Charlottstown by way of the ice, with a load of hay. When about half way to town the man missed Mr. Hearts from the sleigh, and at once turned the borse, and on going back a short distance found him lying on the ice unconscious. He at once unloaded the sleigh, placed Mr. Hearts upon it, and drove him to his home. Dr. Taylor was called in and, upon examination, found that the right collar bone was broken, and that he had sustained some internal injuries. The broken bone was set, and we are pleased to learn that Mr. Hearts is much immored.

We regret to learn of the death of D. C. Martin, Esq., M. P. P., of the Law firm of McLean, Martin & McDenald, which took place at the Hotel Davies about 11 o'clock last evening. He had been sick since Sunday last. The cause of death was inflammation of the bowels. On Wednesday evening of last week, as Mr. John McKenna, an old and well known resident of this city, was conversing with some acquaintances in Connolly & Co's store, he suddenly staggered and fell to the floor insensible Dr. Conroy was sent for, who, on arrival, administered some restoratives, which partially roused him. He was then taken to his home, and is now much better.

On Wednesday afternoon last, Mr. W. B. Dawson, of St. Peter's Road, Charlottetown Royalty, went to his barn to do some work.
