A disastrous collision! Prices knocked to pieces by dynamite! Values of Ready-Made Clothing pulverized by a cyclone! Gents' Furnishings at deflationary rates. I am determined to reduce my stock of Overcoats as prices will do it and it's the low prices that I am holding out as an inducement to the public. I have too many goods, no room for them.

It snows and it blows and the cold stormy weather will no doubt set every intending purchaser seriously thinking of how and where he can buy his winter clothing and buy them of good quality as well as cheap. I wonder what J. J. PHILLIPS has for us at the present time. Here it is first-class goods, best of make, just as good as fit as any tailor-made guaranteed, at prices lower than the lowest, and last, but not least, courteous treatment and always a good fair deal to every one just as advertised.

J. Kenneth, the six year old son of Thos. Barney, met with a very serious accident on Wednesday morning last. He was riding on a sleigh loaded with seven barrels of coal oil and when attempting to drop off the side of the sleigh. The team was on a slow trot at the time and as he let go his hold he dropped partially under the sleigh and the runner of the hind "bob" ran over his right leg. He was picked up and carried first into the post office and then to his father's house and Dr. Hearn summoned, who found that both bones of the leg below the knee were broken and the flesh of his leg lacerated. This morning he is reported as doing as well as could be expected.

Yesterday we received the most beautiful catalogue of seeds, bulbs, plants, etc., ever sent out in America, from the well-known Canadian firm of The Seed House, Co., Toronto. The immense business success of this enterprise is wonderful. They attribute it to the high grade of seeds they supply—complete with business and care. For '92 they offer Campbell's white chaff wheat, a great variety, Early Goddard, and Golden Seed oats, three new potatoes, and the wonderful Pringle's onion, besides an immense array of novelties in Words of Praise for "Central Canada Great Fair by a Lover of Progressive Agriculture.

It was brilliant autumn time, when the gorgeous woods are gleaming, the bright, golden sunlight, and the brilliant autumn time, when the birds are singing, and the leaves are falling, and the sun is shining, and the air is fresh, and the sky is blue, and the water is calm, and the land is green, and the people are happy, and the world is full of life, and the future is bright, and the past is glorious, and the present is beautiful, and the whole is a harmony of the whole that lullies delusion.
