Guelph Evening Mercury

THURSDAY EVE, NOV. 5, 1874

Town and County News

CURLING CLUB.—An important meeting of the Curling Club takes place this evening in Mr. Charles Davidson's office.
A full attendance is required. dtf

Y. M. C. A.—The monthly business meeting of the Association take place tonight (Thursday). The proposed changes in the Constitution and By-laws, and the Executive Committee's Monthly Report, will be submitted to the meeting, so that it is very important that there should be a large attendance of members.

ORANGE SOCIETY.—To-day is Guy Fawkes' day, the anniversary of the famous "Gunpowder Plot," and to-night the Prince Arthur L.O.L. of this town will hold their first soiree in the town hall. Addresses will be delivered by the Revs. F. Hutchison, Toronto; C. Den-roche, Acton; J. Potter, of Georgetown, and several clergymen of the town. The proceeds of the Soiree are to be given to the new hospital. As this will doubtless be a first-class entertainment, and as the proceeds are to be given to a benevolent institution, we trust there will be a large attendance.

ACCIDENT.—We are sorry to learn that Mr. Alex. Bruce, of the firm of G. & A.
Bruce, builders, of this town, met with a serious accident on Tuesday forenoon.
He was working on a new house which is being built for Mr. Cutten in the West Ward, and was walking across the joists on the second floor, carrying some mouldings on his shoulder, when he stepped on a short piece of plank which tipped up, causing him to fall straddle-ways on joist, and in such a manner as to inflict serious injuries. Drs. Keating and Macdonald were soon in attendance, and under their treatment, Mr. Bruce is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, but it will be some time before he will be round again.

HOUSEBREAKING.—Sometime between the hours of one and six, on Wednesday afternoon, the house of Mr. B. S. King, Glasgow street, was entered by some party or parties at present unknown. They effected an entrance through the cellar window, and thence up into the house, where they ransacked beds, drawers, and everything in which money was supposed to be secreted, as it was evident that funds were what was wanted. Fortunately, they got very little for their trouble, as two gold dollars belonging to the children, and a meerschaum pipe are the only things missed. A valuable gold scarf pin which had been taken out of its place was left, the inference being that the party had been disturbed by the entrance of Mrs. King at six o'clock. The family were all away during the afternoon, and it looks as if the thief had been aware of the fact, and consequently not a stranger in the town.

THE SACRED CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—A sacred concert, given by the choir of the Wesleyan Methodist Church Sabbath School, under the leadership of the Rev.
J. E. Lancelley, was held in the Methodist Church, last night, and was, in every respect, a decided success. The attendance was very large, the whole body of the Church being filled, and quite a number in the gallery. The children were arranged upon raised seats, which had been erected at the end of the church, and their happy, smiling faces, and neat appearance was, a sight of itself, worth the price of admission. The Choir was taken at eight o'clock by the Rev. I. B. Howard, after which the children sang several selections, such as "Pass along the Watchword," "Light by-and-by," "Chorus of Fire," "Man the Life-boat" "Never part again," besides numerous other pieces, in a manner which showed that they had been made the subjects of very careful training, on the part of their pains-taking teacher. Two declamations, given by Mr.
E. Lancelley, of Hamilton, were well received. His rendering of Macaulay's famous lay, "The Defence of the Bridge against the Tuscan Army," was especially good. An able and eloquent address was given by the Rev. B. B. Keefe, Brantford. He dwelt upon the importance of Sabbath School work, and the advantages of early training up the minds of children in a saving knowledge of the doctrines of Christianity, relating several anecdotes illustrative of the power and influence of early impressions. A solo by the Rev. J. E. Lancelley, entitled "The Enquiry," was very finely rendered.
After the chorus "Good Night" had been sung by the children, the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Harper, after which the audience dispersed, every one seemingly delighted, beyond their most ardent expectations, with the excellent entertainment that had been furnished them. The proceeds, after deducting all expenses, amounted to the handsome sum of $75, which will be handed over to the building fund of the Church.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE MERCURY

Santandar, Nov. 4.—The non-combatants have left Iran en masse. The Car-lists fire three shots to one fired by the defenders of the town. Several persons have been wounded in the town and Fort of Iran and one killed. Gen. Elio, in command of the besieging forces. D. N.
Carlos is also present with his army.

