

World Famed Story at the Nickel Monday

"THE DARK SWAN" CONTAINS SOMETHING UNUSUAL.

to a parching thirst in the simplest The management of the Nickel manner possible," said Hugh David Theatre announces to its patrons "The son, Liquor Commissioner. Dark Swan" as the current attraction The room will contain chairs, tafor the coming week, beginning Mon- bles and waiters. Only men who are British subjects and otherwise eligi-This is the Warner Bros. Classic of ble to get on the voters' list can be the Screen, adapted from the Ernest employed. The commissioner thus Pascal novel, which lost no time in hopes to head off an invasion of forswinging into the forefront of "best eign ex-bartenders. The proprietor, sellers" the moment it was released likewise, must be British and eligifor publication. ble to vote.

This unusually powerful novel by The outstanding bar and brass rail a young American writer differs from will be conspicuous by their absence. the story of the ugly duckling in an and this is expected to eliminate the important respect. The dark swan system of wholesale treating in vogue never grows to be beautiful. in the old days.

Mr. Pascal is credited with having Draught and bottled beer only will worked out interestingly the charac- be on sale, with as high as four and ter of his heroine, who is lovely in one-half per cent. alcoholic content spirit but more than plain in feature. and not lower than three per cent. Her sister, a girl of rare beauty, is will be sold.

son.

selfish, spitzful and, although pos- Provision is being made for sale of sessed of a certain petty shrewdness, beer in "wet spots" only of those rather stupid. Yet, in the end, the electoral districts which voted for beauty gains largely of the world's beer in the June plebiscite. Thus, goods and, after her fashion, of hap- whatever licenses are issued in Vanseveral others were slightly injured piness; while the dark swan is hard couver will be in downtown polling put to maintain the serenity of her divisions, which voted "wet."

Twenty-three electoral districts in The major roles in this interesting the province voted wet, and seventeen production are entrusted into the dry. There are no provisions in the hands of Marie Prevost, Monte Blue, regulations, for the issue of licenses and Helene Cradwick. Others in the in any of the seventeen districts cast are/Lilyan Tashman, Mary Mc- though there were some definitely Larcn, Carl Miller, Vera Lewis, John "wet" sections in these dry areas. Patrick, and Arthur Rankin.

Vancouver hotelmen must pay $1, 00 each for beer licenses. It is un nown how many wlil be issued, estites running from thirty to seventy. Victoria, New Westminster, and Camloops voted against beer, so that he next class of city to obtain the glass system will include Nanaim and Fernie. They will pay $500 for cense privileges. The $300 license lass, will include industrial towns up to 2,500 people. Then comes hamets, whose fees will be as low $150 a year.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 5, (C.P.)-

British Columbia's new beer halls

There will be no bars or barmaids:

rules are designed to prevent any

valent in British Columbia some years

nounced by Attorney-General Man-

"We have applied ourselves to the simple instruction of the Legislature. It is a straight case of relief

FOR EVERY ILL-MINARD'S LINI-MENT.

Bartenders Need Not Al The final game in the first round of ply-British Help Only.

The dead man is William Fachnigen, the inter-club billiard tournament was who was fatally stabbed because he played at the Guards' rooms last naintained that Martin was fouled. night, E. A. Smith (C.E.I.) defeated A blow to the lower body dropped will operate from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. F. Rabbitts (M.G.C.A.) by 61 points. Martin to his knees for the count in The score was tied only twice, at 31 the eleventh round of a scheduled dancing will be prohibited, and the and 164. The breaks were:twelve-round bout. He claimed a foul, Smith (C.E.L)-13, 13, 16, 13, 17, 10, but the referee would not allow it and return to the "beer cabaret" so pre- 14, 11-107. declared Ballerino the winner by a Rabbitts (M.G.C.A.)-12, 13, 10, 21, knockout. ago, according to regulations an- 11,13-80.

As an ambulance arrived to take the Of the twenty games in the round injured boxer to a hospital, members the C.E.I. won twelve and have now of the two factions surged into the a lead of 352 points. The second round street. Knives, automatic pistols and will commence on Monday night, and blackjacks appeared like magic, and the pairs will be the same but arrang-turmoil followed. Extra police who ed in different order of play. reached the scene a few minutes later, restored order only after a series of CONGRATULATES WINNING TEAM sharp encounters.

Yesterday Mr. H. C. Hayward, Sec-Martin's condition is not serious. etary-Treasurer of the Feildian COLLAPSE OF MOTOR SYSTEM.

Hockey team received a message from New York, Feb. 6 .- (Associated Corner Brook congratulating the team on its success in winning the Press) - Vincent "Pepper" Martin, championship and inviting them to go Brooklyn junior lightweight, who was to Corner Brook, to play a series of knocked out in the eleventh round of games, with the team out there. As a scheduled twelve round bout last yet it has not been decided if the in- night by Mike Ballerino, is in Cumbervitation will be accepted but if this land Street Hospital here, suffering.

should occur, an interesting series of from the effects of a body blow, he regames should follow as at Corner ceived in the fight. Martin is unable Brook there are several who are well to talk, and is suffering, according to known in the hockey arena. physicians, from a complete collapse of the motor system. FIGHT FAN STABBED TO DEATH In order to find whether he has been FOLLOWING ARGUMENT AND RIOT OVER BOUT-STU-DENT BOXER'S DEATH

INVESTIGATED.

