CARSON AND LAW REPLY TO ASQUITH

Support of the Unionist Party is Pledged to Ulster.

LET PEOPLE DECIDE

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, Oct. 29.—Bonar Law, leader of the Conservatives in the House of Commons, and Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster malcontents, replied to the Ladybank speech of Premier Asquith on the Home Rule question at a meeting here last night.

Mr. Bonar Law said that if the Premier meant to invite the Unionist leaders to exchange views and suggestions with the Liberals they would respond that they would consider carefully any proposals with a real desire for an agreement. This, he said, was one possible course; another was, quoting Mr. Asquith's phrase, "full steam ahead," upon which the Unionist leader's verdict was "That way madness lies."

Another way, he said, was a general election, which was the duty of the government.

"The people alone," concluded Mr. Bonar Law, "are entitled to decide. If their decision is against us we will bow to it, however unjust it may be." He said he could not speak for Ulster, but believed that such a result might even settle the question there.

"If, however, the Government tries to drive Ulster out of the Union before the question is submitted to the country, Ulster will rightly resist, and will be supported in her is by no means a rare thing these times. But it is a rarity with us, because we take care to buy only the best grades of coal, as we know our customers would not buy from us any inferior qualities—not twice anyway. At it is our policy to keep our customers, we could not afford to give them any but the best coal, full weight, without dirt or rubbish and at a reasonable price.

RHEUMATISM KEPT HIM IN BED

Suffered Tortures Until "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him

McMILLAN'S CORNER, ONT., SEPT. 30th, 1910. "Your remedy, 'Fruit-a-tives' is a perfect panacea for Rheumatism. For years, I suffered distressing pain from Sciatica or Sciatic Rheumatism, being laid up several times a year for days at a time. I went to different doctors who told me there was no use doing anything—it would pass away. They gave me mustard plasters and other remedies that did no good. Plasters took an effect on me except to blister me and make raw spots. I took many advertised remedies without benefit, but fortunately, about two years ago, I got 'Fruit-a-tives' and they cured me. Since then, I take 'Fruit-a-tives' occasionally and keep free of pain. I am satisfied 'Fruit-a-tives' cured me of Rheumatism and they will cure anyone who takes them as directed. If this letter would be of value to you, publish it." JOHN B. McDONALD. Indeed, this letter is of value to us and to the thousands of sufferers from Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago and Neuralgia. It points the way to a certain cure. See a box for full trial size, 25c. At Dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

resistance by the whole Conservative party. The Unionist leader compared the situation in Ulster to conditions in America preceding the Civil War. He said he had urged Sir Edward Carson to attend the meeting so that the pledge he (Law) had made at the Blenheim Palace rally in July, 1912, to support Ulster in her resistance to Home Rule might be made perfectly clear. The speaker maintained that the government had brought forward its last proposals in order to confuse the issue. If the Government refused to go to the country the Unionist leaders would not decline the invitation to a conference, and would properly consider any proposals made to them and answer them with a real desire to find a solution.

Sir Edward Carson said he would consider all overtures when put in plain language, but as far as he was concerned, no offer will be of any use unless it is consistent with the Ulster covenant.

Sir George Kéwlich, at one time Liberal member of Parliament, made a speech denouncing the British Parliamentary system, of which, he said, bribery was a recognized part. The Corrupt Practices Act was, he said, voided, and there is a recognized market price for honors. He said the price of a knighthood was $25,000, that of a baronet $125,000, and of a peerage $300,000. Sir George was secretary of the Board of Education 1900-1903.

PROTESTANTS OF SOUTH IN FAVOR

Believe That All Will Be Well in Ireland in a Short Time.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—Windermere cables The Star as follows:—Dublin, Oct. 29.—Here is the Nationalist's side of the home rule battle.

Whatever the interpretation read into Mr. Asquith's speech by Unionist men and English Unionists, one thing is certain; Nationalist Ireland will not tolerate the exclusion of Ulster or the six counties. For the last few days I have been visiting such centres as Cork, Wexford, Wicklow and Westmeath, and there I talked with men who have been at the head of the home rule fight for the last 20 years, with the exception, of course, of Cork O'Brienites, lieutenants of Redmond, and they emphatically declare the bill will be in operation on schedule and will include Ulster, though they admit the Orange counties may win certain considerations.

