

Wesleyan Conference. June 5th. A notice of motion to reduce the number of the Stationary Committee was handed in. The Rev. W. F. Clarke of Guelph, was introduced to the Conference as the representative of the Congregational Union Church of Canada, and addressed the Conference at some length. A vote of thanks to Mr. Clarke was passed, and a motion of reciprocal kindness to the Congregational body.

It was announced that no fewer than 46 young men were already proposed and accepted by the Conference, as candidates for the Ministry. This is considerably more than for many years past has been received at one time.

In answer to the question, who had died? it was ascertained that the Rev. M. Whitting, John Law (Joseph Howgill), Thomas Garbutt, and B. L. Gable had finished their work and were taken home to eternal rest.

The Rev. W. G. Campbell, of the Irish Wesleyan General Mission was introduced and addressed the Conference.

The Ordination Services, in connection with the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, was held in the Richmond street Church on Sabbath, when the building was crowded to its utmost capacity. It was estimated that there were about 2,500 persons present. The ordination address was delivered by the President of the Conference the Rev. W. M. Punshon, M. A. The following persons were called to the ministry: - Charles A. Hanson, Joseph H. Locke, Joseph M. Hagar M. A., John Scanlan, George A. Mitchell, B. A., Thomas Colling, B. A., John O. Trotter, Wm. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the whole history of medical discoveries no remedy has performed so many and such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the throat, lungs and chest, as this long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for all attacks of cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From the Rev. Francis Lobell, Pastor of the South Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Connecticut: "I consider it a duty which I owe to suffering humanity to bear testimony to the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have used it—when I have had occasion for any remedy for coughs, colds, or sore throat—for many years, and never in a single instance has it failed to relieve and cure me. I have frequently been very hoarse on Saturday, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad misgivings, but by a liberal use of the Balsam my hoarseness has invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty. I commend it to my brethren in the ministry, and to public speakers generally, as a certain remedy for the bronchial troubles to which we are peculiarly exposed." Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 15 Tremont Street, Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

Grace's Debut Salve.

From Mr. E. Tucker, Deput Master at Salisbury, Mass.: "I have been troubled for years with a bad humor; sometimes outwardly and sometimes inwardly. During the past summer it manifested itself more than usual outwardly, and I used your Salve. All signs of it have since disappeared, without affecting inwardly, indicating, I think, the eradicating nature of the Salve." SETH W. FOWLE & SON, Boston, Prop. Sold by Druggists at 25c a box.
