Sixty-Four Orphans Arrived from Scotland at Brockville Saturday

THEATRE IS DESTROYED

A Large Powdered Milk Factory is Anxious to Locate in Gananoque

Theatre Is Destroyed

The Theatre Grand, a frame moving picture house on Spring street, Westport, owned by Steele Brothers, was totally destroyed by fire which broke out through an unknown cause at midnight Saturday. The Ladies' Guild of the Presbyterian church held an entertainment in the evening and seven reels of film which were used were destroyed. The hand engine was placed in commission and a bucket brigade also formed which put out fires in the adjoining residences of Dr. Stevens and John Foley, both of which were saved. The loss is believed covered by insurance.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

Orphans' Party Arrived

A party of 64 boys from the Bridge of Weir Orphan's Home, Scotland, arrived here on Saturday and are at present at the Parkview Home here. They arrived at St. John, N.B., on Thursday night and disembarked on Friday morning, travelling here in two special cars. The lads ranged in years from 14 to 16 years, are a fine, healthy lot, bright and well educated. They were in charge of Captain W. Douglas and will engage in farm work. One young Scotch lassie was also with the party. John Oetler, who enlisted here in the 253rd Battalion in 1917 and who went to France in the 48th Battalion, where he was gassed, accompanied the party and will again be employed in this neighborhood.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

Houses Made Sanitary

As a result of the work of the Kingston Board of Health many houses in that city which were unfit for habitation have been cleaned up and now present a very good appearance. Some time ago the Board of Health had Sanitary Inspector Carson make a careful survey and he reported a number of buildings in which people were living to be in very bad condition. The Board realized that there were two things that could be done. One was to close up the houses, while the other was to compel the people who owned the property to make the necessary repairs. The Board knew that if the houses were closed there would be no place for the people to go, so it went to work on the other plan. On Monday morning the Inspector told the Whig that some places which had been in very bad condition for some time are now in first-class condition. The owners know that the order from the Board of Health must be obeyed, so they made the necessary sanitary improvements.

Deer Jumped in Sleigh

It was a sad story of elasticity in the law that Andrew W. Gray, M.P.P. for Leeds, told the fish and game committee of the Legislature on Friday. He was putting up a plea for the settler being allowed to kill deer. He referred to the terrible impudence of these animals in some of the rear parts. "Why, down our way a deer jumped into the back of a man's sleigh," and then came the real complaint, "and because he had the audacity to kill it they fined him $20. Then Mr. Gray sat down. The committee laughed, but there was no action. The sarcastic deer may yet have the desired effect of changing the law.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

"Caught on the Fly"

After being fined $500 and costs at Lindsay for selling liquor or the option of going to jail, Mary Mary Rosefield, of Toronto, secured Mr. H. Applebaum to go her bondsman. When the time came to pay up the woman left the town by auto for Toronto, with the officers of the law and Mr. Applebaum in pursuit on the train with a warrant for her arrest. She was picked up at the home of her father, Mr. Goldner, 64 Centre avenue, Toronto, and after spending the night in the city jail finally paid the $500 plus an extra $15 for costs.

Hunting for Muskrats

Reports received in Kingston from the Mud Lake district say that Messrs. Jacob Jackson and Albert McDonald have secured about one hundred muskrat skins, with prospects good for many more. With the price of these animals fetching from $5 apiece up, hunting muskrats is profitable employment. One pelt a day would well repay many a trapper.

Want Electric Railway

The Gananoque Board of Trade has appointed a committee to organize a deputation composed of representatives from the townships of Frontenac, Front of Leeds and Lansdowne, rear of Leeds and Lansdowne, Bastard and Burgess South, and the town of Gananoque to wait upon the Ontario Government to interest them in the Hydro-Electric railway which it is proposed should be built from Gananoque to Elgin station on the C.N.R. The scheme is being promoted by J. C. Judd, of Morion and Toronto.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

Leaving Kingston

T. Graydon, who has been foreman at Angrove's garage for some time, is leaving this week for Trenton, where he is going into business. Since coming to Kingston Mr. and Mrs. Graydon have made many friends, who will be sorry to see them leave. On Sunday afternoon at Sydenham Street Methodist Bible school session the superintendent, E. P. Jenkins, spoke of the loss the Sydenham Street Church would suffer by Mr. Graydon leaving. During the time he had been associated with the school he has organized the orchestra which assisted in the singing every Sunday.