CALL TO A MINISTER.—At a recent meeting of the congregation of Knox Church, Galt, it was unanimously resolved to tender a call to their late pastor, the Rev. J. K. Smith, of Halifax.
The stipend promised is $2,500.

Centre Riding of Wellington.

THE ELECTION TRIAL.
Dr. Orton Unseated.
Wednesday, Nov. 4.

The court resumed this morning at half past nine. The first witness called was Martin Fox.—Saw Dr. Orton before the election. He stopped at my house.
Since the election I got $20 from a man from Fergus, who came into my house one evening. Don't know who he was.
Saw him here yesterday, but don't know his name. I Orton never asked me to get terms for bringing in voters.
I made a mistake in saying I got the money after the election—it was three or four days before. The man who gave me the money handed me an envelope, saying he had a letter for me. He didn't tell me for the election. I hired ten with the money. I was always a supporter of Dr. Orton.

T. A. W. Gordon.—Disburied about $60 for the election. Gave James Casey about $20; about $20 to Mr. McManus; spent a good deal knocking about. Don't know whose money this was; got it from Peter King, of Fergus. He volun-tered the money, not saying where he got it. I asked no questions about it.
That's the only money I know of that was spent. Have no idea who gave Fox the money. I don't know Dr. Orton, or as I know, didn't subscribe a farthing.
Believe Mr. King has gone to Detroit.

David Brown.—I live in Garrafrax.
Voted for Mr. McKim at last election.
Owed Dr. Orton some money at that time, but was my meeting attention. Aaron Baker and Robert Burns canvassed me to vote for Dr. Orton. About a week before the election the former called at my house and left word that I was on a committee to canvass for the Doctor; also a handwritten bill stating what the Dr. owed me. I did not go. I was not home at the time. On election day Baker asked me if I was going to vote for the Dr., and I told him I was going to vote for McKim. He said Dr. Orton had told him "Tell David to leave the matter of my account to me, I will make that all right." No amount was mentioned. I owed the Dr. about $18. Burns saw me a day or two before the election and told me he had been at Dr. Orton's meeting in Douglas, and the Dr. had told him to tell me to go and tell Dr. Orton that I had no team, and I think he went out with a neighbor named Dunlop. I saw there was conversation about a team. He was to go with Dunlop's team and distribute bills, and help Dunlop take voters to the polls. Will not swear I left more than one bill at Campbell's. Put the money on a chair or table. Won't swear I didn't put it into Campbell's hand.

To Mr. Drew.—Dr. Orton didn't ask me to go to Campbell's, and had no idea I was going there.

Bernard Campbell.—Voted at last election for Mr. McKim. Saw Dr. Orton the night before, in my house. Was in bed when he came. He first asked me if I knew him. I said I didn't. He told me who he was, and I said I knew him. He asked me how I felt on the election, and I said I didn't know or care much about it.
He asked me to support him; I replied I couldn't say. He spoke of this great railroad, and the benefit it would do the country, and all that. I told him he might stop that; that I hadn't much interest in the country, and I wouldn't vote unless I was paid. He said that in the position he was he couldn't pay me, but if I would promise to support him, the next day one of his friends would come and see me about it. Nothing was said about money then. The Doctor asked me to support him, and I was going away, but came back again, and urged me to vote for him. I told him that if any of his friends were coming, they would have to come soon, because if McKim's friends would offer me a wage for my vote, I would vote for him.
When the Dr. came back to bid me goodbye the second time, he told me he would be much obliged if I wouldn't go to vote at all. I said that was just according as I was paid. When the Dr. left, I saw two men on the road. When I looked again I saw two cutters and two men, besides the Dr. It appeared as if they were talking; they were quite close.
About fifteen minutes after a knock came to the door, and I let Kelly in. I believe he was considerably the worse for liquor.
He was a thin, artful, mean-looking man, and money in my hand, and said I was to go with Dan Dunlop, in his sleigh, and vote early, and then go and canvass with Dunlop. He told me of others who were going, I said Dunlop had told me that I should go with cutters and two men, Kelly said "You never mind that; he's all right." He did not mention about bringing a team from me. I had no team.
He never mentioned about distributing bills. I watched him go away; I saw the cutters start away together.—Dr.
Orton's cutters left the lead. My wife was in bed when these visits were made, about twelve feet distant. The door was partly open. Found the bills were $4 and $2. Showed my wife the morning after the visitors had gone.

