Department of Our Minerals, Engineering Prospecting and Protection of the Miner.

Mr. Editor, — Permit me to thank the columns of your widely known paper, The Evening Telegram, for a few words with regard to the engineering and development of our minerals, but first allow me to quote from the "Engineering and Mining Journal" of January 24th, 1925: "The development has just been announced by the Southern Pacific Railway Company of the Industrial Minerals Service, which is to operate under the supervision of its Geological Department." Mr. Editor, is it not within the power of possibility for our Government to do something similar for Newfoundland? It may not be out of the way to remark right here and now that we all know that our present Minister, Hon. W. S. Monaghan, and party have the full confidence of the whole electorate of this island and already he has shown himself worthy of that confidence in the stand he has taken with regard to the Bell Island miners. Yes, we must keep clean, and not make a deal for all. Then is it not possible for our Government to make an arrangement to encourage prospecting and mining work in connection with minerals by establishing an Industrial Minerals Service Bureau? Is it not possible for our Government to do this? We can't start it on a big scale, but we can start it on a small scale. Now, Mr. Editor, is it not the spirit of our fathers who prosecuted the seal fishery in the early days of that industry,

It is within your reach. The very first time that the "AJAX" DRY-DOY. BATTERY pours its glowing beam of new life into your body, it is the commencement of the cure of your troubles. The "AJAX" DRY-DOY. BATTERY is recognised as being the most perfected scientific electrical appliance in existence. It has proved to the hilt the immense value of the extraordinary curative power of that life-giving element, "Electricity," which is pumped into the body by the wonderful appliance. Read for the book to-day, entitled "Electricity, the Road to Health," which explains to you how you can cure yourself in the privacy of your own home without the aid of medicine. There are several booklets for Ladies and Gentlemen; please specify which required when writing.

STEEDMAN'S POWDERS

Cooling and health giving. An ideal aperitif for children from the period of teething to the age of 10 or 12 years.

WRITE FOR SOOPLY "HINTS TO PARENTS" (FREE) JOHN STEEDMAN & CO. LTD. LONDON.

In their little craft, the very best of them only fishing pupils in comparison with the steamers of to-day. Nevertheless they brought in from the icefields in one season 600,000 young and old seals. The steamers in their very early days didn't duplicate that catch, and therefore we should not "despise the day of small things."

Supposing, Mr. Editor, that the Government would appoint a committee to enquire into the matter and report to the Government, I am sure such men as Mr. Bob Rendell, Mr. H. P. Shortis, Mr. (Engineer) Powell, Mr. D. J. Davies, Mr. W. A. Mackay, Mr. H. B. Hatch, Geologist, and many others in St. John's who could give valuable information and opinions on matters of that kind, would, I feel confident, give their services gratis for the benefit of their country; and supposing that the Government could see their way clear to go only so far (for the present) as to purchase a couple of diamond drills and outfit so that the prospecting party could hire the said drill from the Government, the party hiring the drill would be required to pay one month's hire in advance, and so on to the end of his or their term; and further, to give security for whatever obligation the party hiring said drill might be under. It would be much easier for a prospecting party of small means to hire a drill than it would be to purchase one; in fact the purchasing of a drill and outfit, including diamonds, is altogether out of the question for the prospecting party of small means. I'll venture to say that had the Government done something of this kind ten or fifteen years ago, we would know more about our mineral wealth to-day than we do. In fact we simply know nothing of its magnitude, and the country would be the better off by hundreds of thousands of dollars, but now we have to go outside and wait for other people to come in and do what we should do ourselves, and could do more economically ourselves.

About four years ago I wanted to hire a diamond drill for the Gull Lake Copper Company but couldn't hire one, though there were two Sullivan drills within a stone's throw of me, so to speak. The owners wouldn't hire, they wanted to sell, and although we could get a bargain in one or both of them, we were not in a position to buy a drill and outfit just at that time, but we could hire, and, of course, were prepared to hire. I have often wondered, Mr. Editor, and have talked the matter over time and again with my friends, as to what use the past Governments, say for the last twenty-five years, have put the hundreds of thousands of dollars that have been paid into the Crown Lands Department for mineral licenses and ninety-nine year leases? The prospector often asks his chum why doesn't the Government do something with the money that we are paying into the Mines Department year in and year out to encourage and help the prospector? And that is an important question, though it may seem a trivial matter to those who have never travelled the bush on a hot July day in company with an army of mosquitoes.

