THE TRIANGULAR LODGE, OR HOUSE OF TREES, NEAR KETTERING.

Built by Sir Thomas Tresham 300 Years Ago. It Was a Sight of Especial Interest to the Church Congress at Northampton Recently—The Idea Was to Typify the Trinity—It Is Triangular Throughout.

One of the sights of interest to members traveling to the Church Congress at Northampton, England, recently was the peculiar building known as the Triangular Lodge—or House of Trees—built by Sir Thomas Tresham three hundred years ago. It can be plainly seen from the Midland Railway, just after leaving Rusbhton station, near Kettering. It is one of three peculiar buildings erected by Sir Thomas Tresham in this locality. Sir Thomas Tresham, the "builder," as he was called, wished by his design to typify the Trinity. Over the door is a Latin inscription of three words, meaning, "These are Three that bear witness." The place is all three, each of its three sides being 33 ft. 4 in.—that is, 33 1/3 ft. in length. There are three storeys. Each has three windows on each of the three sides, and each of the windows in two of the three storeys is in the shape of the triangle. The panes of glass are all triangles, or three-sided. In each of the other windows there are twelve panes in three fours. There are three gables on each side, rising from the eaves, and from the centre, where the roofs meet, rises a three-sided pyramid, terminating in a large trefoil. The smoke finds vent from this chimney by three round holes on each of the three sides. On the top of each gable is a three-sided pyramid covered with a trefoil. The building is almost covered with splendid carving, and there are three Latin inscriptions, one on each of the three sides, each having 33 letters. Three angles on each side bear shields. Inside this peculiar house each corner is cut off from each of the three main rooms, so that on each floor there are three three-sided apartments.

Castle Marie Correll.
Marie Correll, the novelist, has published an article in an English magazine on "Vulgarity in Wealth," in which she says some pretty harsh things about rich Americans, including Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and Mr. Andrew Carnegie. She likens Morgan to a "moneyed octopus stretching out his greedy tentacles in every direction and striving to grasp the British shipping industries and Interests.

"Miss Correll calls Mr. Carnegie a 'poor human being' and accuses him of patronage, ostentation and swagger. But the gem of this fierce onslaught by Miss Marie is found in this paragraph: 'As a nation of bombast and swagger, the United States is a kind of rare show in the world's progress. But her strength is chiefly centred in dollars, and her influence in the social world teaches that dollars are the only ware. English society has been sadly vulgarized by the American trait.'

Water Cross.
One of the profitable "side crops" for farmers and market gardeners is water cross, says Country Life in America. It requires very little care, and is in good demand at all times, excepting in two of the summer months, when the plants are flowering and producing their seed. The best quality is produced from shallow streams of running water, free from mud, as the latter spoils the flavor, but it may also be cultivated in common garden soil, though the produce is much inferior.
About Christmas time large quantities of water cross are sold at twenty-five cents to seventy-five cents per half peck. In spring and early summer it is still profitable and sold in great quantities, though at much lower prices.

Best Milk Cow.
The milkman was treating himself to a holiday. Before starting he said to the hired man: "Be sure and feed the best milk cow well. Give her all the roots she can eat." Coming into the yard on his return, he saw piled up against the pump a good supply of carrots, turnips and parsnips. "What's this for?" he inquired angrily. "Sure, and isn't the old pump the best milk cow after all?" answered Pat.

Like All Gossip.
Mrs. Abel—How Mrs. Cuttle did run on about the Perkinses! I have no patience with a woman who talks so about other folks.
Mrs. Cain—Neither have I. It's perfectly disgusting! But what Mrs. Cuttle said about the Perkinses was awfully interesting.—Washington Times.

What a Man Thinks.
"When a man of twenty considers a woman, he thinks of her beauty, but at thirty he thinks of her loquacity." "What does he think at forty?" "Oh, he thinks only of himself by that time."

Grief.
Grief never sleeps. It watches continually, like a jealous husband. All the world groans under its sway, and it fears that by sleeping its clutch will become loosened and its prey then escape.

Take no chances on the man who wants to lend you a dollar. He'll probably come back later for ten.

Sometimes the man who hesitates is just the fellow who doesn't get lost.—Minneapolis Times.

Dropsical Swellings

An Accompaniment of Kidney Disease—Most Frequent in Advanced Age—Mr. Treman Cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The kidneys when in health filter from the blood the urea which is in reality poisonous waste matter. When the kidneys are weak and deranged the urea remains in the blood and causes it to become watery and deficient in nutritive quality.

Dropsical swellings are the result. At times the ill-effects are felt about the heart and death comes suddenly in the form of heart disease or apoplexy. With others the legs swell until they become of unsightly proportions and require to be kept bandaged.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills prevent and cure dropsical swellings and all the dreadful symptoms of kidney disease. They cure thoroughly by striking directly at the root of the trouble and setting the kidneys right.

Mr. James Treman, 536 Adelaide Street, London, Ont., states:—"Two years ago I was laid up with kidney disease and urinary troubles. Besides the pain and inconvenience caused by these troubles, I became dropsical, and my legs would swell up so that I could scarcely go around at all. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I procured a box and continued the use of this valuable medicine until now I can say for a certainty that I am entirely cured. I never took any medicine that did me so much good, and am firmly convinced that if it had not been for this medicine I would not be working today."

