so much good, pure, red blood that your slomach and liver will have strength enough to do their natural strength enough to do their natural work in a healthy and vigorous way. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure indigestion—they actually make new blood. Here is the proof. Mr. R. McCorkell, St. Thomas, Ont., says:— "About a year ago my system became generally wrecked. My stomach was always in a state of nausea. The sight of any kind of food often turned my stomach and I would arise from the table without eating. Doctors advised different medicines which I took with-out benefit. Finally I becarce so run

While making an inspection of a tract of timber in Michoacan, Mexico, Edward Spendlove came to a peculiar looking

RUSSIAN EMPRESS ROMANCES.

Marriage of Princess Dagmar of Denmark and Grand Duke Alexander.

How many people are aware that the marriage of the Empress Marie Food-orovna of Russia, the Czar's mother, provided one of the most pathetic love stories in the annals of royaliy? asks London Tit-Bits.

Before the Empress, who was Prin-oess Dagmar of Denmark, married Alex-ander III. she was engaged to his elder brother, the Czanevitch. In 1865 at Nice the Grand Duke Nicholas fell from his the orange base relations for the form his herse and was so badly injured that his Le was despaired of. His fiance hast-ened to him and never left his side till be breathed his last. The succession to the throne devolved on the Grand Duke Alexander.

Alexander, He slood by the deathbed of Czare-vitch, who, in the presence of the Em-peror and Empress, placed the hand of the weeping Princess into his, saying to her with almost his last words: "Marry my brother; he is true as cry-stal, and I wish it."

Enforced by political reasons, this be-quest was law to the bereaved girl.

CANADA'S GREAT CELEBRATION.

There are now subscriptions neuroed to the extent of about $600,000 for the great Tercentenary celebration at Quebec, and nearly a million dollars will be forthcoming for it.

From an historical point of view it will be the greatest demonstration this Continent has witnessed. From a Continent has witnessed. From a spectacular standpoint it will be one of spectacular standpoint it will be one of the most dazzling combinations if picturesque events ever seen in any country. There will be thousands of characters in the processions, all dress-el to the very life. The tableaux, on the Plains of Abraham, where the his-toric battles were fought, will embrace all the transcendent epoch-making events of Canada's romantic history, in-cluding Wolfe's work up to his death. The street pageants will be of wondrous beauty, the naval demonstration of an impressiveness not heretofore realized. Quebec will be filled to repletion by thousands from England and the United thousands from England and the United States, and tens of thousands from Canada, but fully ten million of people will ada, but fully ten million of people will wish to be present, and cannot find hotel accommodation. One of the greatest matters of anxi-ety to those organizing the celebration has been the question, how to provide the millions of people who cannot see

For the celebration of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander of the celebration with illustrations and cescriptions, to give the scenes of grander to the world in their entirety. Arrangements have been completed by the Standard of Montreal, mow recognized as the National Illustrated paper of Canada, to issue what will be known as "The Standard Tercentenary Number," published by George Murray Publishing Company, Montreal. We have had the privilege of examining the prosto of some of the gorgeous supplements to go with The Standard. They eclipse in interest, in fidelity of detail, in beauty of color and execution, any thing ever attempted in Canada, and will bring the Tercentenary celebration right into the homes of those lucky enough to procure a copy. To connecise the scenes of the secret. To connoisseurs The Slandard Tercen-tenary Number is one that experi judges would think could not be sold under $2.50, and yet it is to be publish-Spendlove came to a poculiar looking tree and struck it with an axe he was carrying. Instantly a quantity of sap spurted from the tree, striking the man ir the face and entering his eyes. The sap had the properties of a strong acid and burned its way into the eyeballs and into the flesh of the fact. Spendlove was blinded, and physicians say that his owne have been permanently injured, and eyes have been permanently injured, and that he will never see again. The tree is thought to be a species of poison oak. The natives in that part of Mexico have known of the dangerous properties of the sap for many years. lication.

SURE TO GET ONE.

"Mr. Spudlong," began the youth, hanging his hat on the back of the chair, "I will occupy only a few moments of your time. I have come to ask you for your daughter. I___" "Young man," said the elderly banker,

"Young man," said the elderly banker, "do you_"" "Yes, sir; I realize fully that she has been tenderly nurtured and that she is very dear to you; also that her home is cne in which she has been surrounded by every luxury. But she is willing to leave it."

"Can you—." "No, sir; I can't quite maintain her in the style to which she has been accus-terned, but I have a good salary, and I am ready to chance it. So is she." "Will you—."

"Will you----" "Yes, sir; I would not expect to live with the family. I am able to buy and furnish a modest home for her." "Young man," said Mr. Spudlong, look-ing at his watch, "I rather like your style. You can have her. Good---" style. You can "Morning, sir."

A. J. PATTISON & CO. REPORT.

June 3rd, 1908.