Report Steamer Sold

It is reported that the steamer St. Lawrence has been sold by the Canadian Steamship Lines, Limited, to the Kingston Navigation Company, composed of members of the Kingston Board of Trade, which will place the vessel on the Kingston-Ogdensburg route this summer. The St. Lawrence has been for many years on the banner boat of the P.O. fleet when those interests dominated the Thousand Islands steamboat traffic. The vessel will now be transferred to Canadian register.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

Aristocratic Oats

W. J. Patterson of Perth roller mills, paid $136.35 for thirty-three bags of 1919 oats to one of our Drummond farmers. Mr. Patterson says they will test close to good western oats and is offering them to the farmers for seed. This is the highest price ever paid for oats in Perth.

Electric Light Plant at Lakeside Burned

Mysterious Fire Destroys the Source of Light and Power in Thriving Village

Lakeside, April 12.—The power plant of Mr. S. J. LeGott which has supplied Lakeside with power ever since that village had electric power, was burned to the ground Sunday night at about 7:30 o'clock, from causes unknown, but thought to be spontaneous combustion.

At the time of the fire the majority of the villagers were in church and the whole town was suddenly plunged into darkness. Today the village is without street lighting or house lighting, and several places, which depended on the LeGott plant for power, are unable to operate. The largest of these is the W. G. Charlton Flour Mills, which has been forced to suspend operations on account of the fire.

Mr. LeGott stated this morning that a few minutes before the blaze was discovered his son Hugh had gone through the building and found everything in order. On the next day a fireman, when he entered the part of the premises where the crown wheel is situated, he was greeted with a burst of flame that burned his eyebrows and lashes. The whole place seemed to jump to large proportions all at once, which substantiated Mr. LeGott's idea of spontaneous combustion. A curious point in connection with the fire is that the crown wheel, where it appears the blaze began its work, is a most unlikely place for such a thing to happen, and in fact the cause is really shrouded in mystery.

A hose was secured from Moore's planing mill to fight the fast growing blaze and there were many willing volunteers from the crowds who were streaming out of the churches to assist in the work. For the hour and a half that it took to burn the building to the ground, the blaze could be seen reflected in the sky for many miles around. It is not thought that the actual loss will be heavy, as it is understood that the building was well covered by insurance. At the last election the village voted in favor of the introduction of Hydro power, but it will be some time before this power can be brought into use and in the meantime the villagers will have to resort to the old coal oil lamps for illumination.

Safe and Efficient Home Treatment

Many Weak and Ailing People Who Have Been Helped Strongly Recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There is only one way to build up a run down system if the blood is pale and thin. Many diseases are caused by thin blood. Other diseases cause the blood to become thin and the wasting effect of these disorders cannot be combated successfully until the blood is restored to its normal condition.

Vital Statistics of First Quarter

Births, Marriages and Deaths Increased—Deaths by "Flu" and Diphtheria.

The vital statistics of Belleville for the first quarter of the year are very illuminating. City Clerk Holmes in his report as Secretary of the Board of Health, shows that in January, February and March, births, marriages and deaths all increased. His statement of conditions follows:

Deaths—Deaths by "Flu" and Diphtheria.

Deaths Classified as to Years

Under 1 year—15.
From 1 to 10—8.
From 10 to 18—2.
From 18 to 30—7.
From 30 to 50—9.
From 50 to 70—14.
Over 70 years—22.

Comparison with Months January, February and March, 1919.

	1919	1920	Increase
Marriages	19	39	20
Births	59	90	31
Deaths	40	77	37

Part of the increase of deaths for 1920 over 1919 can be traced direct to the epidemic of influenza and pneumonia which caused 15 deaths. Diphtheria has been responsible for 5 deaths. The city is not alone in the matter of increased death rate for the past three months, as the whole Province has been afflicted with a much higher percentage of contagious diseases than usual.

Young Men of Peterboro Urged to Marry

The young men of Peterboro are not getting married fast enough, according to Bishop O'Connell. At High Mass in St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday, His Lordship strongly denounced the condition of affairs existing today, which led to the startling results that in such a large parish as St. Peter's there had not been one marriage since the first of December.

He stated that if this condition of things was allowed to continue it would soon become a serious problem in the province. It was the duty of all young men who had not yet married to get married as soon as possible. He thought that many of the young men in the city would be far better off married. This question was one that was becoming so serious in all parts of the world that he was required to report on it to the Pope when he reached Rome next month. It was a source of great regret to him that this was the only matter in the diocese about which he would be compelled to make an unfavorable report.
