On Sunday last the Venerable the Archdeacon Forsyth celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his pastorate in the parish of Chatham. Educated at the U. N. B., he was ordained Deacon in 1873 by the late Bishop Medley and appointed to Chatham in succession to the Rev. W. S. Neales who removed to Newcastle. On March 1st, 1874 he was ordained Priest by the same Bishop and since then at different times has been advanced to the dignity of Canon and Archdeacon.

Chatham can boast of having had only three Church of England clergymen in 92 years, the late Rev. S. Bacon from 1821-69; the late Rev. W. S. Neales from 1869-72 and the present incumbent from 1872 to the present time. As a familiar figure on the Miramichi and a household name in Anglican circles we desire to extend to the Archdeacon our very heartiest congratulations.

You can believe every word that an honest politician tells you—but first find your honest politician.

Girls, don't be snippy and stuck up because you are young and handsome. It may not take long to outgrow it.

You may be justified in blowing your own horn, but not in going on a toot.
