THE GARDEN.

In a garden that I know, Not so very long ago, Grew a rose; In its bud-time, memory's bliss, And love's cold hand closed over it.

In that garden growing cold Still the fragrance clings of old, And the smile; From the kindly-sweet of eyes. Melt these sullen, wind-swept skies.

Meeting in London, Eng.

The Church of England the world over is making great preparations at the present day for the epoch-making congress, known as the Pan-Anglican Congress, to meet in London, England, in July. King Edward VII. has 400.000,000 subjects; of this number only one-seventh are Christians. Accordingly the Established Church is calling to her aid, and to her council, the children from all lands, wherever her Chufreh has spread. These will bring with them a thank offering, which will be used to spread the day of the shooting and asking her whether she would keep her promise?"

Accordingify the Estabbished Church is calling to her aid, and to her council, the children from all lands, wherever her Chufreh has spread. These will bring with them a thank offering, which will be used to spread the conquest of the Cross among the heathen and un-Christian peoples of the giobe. One hundred and twenty three years ago the Church of England had not a single bishop outside the British Isles. To day there are 192 in India, China, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, Canada, Africa and the United States. It is expected that at least 7. 500 members of the Church will attend this great event. All the large halls of the great English metropolis have been secured, including Albert, Caxton. Westminster, Zion College, Great Hall and Hoare Memorial. In these simultaneous conferences on various branches of church activity will be beld. The leading men from cache country will speak on subjects of which they are masters. Some of the topics will be: "The Unemployed," "The Drink Traffic," "Christanity" and" "Socialism," "The Drink Traffic," "Christanity" and" "Socialism," "The Drink Traffic," "Christanity" and" "Socialism," "The Marriage Question," and "Gambhing."

oner, also testified to her brother's drinking. His sister-in-law and other witnesses said he seemed to have been drinking heavily for several days before the murder.

London, March 27.—The PostmasterGeneral, Mr. Sydney Buxton, in opening an exhibition of postage stamps at Cax ton Hall, under the auspices of the Junior Philatelic Society, said that objection had been taken by some people to mourning envelopes. It had been suggested that he, as Postmaster-General, should produce a stamp with a black border. He was rather inclined to make a small issue of such a stamp, and he hoped that philatelists would buy them up at high prices.

The total value of the stamps on show
an expert put at £80,000.

Cocke's Yard.

Vancouxer. March 27.— An Atlin despatch, records a fatal mining accident at Spruce Creek on Wednesday evening, resulting in the death of William Amyot and A. St. G. Bowley. Bowley is a nephew of former City Solicitor St. G. Haghersley, Vancouver, candidate for Oxford in the Imperial Parliament. With a companion named Anderson, the two men were engaged in drifting operations on a bench claim at Spruce Lake, and were entombed in the cave-in without a second's warning. Both men were killed. Search for the bodies is proceeding. Bowley was at one time a clerk in the Bank of British North America at Victoria.
