

Edmundston Locals

Archibald Fraser was in town last week.

Hon. J. E. Michaud went to Fredericton on Wednesday.

Miss Beth Rideout, student at the Normal School at Fredericton, is home for the vacation.

F. M. Dayton of Moncton is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hammond.

Miss Jean Miller who is taking a business course in Moncton is home for the Christmas vacation. She will return to Moncton shortly.

Gordon Lawson, senior student at the University of New Brunswick, is home for Christmas. He will leave for Fredericton either Saturday or Monday.

The Presbyterian Minister on Sunday night made his annual review of World Events. It is the one Sunday in the year that he preaches a long sermon. As the people were previously warned there were not many fatalities.

Kent County has shaken up the Federal Politics a little, the idea of a General Election before the end of 1934 is not an impossibility. The possibility of other Counties going as Kent County went is not an impossibility either, there may be drastic changes within a year. We have heard rumors of dissatisfaction even in Madawaska County. Politics these days is a very uncertain profession—one can never tell.

In a telegram received by our two members the Hon. J. E. Michaud and Pius Michaud, from President Thornton of the C. N. R. last week in answer to an enquiry regarding certain reports, current that the offices here in connection with the railroad were to be abolished they received the following: "Your Message 21st. Change referred to thereon not contemplated. H. W. Thornton." We are glad to hear it.

The New Year came in like a Lion alright.

James McKinley of Woodstock is visiting at the home of his son, A. S. McKinley.

Miss Jessie Anne returned to the Ladies College, Wellesley, N. S., on Wednesday morning via the C. N. R.

Miss Viva Armbruster went to Woodstock on Wednesday to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Armbruster accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Owens spent the Holidays in Woodstock, afterwards Mrs. Owens went to St. Andrews for a day or two returning on Thursday.

Miss LeBlanc who is doing such good work in the Province under the Government in the line of Domestic Sciences has been in Madawaska County for the past week or two.

This is the first week after Christmas—the week the toys are mended, the Christmas tree thrown out, and a gradual getting back to normalcy. Next week is the week the toys are thrown away, the children return to school, the band play in their beautiful band house opposite our beautiful post office, dump more Chlorine in the waters of the Madawaska for us to drink, and behold the normal has become an accomplished fact once more.

Mrs. Nap. Levesseur wishes on behalf of the W. B. A. to thank all those who helped to make the Christmas Tree a success, especially Santa Claus. Mrs. Levesseur telephoned to the Observer asking that the above be given space in our issue of this week. We are sure that the people of Edmundston however, should return thanks to the W. B. A. and to its Secretary, Mrs. Levesseur. The real work and anxiety and strain was upon them, and any little part the people had in it was a pleasure. As for Santa Claus, well we know M—, I mean we know Old Nicholas. Any way next year another visit from the old man.

SEDELL-MCKENZIE

On New Year's morning at ten o'clock a wedding of local interest was solemnized in Trinity church when Miss Annie Sedell, youngest daughter of Mrs. John Sedell, became the bride of Mr. George McKenzie. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. Franchetti, of Edmundston, assisted by Rev. J. Reese Jones. During the service Mrs. William Hoyt played softly on the organ. The Christmas decorations made a fitting setting for the event which was witnessed by immediate relatives as well as many guests. The bride who was attended by her niece, Miss Laura Wright, wore a suit of navy bolivia cloth with grey squirrel trimming and grey hat with long navy plume and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Miss Wright looked very attractive in a gown of black velvet trimmed with black fur and hat of coral velvet with black velvet streamers and carried a bouquet of coral carnations. The flower girl, little Miss Ruth Wright, looked very dainty in rose tulle with rose poke bonnet. The groom was supported by Mr. Raymond Wright. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Percy Murphy. During the signing of the register, Miss Anderson of Fredericton sang very sweetly "Oh Promise Me." After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Murphy Wright. The bride and groom left on the afternoon express on a trip to Montreal and other Canadian cities, followed by the good wishes of many friends. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie will reside in Woodstock. Among the out of town guests were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie of Sackville; Miss Anderson of Fredericton and Mrs. Basil Green, of Birch Ridge.—Victoria News.

