

"Till the Day Dawn."

The remains of the late Rev. T. Devaux, P.P., Argentia, who died so unexpectedly on Monday last, were laid to rest yesterday in the quiet churchyard of his native home, Ferryland, following Mass of Requiem. The service commenced at 10.30 in the Chapel at Ferryland, the celebrant of the Mass being Rev. Fr. O'Reilly, of St. George's, a former classmate of deceased, and who represented Bishop Power at the obsequies; Rev. Fr. Dunn, who represented Bishop March, of H. Grace, and also a former classmate, acted as Deacon, and Rev. Fr. Enright, as sub-Deacon. Rev. Fr. Phipps, P.P., Pouch Cove, acted as Master of Ceremonies. In the sanctuary were Right Rev. Mons. McDermott, V.G., representing Archbishop Roche; Rev. Fr. McCarthy, Tor's Cove; Rev. Dr. McGrath, Witless Bay; Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan, Outer Cove; Rev. P. Kelly, Manuels; Rev. Fr. Ryan, St. Bride's; Rev. E. J. Rawlins, Cape Broyle; Rev. P. O'Brien, Bay Bulls, and Fr. Sheehan, St. John's. Rev. Brothers Fennesse, Strapp, and Walsh, uncle of deceased, were also present. After the celebration of Holy Mass, Right Rev. Mons. McDermott delivered a beautiful and touching panegyric on the life and labors of the young priest, who had just been called to his reward. He paid a glowing tribute to the admirable qualities of deceased, both during his studies and brief priesthood. From his early youth he showed a piety that was rare and a zeal that nobly fitted him for the great mission of saving souls. The preacher also referred to the passing of the deceased priest's brother, who made the Supreme Sacrifice "Somewhere in France" fighting the battles of the Empire, and now the priest had made the Supreme Sacrifice fighting the battles of Christ and his Church. During the service the choir was led by Rev. Dr. McGrath, who was assisted by two of the visiting Brothers, and the singing was of a very high order. The remains were followed to the graveyard by practically all the people of Ferryland, as well as many from the adjacent settlements, while among the mourners from St. John's were Hon. M. P. Cashin, uncle of deceased, Mr. P. F. Moore, M.H.A., Hon. J. J. Ellis, and Hon. W. W. Woodford.

Dangerous Derelict.

A derelict vessel has been sighted a few miles south of the Flemish Cap, which is a menace to navigation. The wreck is supposed to be that of some ship which became the victim of Hun subs when operating on this side. The above information is contained in a message to the Customs Department.

Died at Hospital.

Captain Collins, master of a steamer in port, who was taken to the General Hospital yesterday, suffering from jaundice, died shortly after entering the institution. The deceased mariner was but 33 years of age, and belonged to the disposal of the body, are being awaited from the relatives.

Fishery Reports.

Between Eagle Point and Mall Bay the catch to date is given as 4,580 quintals, and for the week past 50 quintals. There is a good sign of fish on the grounds but a present scarcity of bait is caused by bad weather, which prevents nets from being attended to. There is an abundance of codfish on the local grounds, and given bait and good weather fishermen should make some fine catches. A few boats yesterday secured good fares, the fish being of a large size.

Up to the 5th inst. some 300 vessels have been reported as arriving from Labrador and the Straits, their catches aggregating 104,040 quintals, an average per schooner of 349 quintals.

Some people have bilious spells about every so often until they get to be a habit. The liver is at fault. Get the liver right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the bile will not collect in the blood until it poisons you.

There is no one organ in the human body which has so great a control of health as the liver. Hence the far-reaching effect of this treatment.

Wedding Bells.

REELIS-CLINTON.

Yesterday morning at 8.30, after a nuptial Mass, a very pretty wedding was performed at the R. C. Cathedral by the Rev. Dr. Greene. The contracting parties were Mr. Charles Reelis and Miss Julia Clinton, daughter of the late Capt. John and Bridget Clinton. The bride looked charming in a costume of white silk, and was supported by her sister, Miss Mary E. Clinton, who was attired in champagne silk. Mr. R. Clancy supported the groom. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. T. J. Allen, of Bowring Bros. Ltd. After the wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's uncle, after which the happy couple left by motor for Bay Bulls, where the honeymoon will be spent. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Reelis many years of happy wedded life.

