London Experimenting With Rubber Pavements

London.—Streets paved with gold in action in the days of Dick Whittington. London's first Lord Mayor, streets paved with rubber are discussed in the future. The subject is being made in St. Martin's street with rubber blocks instead of asphalt, and although the cost is far more expensive, it is expected it will last 25 years as against the 14 years for wood block paving.

Russia Abolishing Revolutionary Tribunals.

MOSCOW.—Revolutionary tribunals have been administering justice in Soviet Russia for the last five years to be abandoned, according to an announcement by N. Krylenko, prosecutor and chairman of the Supreme Tribunal. Ordinary and special courts of justice will be organized instead. The revolutionary tribunals came into existence at the time of the Red Terror in 1918. They were a kind of revolutionary death sentence upon outside court jurisdiction, with power similar to those of the Cheka. They acted by special law, which gave them wide powers both in court procedure and in sentencing behind closed doors.

Preparing for Battle.

(From the Cincinnati Times-Star.) This was at a solemn conference preceding a church wedding. There were present the groom, the best man, the fathers and the guest list. "You understand," said the best man, "you meet 'em when they come and ask 'em if they are friends of the groom or the groom?" "I don't know what?" asked the head of the groom.

"You see the friends of the groom on one side of the church and the friends of the groom on the other side of the church?" "Yes, yes," said the head of the groom. "They'll take sides soon."