OBITUARY

Possibly the oldest person on the Tobique passed away on Saturday morning at the home of Ray Ross, Riley Brook, in the person of Mrs. Jessie Vanderbeck.

The deceased was 86 years of age or thereabout. She had always enjoyed good health and was only confined to her room for a short time.

She was anxious for the summons to come and seemingly did not want to linger unnecessarily long to be a burden. She died happily trusting in her Lord. A very fine spirit was shown by both relatives and friends who so kindly administered to her wants during her illness. She lacked for nothing that kind hands could do. The way the remains were prepared for burial, the beautiful casket, wreath of flowers, all are tokens of a very fine spirit shown by relatives and friends in the community.

The funeral services were conducted on Sunday, December 30, at the home in which she died. Licentiate H. A. Sipprell spoke from the words "Set thine house in order, for thou shalt die and not live."—Isa. 38: 1. The large number who gathered to pay the last tribute of respect, show the good will they had for the departed.

JONES-DUNPHY

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dunphy, Douglas, York county, when their daughter, Mabel Gertrude was united in marriage to William G. Jones of Cloverdale. The bride was beautifully attired in blue silk velvet and carried a bouquet of coral carnations. The flower girl, little Miss Ruth Wright, looked very dainty in rose tulle with rose poke

Price Changes of Dr. Chase's Medicines

By increasing the contents of the boxes the cost to the user remains unchanged

THIS revision of prices affects only three of Dr. Chase's Medicines—the Kidney-Liver Pills, Nerve Food and Catarrh Powder.

In spite of the constantly increasing cost of doing business ever since Dr. Chase's Medicines were placed on the market many years ago there has been no change in the prices of these three medicines to the consumer.

It has now become absolutely necessary to make some changes, but this has been worked out in such a way that the cost to the user remains the same.

The slogan for Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will therefore remain "One pill a dose—One cent a dose," for while the price will be 35 cents instead of 25, the contents of the box will be 35 instead of 25 pills as formerly.

The same applies to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which will sell at 60 cents a box instead of 50 cents, since the contents of the box is now 60 pills instead of 50.

With the exception of Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powder, which is now 35 cents a box, the prices of Dr. Chase's other medicines remain unchanged.

Dr. Chase's Almanac has now been mailed and distributed to practically every home in Canada, 1,550,000 copies, if you did not receive yours kindly advise us and we shall mail you a copy free of charge. Edmanson Bates & Co., Limited, Dr. Chase Building, Toronto.

To Business Men of Carleton County

No Carleton County newspaper ever attained so great a circulation as The Observer, which goes weekly into nearly 3000 homes between Woodstock and the north county line. The circulation is 25 per cent greater than a year ago, and the rates are no higher—yet the Business Men of Hartland in particular and Carleton County in general are taking less than one-half the advertising space they formerly used. Why is this? Has The Observer ceased to function as a County Booster? Is the fault on the part of the management in anyway?

The Time to Advertise is ALL the time, but particularly when times are hard and trade dull. Buy liberal space in The Observer and breathe the breath of life—hopefulness, courage, good cheer—in your ads and the discouraged buyers of the county will waken up and become optimistic again.

Compare the columns of The Observer today with those two years ago and the conclusion may easily be drawn that BUSINESS IS DEAD IN CARLETON COUNTY, the merchants have taken cold feet, lost courage, and even ambition. YOU can't afford NOT to Advertise. People trade where they are invited to trade, as witness the tens of thousands of dollars sent in response to the cheery invitations from Toronto. Stick a pin in your self Mr. Home Merchant—see if you are really wideawake to your opportunities. Write The Observer about your advertising problems, or call and talk the matter over.