SNOODLES-

said, had been badly but not seriously injured. Brooklyn, N.Y., Feb. 6.-(United

PLEASE KIN I

BORRER YER

BROOM

2

STUDENT BOXER KILLED. Press)-One fight fan was killed and teb.12.14.

Saratooga County, Syracuse University tell them also that we will do our best vintage of 1905. The All Blacks of them the New Zealand footballe sophmore, following a knockout blow not to make a habit of it." Lord Des- 1925 are certainly of the old brand, be always welcome." At the class ducted to-day. at the university, will be questioned Fern, the emblem of the team, orna-collapse of Stever was an elimination Marquis of Londonderry, the Earl of are ex-Service men. When the contest in the welterweight class to Pembroke, the Earl of Lonsdale, Lord Blacks visited us 20 years ago the Annapolis Saturday afternoon. statement issued by a physician who largely toward Stever's death.

ADIEU TO ALL BLACKS. New Slogan of the Prince of Wales-"Defeat not yet an English Habit."

AREN'T YOU

INDUSTRIOUS !

GOING TO SWEEP

OFF THE SNOW

CHARLES 3

injured internally X-ray pictures will be taken to-day. The boxer, doctors

New Zealand flag was prominent in they be those of commerce, fo Hansen, oue of the leading athletes the decorative scheme, and the Silver or industry. New Zealand. by the district attorney and the cor- mented the menu card. The hosts in- to the war, and I am glad to know the oner. The bout which resulted in the cluded the Duke of Sutherland, the 11 members of the All Blacks t decide which would represent Syra- Desborough, the Earl of Denbigh, the sustained only a single defeat, and cuse University in a dual glove meet Earl of Portarlington, Viscount dare say there are many present wi with United States Naval Academy at Burnham, Viscount Campden, and can remember that famous ga Viscount Curzon, Lord Ashfield, Lord | with Wales. This season the New Stever, when he went down, did not Riddell, and Lord Woolavington, Sir Zealand team have disposed of crash to the floor as is the case in Lionel Halsey, Colonel Clive Wigram, single team with which they hav cnockouts, but went down slowly. A Commander Greig, Sir James Allen played, and they have just returne (High Commissioner for New Zea- from a successful trip across the attended the autopsy late last night, land), Sir Claude de Crespigny, and Channel. It is a wonderful re stated that an abscess at the base of the Bishop of Buckingham, General We congratulate all concerned. the brain undoubtedly contributed Sir Ian Hamilton, General Sir Wil- turally, the captain first of all, an liam Birdwood, General Sir Alexander all those who have played under him Godley (all of whom were associated but also those who came over wit with the Anzacs), famous athletes, them and have been responsible footballers, and cricketers, and re- their organisation and training. Con presentatives of every branch of sport | bination, we know, is the secret of Proposing the toast of the "All were among the company. All the efficiency in every game, and there Blacks" at a farewell banquet at the available members of the England is no doubt that combination and care Piccadilly Hotel, the Prince of Wales, Rugby team were there. The Prince, ful training have had much to who was in a very happy vein, sound in the course of his speech, recalled with the success of the All ed a note of optimism in regard to the the previous visit of an All Blacks team in this country. We know the future of British sport. "We ask the team to this country in 1905, remark with sportsmen there is always members of the team," remarked the ing, "It takes something big, like a next time, and I hope it will not Prince, "to tell the people down un- visit of a famous football team, to in- long before we have an opportu Syracuse, N.Y., Peb. 6,-(Associated der when they get back that al- press a boy, and that is one of the of welcoming another All

Ashes Spoil Sledding-Likewise Manly Beauty

NO'M

GONNA

DUST OF

SNOODY

in a bout with Carl Hansen , in the borough presided , over a company and my experience of all New Zealand university gymnasium, will be con- which numbered more than 300. The brands is that they are good, whether Sent a Splendid Brand of Men sportsmen. The cup bore the W To the shining leaf on th To the mighty heart of th pack, And the runners with flying This loving cup.

Dean, acknowledged the cordia ception of the Prince's toast, Porter declaring that the British pire possessed in the Prince of W its greatest asset. Both expres pinion that New Zealand and Engli footballers had learned some from each other which promised for their future relations.

RICHARD HUL THREE

speech the Prince presented

Mr. C. G. Porter, the captain of

eam, a loving cup as a mem

While memory stirs each brea

And the record that beat the

Each member of the team re

a silver miniature of the cup.

captain and the manager, Mr.

their achievements from

To the journey witho

And lift it high to the

turn!

rin gives :

the role of

ting being

The remain

en cast wit

climax of

cames in

in the last

culties are set

the scene is

Marks in her

ightful comedy

vaudeville

already set by

TS. As anno

ndous succe

is for same no

Music Store.

Church

Cathedral-8

ning Service

and

orning Serv

Present d

progress

Building

rning Pra

Baptism: 6

and Bil

mon. pre

and A

METH

11 and

4.15, H

play will be

were well up to the