To Mr. Drew.—I said I would support the Doctor if I got money.—unless I was paid I wouldn't see for him. He said a friend would see me. Jeremiah Hallett called that night. I saw him the next day. Did not see McKim's son that night.
I got no money from McKim, or anything else for my vote. There was nothing said about getting land for me by McKim.
He hasn't done anything for me since about it. I intended to vote for McKim without money. I took the money from Orton's friends, because I had heard it was going on both sides, and I wanted to get some of it. When the Dr. left the house I watched him from the window.
I went to bed after a little; got up when the second person came. There was no light in the room. It was about eight o'clock. McKim told his story again about getting the money. When the Dr. came he did not say it was a great shame for me to ask for money. I told Dr. Orton that I would support him if I had had money paid at an election before, and I ought to get it then. Did not consider what the Dr. said as an offer for my vote. Did not tell Orton that McKim had given me $5.

Mrs. Campbell.—Am the wife of Bernard Campbell. Corroborated the statement of her husband about the visit the night before the election. Did not hear the visitor say who he was. He wanted my husband's vote, and the latter said he had his mind made up. Did not hear my husband say anything about being paid. My husband came to bed after the first person called, and another knock came to the door. A man came in and asked my husband to go with Dunlop early next morning. When the man had

Centre Riding of Wellington.

gone, my husband showed me $5 the man had given him.

Frederick Tilley, of Alma, said Dr. Orton had a bill against his brother, Thomas Tilley. The bill was paid since the election. He never told a man named Boyle, that it would not be bribery to have the bill forgiven.

John Tilley.—Never spoke to Boyle or anyone else about a medical account. He had one rendered him in December and paid it on the 27th February by selling a horse and cutter for $102, $80 being in cash, a note for $24 and the account.
James Doyle, of Peel, had voted for Mr. McKim. Had a conversation with Dr. Orton in Dr. Allan's drug store, shortly before the election. He tried to get my vote. We had taken our sick child to be doctored. Dr. Allan was not in, and I told my wife she would have to wait till night for him. Dr. Orton then said "You needn't wait for Allan; I'll take the child in hand and cure it, but you'll have to vote for me, and I'll charge you nothing." He then gave some writing to Dr. Allan's boy, who made up some medicine and handed it to me. Dr. Orton said "It's all right, but you'll have to vote for me." I told him I was going to vote for McKim. He then said "I'll then say something that I could get your vote? If so, say so." I again refused, and he asked my wife if she could do something to get my vote. That was all that was said. No claim has been sent in for the medicine. It was in a bottle, not in powder.

This closed the case for the petitioners.
Respondent's counsel then called Edward Allan, M. D., of Arthur.—Saw James Doyle's wife in his shop with a sick child. Dr. Orton was in and examined the child. Am opposed to Dr. Orton in politics. Think there was an expectorant mixture made up for the child, and a few powders. The bill is charged in my books, but can't say Doyle knows this. Heard a conversation between Dr.
Orton and Doyle. Don't think Dr. Orton was canvassing Doyle for his vote.
Shouldn't judge so by his manner.

Martin Snyder, re-called.—To Mr. Drew —While I was in the cure outside of Campbell's, Kelly drove up while Dr.
Orton was coming out of the house. We drove off, leaving Kelly at Campbell's gate. Did not see Kelly go up to the house. He could not have gone up while we were there without my seeing him.
We drove up the 13th line, then turned to the left to Ramsay's. He then went down the Owen Sound road, I think.
From Campbell's to Ramsay's, it is three miles. It was not more than 5 minutes between Kelly's coming up and our leaving him. Am sure Kelly's cutter was not driven away with ours.

To Mr. Bethune.—Dr. Orton and I went to a house opposite Campbell's—Kennedy's, I think. Can't say which one we came to first; think it was Kennedy's. Didn't hear Dr. Orton tell Kelly he mustn't pay any money for votes. I asked the Dr., when he came out, how Campbell was going to vote. The Dr. said "That man wants money, and I can't pay any money"—or "I am not allowed to pay money"—I don't know which. I didn't look back to see Kelly after he left. If he had moved, I would have heard the bells on his horse. Don't know whether the Dr. and I talked about Campbell before going to see him.