As a family medicine of tested and known words, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have never been approached. They act directly on the kidneys and liver, regulate the bowels and ensure the perfect action of the digestive and filtering systems. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box. At all dealers or Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto.

There is a certain amount of grief and sorrow which comes with every great joy to give it a cost-mark whereby we may always remember its value.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS

ELECTRIC DANCERS.

An Easily Made Toy That Will Give You Lots of Fun.

With the help of electricity in its simplest form a great many tricks and entertaining feats can be performed, such as the following: Get a plain sheet of glass about 12 inches long by 8 inches wide and insert it between two volumes, as shown in the illustration. The distance of the glass from the table should be about three inches. With the help of scissors cut a number of small figures, such as men, women, clowns, animals, etc., not higher than 1 1/2 inches, out of different colored paper. Lay the little figures flat in a line on the table underneath the glass.

MAKING THE FIGURES DANCE.

Make a sort of ball of woolen or, better yet, silk cloth, warm it a little and rub the surface of the glass with it. You will notice immediately how the electricity obtained by this process enlivens the little paper figures; how they stand up and jump to the glass ceiling of their little ballroom, to be repulsed and fall back, only to renew their dance. If you stop rubbing, the funny actions of the figures are continued for awhile. When the dance is ended, the touch of the hand on the glass is sufficient to enliven the figures again.

An Ideal For Boys.

It is the ambition of all boys to be men. Do they think what constitutes manhood? The idea of most boys is that a man is one grown in years and size and free to come and go and act without parental or other restraint. Boys should be taught that these things are not all that constitute manhood. It is something more than mature years and size or parental freedom. True manhood is made up of character, of human excellencies, of good behavior, gentleness, of honesty, of truthfulness, of desire and ability to do good. Whatever that person's calling, his first thought should be to be a man, a useful man, a true man in every respect and at all times. He may be a poor man, so far as the possession of this world's goods is concerned, and yet be an ideal man, a pure man in thought and action, standing before God and man as one determined to do his whole duty to his fellow creatures as far as his circumstances and ability will permit. A man clean in mind and body may defy the world and be respected by every one.

Let boys keep an ideal of this kind of manhood ever before them and endeavor to imitate him in his virtues, and they will be likely to spend their days in happiness and possess an ideal family and home.—Southern Standard.

Sprouted Again.

My sister had a baby tooth which needed pulling, and Brother Charlie, aged five, said he would pull it for her, which he did. A few days afterward the new tooth, which had just pushed through the gum and could be plainly seen, was discovered by Charlie, and he said:

"Why, that mean thing! I thought I pulled it clear out, and here it is sprouting up again!"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Prudent Maid.

Miss Dorothy Dot, before going to work, takes her little tin bucket and little tin spade. And Bobbie and she work away with a vim. Till her little tin bucket is full to the brim. "With this sand we can build us a little dry spot. If the ocean is too wet," says Miss Dorothy Dot. —Harriet Brewer Sterling in St. Nicholas.

When to Eat His Supper.

"Fred, you didn't sleep a wink last night, and you kept me awake, too," said little Bess in a complaining tone. "You should never go to bed after supper."

"But when am I to eat my supper?" Master Fred wanted to know. A puzzled look overspread her face for a second, and then she said in the tone of one having solved a problem: "The next day, I s'pect."

Chameleon Spider.

The chameleon spider is one of those spiders which do not spin webs. It sits among the yellow petals of the black-eyed daisy, with which it is very much alike in color, and when a butterfly flits along it springs out and seizes it, with a bound like that of a tiger. Thus the stock of butterflies, whose caterpillars are ruinous to orchards and gardens, is kept down.

Didn't Break the Rule.

Tom had been kept in at school for talking out loud. "Why did you do it, Tom?" asked his mamma. "Didn't you know that it was against the rules?" "No," said Tom. "Teacher only said I wasn't whisper and I didn't."

Two severe cases of Ovarian Trouble and two terrible operations avoided. Mrs. Emmons and Mrs. Coleman each tell how they were saved by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am so pleased with the results obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it a duty and a privilege to write you about it.
"I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge, a great weakness, and at times a faintness would come over me which no amount of medicine, diet, or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound found the weak spot, however, within a few weeks—and saved me from an operation—all my troubles had disappeared, and I found myself once more healthy and well. Words fail to describe the real, true, grateful feeling that is in my heart, and I want to tell every sick and suffering sister. Don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and take my word for it, you will be a different woman in a short time."—Mrs. LAURA EMMONS, Walker-ville, Ont.

Another Case of Ovarian Trouble Cured Without an Operation.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For several years I was troubled with ovarian trouble and a painful and inflamed condition, which kept me in bed part of the time. I did so dread a surgical operation. I tried different remedies hoping to get better, but nothing seemed to bring relief until a friend who had been cured of ovarian trouble, through the use of your compound, induced me to try it. I took it faithfully for three months, and at the end of that time was glad to find that I was a well woman. Health is nature's best gift to woman, and if you lose it and can have it restored through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel that all suffering women should know of this."—Mrs. LAURA BELLE COLEMAN, Commercial Hotel, Nashville, Tenn.

It is well to remember such letters as above when some druggist tries to get you to buy something which he says is "just as good." That is impossible, as no other medicine has such a record of cures as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; accept no other and you will be glad.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.