Western Notes.

The recent appointment at Channel, has not been received by the people there with any cordial expressions of approval, either denominationally or otherwise, and it is expected that a strong protest will shortly be made.

Benjamin Rendell, who for many years was an invalid, passed away at Channel on Oct. 7th, and was buried on the 9th. The members of the Orange Association attended the funeral and gave their departed brother "Orange" honors.

A schooner laden with salt bulk fish, left Port aux Basques for an American port last week, and a vessel with a cargo of gasoline and kerosene arrived at the same port. In addition several coal cargoes have also been entered.

His Excellency the Governor was at Channel on Saturday, 12th inst., on his way to England. The usual reception was given by the people. Magistrate Squarrey was master of ceremonies, the address of welcome being read by Rev. H. J. Read, Rector of the Parish, suitable to which reply was made by the Governor.

Piles of flour are lying on the wharf of the Reid Nfld. Company at Port aux Basques exposed to all weathers, there being no storage space available. Time and again the Company have talked of enlarging their freight shed, but talk ends it.

Spanish "Flu."

A number of cases were reported yesterday to the Health Authorities; twelve being removed to the Grenfell Hall Hospital, where there are now forty-three patients being treated. One death has taken place, the victim being a Mrs. Hurley, of Convent Square. Yesterday Mrs. Hodder, Miss Thistle and Miss LeFleur offered themselves as volunteer nurses, the last named lady who is a trained nurse, having had considerable experience with "Flu" cases at Sydney, C.B. Notwithstanding this addition to the nursing strength, more help is required, as it is the intention to conduct a convalescent hospital, which will be at the top of the building. Four of the patients under treatment are almost ready for removal from the nursing ward, and a majority of those suffering from the malady are making rapid strides toward convalescence, though a few are seriously ill. One schooner—Florence B.—was quarantined yesterday. Dr. Campbell sending the Captain to hospital.

"Not Dead, But Sleeping."

Yesterday afternoon there was laid to rest amidst the beautiful surroundings of the General Protestant Cemetery, the mortal remains of Irene, daughter of E. J. and Mrs. Horwood. The funeral was from the parental residence and was largely attended by the many relatives and friends of the deceased young lady. The casket, enclosing the body, was covered with a wealth of floral offerings, the last affectionate gifts of those who in life knew and loved Irene Horwood. The Burial Service both at the home and cemetery was conducted by Revs. Forbes and Hemmison.

Your Neighbor's Pa

By RUTH CAMERON

War is a stimulus, an exaggerator, an intensifier of both good and evil. It intensifies virtues and it intensifies faults. A particularly common example of this latter kind of intensification is the increased activity of the person who is always afraid someone else isn't doing his or her part. In former times this consciousness concerned itself with all the neighbors' varied obligations, but now it is poured into one channel—sense of responsibility for his neighbors' relation toward the war. The natural result of such a concentration of diffused energies, is to produce a very turbulent force.

the War Lasts Much Longer She Will Be Worn Out.

I have a neighbor who belongs to the class. If the war lasts much longer I am afraid she will be worn out, her vicarious conscience keeps her in such a state of moral indignation. She is continually disturbed about someone who isn't doing his or her part. For instance, she cannot see how she can bear to spend so much money eating in expensive restaurants at a time like this.

Again, she wonders at Mrs. R.—who is not willing to let her son volunteer.

Is It Afraid Mr. M. Is Trying To Escape His Income Tax.

And she has the most serious kind of doubts as to whether Mr. M. isn't trying to escape part of his income tax.

Can it be that her circle of friends below the average of patriotism? Or can it be her conceptions of patriotism are exceptionally high?

Not the latter, if one is to judge by her own rather mediocre contributions.

As I read this over, I feel inclined to fear it up.

Not because I have done my neighbor an injustice. I don't think I have. But because I am afraid that those who read will see in my neighbor someone who has criticised them and will feel justified.
