Guelph Evening Mercury

SATURDAY EVEN'G, MAY 31, 1873 Republicanism in England.

In a free country like Britain where the right of free speech and open discussion are fully conceded it is not surprising that agitators spring up perionically, whose desire is to unsettle existing institutions, and to inaugurate a new state of affairs altogether. The same pheaffairs altogether. The same phenomenon has been observed since the time when constitutional government had an existence in the old country, but such enthusiastic reformers were not always treated with the leniency and license which are now extended to them. It is within the memory of many now living, when such agitators were often arrested, tried and convicted of sedition—a process of persecution which elevated them to the rank of martyrs to their principles, and tended to gather round them disciples to their doctrines, as enthusiastic as—them selves, and equally hopeful that they were helping to inaugurate a newers in the social or political world. The rulers now-a-days have more liberality and more sense. Thorougly as— The Deputy Minister of Militia is engaged arranging Sir George Cartier's papers, which are very voluminous, and putting the office in order for his successor. Langevin, who is acting as head of the Militia Department, is put down as an old sinecurist and abuses at a fearful rate. Sackcloth and ashes are plentiful among hangers on. ity and more sense. Thorougly assured of the stability of existing institutions, and of the respect the great mass of the people have for these, they allow the fullest liberty to all agitators to expound their views, and never attempt to repress demonstrations in their favor, unless violence is threatened and the pub. Five thousand emigrants arrived in lic peace disturbed. By this means New York on Wednesday and Thursday. much of the superabundant ardour of over-zealous reformers is dissipated, and like their burning words and over zealous reformers is dissipated, and like their burning words and flaming eloquence, melts mto thin air without doing any harm to anybody. Such seems to have been the result of the Republican Conference lately held, under the auspices of Mr. Bradlaugh and Mr. Austin Holyoake, at Birmingham. Both are, no doubt, sincere, energetic, and, it may be, able men, but they have undertaken a task which, as far as appearances go, is hopeless in the present day and the certainty is that if they remain in England they will live and die under the monarchy which they are seeking to destroy. Perhaps, too, there was a latent desire in their minds for a little notoriety in connection with this Conference, and, if so, then they have been talked about a little, have had a column of heavy ridicule poured on their heads through the Times, and been taken notice of the Mr. John Bright. We don't suppose, howevers that Mr. Bright in response sent a very sensible and outspeken letter, in which he spoke unequivocally in condemnation of the movement, and gave them, to understand that he had no faith in the overthrow of monarchy, but believed that all needed reforms, and the amelioration of the people could be secured under the system by which Britain had risen to its present rank among the matons. Instead, therefore, of words of encouragement, the great Commoner censured their wild dreams and reckless attempt to upset the established system of Government.

The only member of Parliament who moner censured their wild dreams and reckless attempt to upset the established system of Government. The only member of Parliament who gave them any countenance was Sir Charles Dilke, who, if we may be allowed to use a paradox, seems to be the only aristocratic Republican in England Matinee on Thursday, at 3.30 p.m., or when Schools let out.

England.

The Conference was an egregious failure. Even the working men, who are generally supposed—at least, many of them—to be republican in spirit, held aloof, as if they had no sympathy with the movement. The Trades Unions gave it the cold shoulder, and all things conspired to make it a laughing stock and an abortion. Such is Republicanism in England in this year of grace, 1873.

Forcep to Disgorge.—Our readers may remember that a few weeks ago we mentioned the fact that Mr. Jacobs, one of the sureties to the recognizance attached to the petition against Col. Higinbotham's election for the North Riding, extorted the W. H. TAYLOR, extravagant sum of $70 to pay his expenses from Elora to Ottawa, where he was summoned to give evidence with respect to the validity of his security. Col. Higmbotham's lawyer at the time objected to the payment of this sum, and the Speaker, who had ordered Jacobs to be paid, in the meantme took the matter under consideration. The other day he sent word to Col. Higmbotham's legal adviser in Guelph that he had reversed his direction for the payment of the $70, and ordered that Jacobs should pay back to Col. Higmbotham $36 of this sum. Jacobs has therefore to disgorge, and must rest content with $34, the legal allowance, and a sum which would have satisfied any one else but Mr. Drew's brother-in-law. expenses from Elora to Ottawa, LANDS FOR SALE — In the Townston, five 100 acre farms, from 35 to 80 acres cleared, good buildings and fences, well situated or received and markets, convenient method of 30 acres. GREAT COMMOTION IN THE DRY GOODS TRADE and a Tremendous Rush at our Mantle and Millinery Rooms.

On all hands we hear of dull trade: "Nothing doing," says Tom, Dick, and Harry, but it is not so at THE LION.

Times better than ever. Still great bustle and activity at the leading house. The spring trade is opening beautifully, thus encouraging us to greater endeavors in the public weal; and the reason of our success is apparent. Our Goods are all direct from the manufactory, and none can do a successful business only those who buy from first hands, for which our Establishment has long been noted, and has raised the standard of our House (combined with the energy of the proprietors of the firm) to the present proud position, and more especially for the last two years, so that our daily sales are almost equal to the combined trade of the same character in the Town of Guelph.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Our Millinery is a complete success this spring, the taste inherent displayed by Miss McDonald is captivating all hearts, and places her high in the ranks of first-class Milliners. Combined with the genuine popularity of Miss Sutherland, thus making our rooms the centre of attraction.

5 cases New Hats and Bonnets, registered styles, secured only for our House; 3 cases, third lot, of those splendid Black Silk Parasols, supplied with the double sword---the only ones in Guelph.
