Returns from half of Vermont gave Harding three to one lead over Cox. In the home district of Chas. F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, Harding beat Cox two to one.

Maine reported Harding leading Cox by the largest plurity ever giv en a Presidential candidate. Ohio, one-fifth complete, showed growing vote for Harding. Harding carried two wards in the city of Atlanta, Ga., and two parishes in the Louisiana Sugar Belt, both Democratic territories. In the New York Senatorial race, Senator Wandsworth was leading his MOTOR TRUCK STRUCK BY TRAIN Democratic opponent, Lieut. Governor Walker, Senators Brandegee, of Connecticut, and Moses, of New Hampshire, opponents of the League of Nations, both seemed certain of re-election. Late closing of polls in Western States, difference in time, long ballots and greatly increased vote were causes of delay in returns.

NEWSPAPERS CLAIM ELECTED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. With tooting horns and the crackle of rattlers New York city poured out into the street late to-day for its time honored night celebration. New York always celebrated, whoever the winner and whoever the loser, but hardly had the streets been filled than they were emptied again or almost emptied, for the skies opened and the rain descended by far more than the Career of Presiproverbial bucketful. First ten per cent.—then twenty per cent. It is incredible! We thought when we staged our famous "Back to '14 Campaign" that ten per cent. was a generous reduction, though the effect it produced was well worth it. It showed to other stores the necessity for protecting the customer, and they followed our lead. Now-twenty per cent.! But there it is in black and white-"orders from headquarters," sent from New York, the buying centre of America. Kearney is there—and Kearney knows!

Everything goes into this Sale—lock, stock and barrel—giving you the benefit of next year's prices now, and selling you Quality Goods no matter how sheer the reduction.
