The Home Coming. Personal Mention.

Corporal Raleigh Bishop returned unexpectedly from overseas on Friday evening of last week. As his coming was not looked for until the next morning there was no reception prepared. Corporal Bishop, who is a son of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. L. Bishop, Summer street, went over with the 53th and was transferred to the 53th in the capacity of stretcher-bearer. He did such good work at the front that he was given medical work. A severe attack of trench fever sent him to England where he was at the time of the signing of the Armistice. He appears now to be in good health and spirits and is gladly welcomed home by many friends.

THE ACADIAN last week inadvertently omitted to mention the return from overseas on Monday evening, Dec. 16th, of Capt. Herman DeWitt. Capt. DeWitt was practicing his profession at Regles when he enlisted. He went over with the 8th Hospital Corps in the dental department and has been doing good work. The band assembled to celebrate his return, and an appropriate address was delivered by Rev. G. W. Miller, after which he was driven to his home escorted by the band. Dr. DeWitt will return to the west as soon as his discharge can be arranged.

Opera House. THE STRANGEST STORY EVER TOLD. The Whispering Chorus speaks to you. As it guided John Tremble so does the Chorus guide you. 'The Whispering Chorus' is made of many voices—the voice of the tempter, the voice of mother love, of self-sacrifice, of fear. John Tremble heard the voice of the tempter, then the voice of fear, held for a moment by the prompting of sorrow and of love, then on and on until one voice dominated all the rest, the voice of self-sacrifice. That woman he loved, might be happy, he discovered the voice of a savior.

Don't fail to see this masterpiece at the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday. Money to loan on mortgage securities. Apply to H. S. Crawley, Wolfville.

Night in the Country. Twilight had fallen o'er the glade, Earth seems asleep; As if some fairy spirit made A silence deep. The birds had flown to their nest, The workmen had gone home to rest, For the day was gone. The twilight deepened into night, O'er that fair glade, The fitting bat in aimless flight Wide circles made. And then the moon rose o'er the hill, Giving the world its light until The dawn appeared. —B. I. F., Wolfville.

Christmas Celebration at the N. S. Sanatorium.

The N. S. Sanatorium at Kentville celebrated Christmas in the good old way, and not one of the patients, military or civilian, was forgotten by Santa Claus. Boxes came from all parts of the Province, in the splendid new dining room connected with the Infirmary was a new Victrola, to be played last night at dinner for the first time. It was the gift of the town of Wolfville, and will provide music for the patients at the most honest Christmas trees, beautifully decorated and illuminated, centred at the large rooms, with miniature trees on the tables.

The dining room, for the special Christmas dinner, presented a particularly lovely scene. Each table was centred by a chimney, in miniature, filled with nuts, candies and raisins. Little Christmas baskets were at each guest's place, with a pretty message card. Pillars were entwined with garlands of evergreen and the lights softly shaded. It was a regular turkey dinner too, in spite of the high cost of that bird. The patients not able to go to the dining room were served at attractively decorated trays. It was a happy day for everyone. One of the boys said he had been smiling all day, whether because his mind was becoming weak or not he did not know. Not every one was gay.
