SIRS,—The remarks of "A Tradesman" in the last issue of your invaluable journal, are well worthy the perusal of every fisherman and mechanic in this district...

HARBOR GRACE, OCT. 4, 1873.

COURT OF GENERAL QUARTER SESSIONS.

The Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace was held at the Court House in this town on Monday last, the 6th inst., Israel L. McNeil, Esq., Stipendiary Magistrate and Acting District Judge, presiding.

Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: It affords us sincere pleasure to inform you there is no business of a criminal character to occupy your attention on the present occasion.

It is satisfactory to know that the result of the Shore fishery, as far as this Bay is concerned, has been better the present season than that of last year...

The potato crop, upon which many families in this district mainly depend for subsistence during the winter months, has fortunately been free from disease the present season...

Our public streets and roads are now in excellent condition. Much good work has been done the present season under the superintendence of the Road Board...

A Court of Revision of Voters for this district will be held each and every day of the present week, at the Police Office...

You will, Gentlemen, please visit and inspect the Gaol, and if you have any presentment to make, it shall be promptly forwarded to the Executive.