In the southern counties, too, I have found Protestant home rulers who live on good terms with their Catholic neighbors, and do not fear, as does Ulster, that the priests will dominate, through the Nationalists and the proposed parliament in Dublin.

These southern Protestants want to see a united Ireland, and firmly believe that when such time comes, religious questions will take a back place, and legislation by Irishmen for local affairs will further mend conditions.

Fair Living From Land. Both the towns and agricultural districts are certainly not of the type of uneducated serfs one used to read about that is found now in the south. Although conditions cannot compare with the lot of the farmer in Canada, tenants are beginning to gain a fair living from the land. It is the financial credit of England that assisted them.

Despite the fact that home rule has to be paid for by Ireland, the land problem, under home rule, is reserved for some years to the Westminster Parliament.

An interesting and thoroughly Irish answer to Ulster volunteers are parades in Atholone, where 5,000 home rulers have formed brigades, duplicating the manoeuvres of the Ulsterites, even to cheers for the King. Cheers were also given for the Fenians, who invaded Canada.

Both Sides in One Corps. Atholone's regiments have many Protestants in the ranks and a military executive containing men of both religions was formed. Greatest argument against exclusion or possible bloodshed was given me by a commercial traveller from Ulster whom I met in Waterford. He said Belfast without question is the commercial capital of Ireland. If Belfast were excluded from home rule she would lose four fifths of her immense trade throughout Ireland, and big exporters and manufacturers of Ulster are not losing sight of this, for once home rule became operative, there would be a signal change of front in Ulster's stronghold.

Cause of the Explosion

How 28 Germans Were Killed When Air-ship Exploded.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—The explosion of the dirigible Zeppelin LZ 12, which on October 17 cost the lives of 28 officers and men of the German navy and army, composing the entire crew, is attributed in the official report on the disaster to a partial vacuum formed in the centre gondola behind a new kind of wind shield. This was used for the first time on the ill-fated airship for the better protection of the crew and it sucked the gas escaping from beneath the aluminum structure of the dirigible into the gondola, where it was exploded by a spark from the motor.

The possibility of such suction had been overlooked by the Zeppelin constructors and the naval aeronautic experts and it has now been decided that the shield is not to be used in the future.

The men have consented to consider arbitration and will wait until Tuesday before calling a strike.

END OF CAMPAIGN IN SOUTH BRUCE

Attempt to Stir Race Feeling Worst Feature of the Fight.

CONTEST A CLOSE ONE

TEESWATER, Oct. 30.—A dozen meetings in different parts of the riding last night brought to a close a Federal bye-election campaign strenuous even for South Bruce, which is not a political bye of either party, and where he who would win must work. In several instances, as at Walkerton and Chesley, two final meetings were held in the same town last evening, the Liberal organization having shown no liking for joint debates. Mr. W. D. Carville, the Conservative candidate, and the speakers who have assisted him have striven to lay the issues of the day and the policy of the government fairly before the electors. Mr. R. E. Truax, the Liberal candidate, has been engaged in a personal canvass of the constituency for months past, and he and the band of members of Parliament who have aided him have been heard on platforms all over South Bruce. The regrettable feature of their campaign has been the deliberate endeavor to rouse race prejudices among the German-Canadian voters. Having fought a good hard fight until the last moment, Conservatives are looking forward with confidence to the result of to-morrow's polling. Both parties, however, feel that the contest will be a close one, and are praying for better weather than has prevailed for the past two weeks.

Convincing replies to such arguments as were advanced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. George F. Grahame at yesterday's meeting were given by Hon. Arthur Meighen, the Solicitor-General, and Mr. A. H. Musgrove, M.P. of North Huron, here last night. They were listened to by an audience which was large enough in spite of the unpropitious weather to crowd the Town Hall, and which was attentive, appreciative and at intervals demonstratively enthusiastic. Dr. G. S. Fowler acted as chairman. A very rare prize was bagged a few days ago by Mr. Wm. Riddell, Ayr, Ont., a local hunter, in the shape of a fine specimen of whistling swan. The bird measured seven feet from tip to tip and was in fine condition, being very fat and having beautiful white plumage. It is very seldom this species of bird is seen in Ontario, its common haunts being in the Mississippi Valley and along the Atlantic coast.