Paying into the Crown Lands office year in and year out, from a prospector's viewpoint, reminds him of a poultryman going every day to his hen house gathering the eggs and walking away with them, without ever feeding the hens but simply telling them to get down from their perch and scratch in the ash-box and clean themselves, and to-morrow he would call and expect the same number of eggs, as there is no corn or oats or warm-mash. Finally the hens are all played out, no more eggs, and the "goose that laid the golden egg" is dead too. Now, Mr. Editor, would the Government think you have been any the worse had that famous roasting machine been turned into a good Sullivan diamond drill and given to the prospector on the terms that I have mentioned before ever it pealed a stick of pulpwood? Oh ye gods and little fishes, what honour is there laid up in store for you?

Apologising for trespassing on so much of your valuable space, and thanking you in anticipation with the hope that you, sir, will use your good offices with a view to encouraging the prospector to search for the hidden treasure so lavishly scattered throughout this Dominion.

Yours truly,

Big Double Bill at the Nickel Monday

COLLEEN MOORE IN IRISH ATTRACTION "COME ON OVER"

Rupert Hughes has hit the bullseye of the again with his Irish film "Come on Over" which will be shown at the Nickel on Monday. Its characters are human and lovable as those in "The Old Nest." Its humor is wholesome and persuasive and infectious and through its course flows a vein of Irish wit that only Mr. Hughes has been able to bring to the screen in all its delightfulness.

The other feature is a bright comedy drama entitled "Along Came Ruth" featuring that magnetic star Viola Dana.

Defeated in her attempt to conquer the big city as a commercial artist,

SIMONDS SAWS

Ruth heads for a country town where she gets a job as saleswoman in a furniture store. She brings Fifth Avenue selling methods to Main Street and her push and personality bring prosperity to Israel Hubbard's little shop. Then she falls in love with Hubbard's son. But Hubbard isn't going to have any son of his marry the hired help, especially when he has a match arranged for the boy with Annabell Burnham, a beautiful dumbbell, with wads of money.

SUGGESTIONS FOR SOLVING CROSS-WORD PUZZLES

Start out by filling in the words which you feel reasonably sure. These will give you a clue to other words crossing them, and they in turn will fill others. A letter belongs in each white space, words starting at the numbered squares and running either horizontally or vertically or both.

"Are You a Mason?" Scores Big Success

ARLIE MARKS CO. EXCEL IN FAMOUS COMEDY.

"Are You a Mason?" the brilliant comedy played by Arlie Marks Players in the Casino last night offers a new kind of entertainment. Whilst it is a screaming comedy from start to finish, it contains absolutely no trash. The fun is fast and furious and the audience thoroughly enjoyed every moment of it. Miss Arlie Marks plays a strikingly natural role in that of Annie Bloodgood. Miss Marks never wavers from in the slightest from the faithful characterization she has worked out. She is indeed an artist, to the finger tips. Lindsay Perrin keeps the audience in a state of laughter throughout. He is possessed of that knack of injecting originality into his work which greatly enhances any role which he interprets. W. L. (Billy) Phillips played the old man to perfection. Miss Agnes Stutz as Norah Casey was splendid. The balance of the cast, Louise Adell, Peggy Logan, Susie MacDonald, Mordle Scott, Ray Wassmund, Paul Brady, Paul D'Mathot, Walter DeLuna and James Daly are all excellent.

The settings used in this bill are beautiful and the lighting and staging are all that an artistic eye could possibly desire. The bill was splendidly interspersed with bright vaudeville numbers, all of which were warmly applauded. To-night is the last chance to see "Are You a Mason?" and we advise all to see it, and enjoy the greatest comedy you have witnessed in a decade.

Situation at Glace Bay

Mr. Don Butler, of Butler Bros., who has been in a business trip to New York, returned home via North Sydney, yesterday. Mr. Butler stopped off at North Sydney for four days while en route, and states that the strike situation at that place is a very serious one. At Glace Bay, where the majority of the miners reside, many of the families are destitute, and the children are sent to school clad in clothes made of cement bags. The Inco Steel Works, he states, has sufficient coal on hand to keep the plant going for the next two months. They have a large mail order on hand at present. Sufficient coal is at Port aux Basques for the railway service, as the Kyle brought over full cargoes previous to the strike, and it is hoped that the service in the Gulf will not be interrupted. Since the strike arose the company removed the pumps from the pits, and because the strikers would not provide maintenance men to keep the pumps free, the deadlock has become worse than ever. The International Miners' Union are behind the local union in the matter of refusing to agree to a reduction in wages.