COBALT ORE SHIPMENTS. Following are the weekly shipments rom Cobalt camp, and those from Jan. to date:

Week end May 30. Since Jan. 1. Ore in ths. Ore in the

Buffelo	610,810
Coniagas 62,030	505.580
Coniagas 62,030 Cebalt Lake	246,455
Crown Reserve	40,000
Cobalt Central	156.380
City rof Cobalt	338,600
Drummond 56,260	148.600
Foster	238,400
Kerr Lake	392,670
King Edward	127,240
La Rose 60,000	2.181.652
McK'nley 66.540	1.373.560
N pissing 184.220	1,548,110
Nova Scotia	227,555
Nancy Helen	140,420
O'Brien 254.810	2.357,130
R g t of Way	242.240
Provincial	143.210
Standard	39,730
S lver Leaf	196.620
S.lver Cliff	52,000
Silver Queen 110,310	634,510
Towns te	85.100
Temiskaming & H.B.	599,000
Temiskaming	325,390
Trethewey 124,850	997.456
Watta	100 100

1905, 2144 tons, valued at $1,473.196; in 1906, 5129 tons, valued at $3,900,000.

TOLD BY THE "GENERAL."

Han River were torn from their moor-ings and hurled together in a confused mass on the breast of a raging torrent. Deep laden boats were sunk immedi-ately, others were pounded to pieces and some catching fire lit up a scene of ap-palling destruction.

some catching fire lit up a scene of ap-palling destruction. The people on shore were powerless to a-sist and the cries of the perishing "rent the heavens and were very pain-ful to hear," as a native newspaper de-scribed it. Those boals that escaped the initial onset of the torrent were swept out into the Yang-tse, where a strong northenst gale completed the strong northeast gale completed the of destruction.

Lifeb ats were sent out to the rescue,

Truth needs no authority other than its own.

He is good natured whose nature it is

He is good. He does nothing extraordinary who despises the ordinary. Things always are looking up to the man who tries to lift them up. Faith in God without friendship with man is like poetry without print. Nothing worries some folks more than to find trouble taking a little nap.

It is a good thing to watch the man who is over nice about indifferent things. We never are ready to be lifted up until we have been thrown down a few times

You are not booked to heaven simply because you are versed in the heavenly book

The soundness of your virtue does not depend on the volume of sound you can mak

The first step toward cleaning up your neighbor's back yard is taking a hoe to

ent. We predict that in one month after laugh is against him. the celebration it will be in demand at Here are two anecd has saved itself from ruin by artifice. One American bank, just as a run was starting, hired half a dozen men to draw even ten dollars a copy. They cannot begin to issue enough to starting, hired name dozen men to draw out large sums in cash. These men, with g.cat bundles of greenbacks and with huge bags of gold, would run-round to the rear of the building, hand al. It is a pleasure to testify to the value of a thing of surpassing merit.-Exchange.

round to the rear of the building, hand in all that money, and then come and draw it out again. After half a dozen such drawings the run ceased. One banker, on the verge of ruin, got a sack of metal, spread a layer of golu coins on the top, and nailed the sack to the paying-teller's counter. The sick was shown to the multitude that had gather-ed for a run, and a blacksmith was bidake shown to the multitude that had gainer-ed for a run, and a blacksmith was bid-den to lift the sack, if he could. Of course, he couldn't, and the crowd dis-persed, satisfied that, with so much gold, the bank was safe. Another dodge to paint, on the morning of a run, ! the woodwork. Wet paint shows all the woodwork. Wet paint shows the crowd up considerably. Nobody wants to get his clothing smeared. Nobody

CHILDHCOD DANGERS.

No symptom that indicates any of the ailments of childhood should be allowed to pass without prompt attention. The

HEREDITARY.

"Pa, can I have some money to go to the circus?" asked little Johnny Whit-

"Hey?" said Hr. Whittaker. Johnny preferred his request for the second time with faltering voice and in-

"Want to go to the circus, hey! Don't you know that circuses are wickek? I never wanted to go to the circus when I was a boy. And what do you want to see at the circus?" "I—I—w-want to see the w-wild a-ani-mals," said Johnny, beginning to blubber in carnet "Want to see the wild animals hey? Don't you twist the cat's tail often prough? Where did you get the love for Don't

The first step total in the field of the density of the density of the field of the density of ion. The coming issue, to illustrate Tercentenary Celebration, will certainly be the most interesting thing of very seriously. He is not, however, above the kind ever produced on this Contin-telling a humorous story even if the

Here are two anecdotes he sometimes relates in the course of his addresses.

A woman was taken into the Army quarters while intoxicated. On regaining her normal state of mind, and learn-ing where she was, she exclaimed in despair: "Take me out of here, quick, or I'll lose my reputation!"

Another case the Army workers took in hand was that of an old man who had been so long under the influence of drink that he had forgotten all about himself. Finally, the officials learned the where abouts of his wife, whom he had desert-ed and this telegram was sent:

"We have found your dear husband." Promptly there came an answer. !! ran

"You can keep him!"

In future every Russian soldier will receive a pocket-compass with a lumin-ous ueedle.

The Cynical Bachelor rises to remark that married life is frequently one grand, sweet song, but with the husband play-ing the accompaniment.