David B. Kelly, re-called.—To Mr. Drew —When I came out of Campbell's there was no one at the gate. Did not drive away in company with the Doctor's rig.
Orton never spoke to me about going to Campbell's. I heard him tell Snyder that Campbell wanted money. Orton could have known nothing of my going to Campbell's.

To Mr. Bethune.—First determined to go to Campbell's.

To Mr. Drew.—I did not put my arm around Campbell's neck when I went in.
Kew Campbell from having heard in Alma that I might get his team.

To Mr. Bethune.—Knew where a world find Campbell's house. Archibald Steele and Mr. McDiwan were present in Alma when I heard where Campbell's house was. My brain had not been affected by liquor, although I had drank several glasses of beer during the day. I met a cutter coming down the road, immediately after coming out of Campbell's.
There was no cutter in sight when I started from Campbell's. Heard the Dr. tell Snyder he couldn't give any money, shortly after the Doctor told me not to use any money. Determined to go into Campbell's first, instead of going to McGrogan's after Dr. Orton's cutter left. I thought I would find Campbell's house at that time. Nothing that Dr. Orton had said suggested my visit to Campbell, and giving him money, because Dr. Orton's strict orders were not to give money. Can't say why I broke the Dr.'s orders so suddenly.

Dr. Orton, the Respondent, was next called.—[By mutual arrangement, his examination was confined to the reference to Campbell's transaction.] Called at Campbell's the night before the election.
He was in bed. I asked him if he would support me. He said he would not promise, because Mr. McKim might come along and offer him a good thing. I said Mr. McKim would be more the fool if he did. I then gave him a lecture upon the foolishness of asking a bribe. He told me McKim had given him $5 at a previous election. I told him he ought to go to McKim again. After further conversation he refused again to vote for me, and I left him, saying, "Well, my friends will be coming along in the morning, and you can come along with them. I shall be obliged if you will vote for me." That's all that occurred. I was there about twenty minutes. I made no such remark as, that I could not give money myself, and my friends would call and do so, or anything that could be so construed. In my canvass there was no arrangement by which I understood this man would be visited. When I came out, I saw Kelly, who said he was going to see McGrogan, to get him to set as scrutiner.
After some conversation, I jumped into the cutter almost instantly, and Snyder and I drove off. I spoke to Kelly, and told him no money must be given. I didn't see Kelly go up to the house. I thought he was going to McGrogan. I swear positively that the giving of this money to Campbell was entirely without my knowledge. I didn't know who gave it, till yesterday. I suspected that if any one would give it, it would be Kelly.
Didn't hear during the canvass of any money being given.

To Mr. Bethune.—I expected Kelly to follow us. Don't know which way his horse was headed. Swear that Kelly didn't come after us, because I didn't hear his bells. Am certain he wasn't immediately behind us. I hadn't the slightest apprehension that Kelly would bribe McGrogan. Thought he might

Centre Riding of Wellington.

Was quite sober on the night before the election. Don't know where the Dr. went from Steele's. Am certain I didn't meet the Dr. in front of Campbell's house that night. The last house I was at was Duggan's, and that it was getting dark.
Was out with Mr. Barrett, of Pilkington.
I gave a man named Kelly $9, at Steele's hotel. He said he wanted to buy a party's vote—I think it was Campbell he mentioned. This was about nine o'clock the night before the election, at Steele's hotel. The Dr. wasn't at the hotel then.
I knew Kelly was a supporter of Orton's.
It was my own money I spent, and I didn't speak to the Dr. about spending it.

David B. Kelly.—Am a carriage trimmer in Fergus. Voted for Dr. Orton. Got $8 from Matthew Anderson and $10 from Jeremiah Hallett. I asked Hallett if he had any money. Heard that on the 12th Campbell of Peel they were going to be in possession of teams. Don't know Bernard Campbell. May have mentioned his name as one likely to have teams. Was at a house where a man named Campbell lived the night before the election. I saw Dr. Orton about 11 o'clock that night. I saw the Dr. standing on the road, and I asked the man in charge where the Dr. was. He said he was up in the house seeing about a vote. When the Dr. came out he asked me where I was going. I said I was going to McGrogan's, to get him to set as scrutiner. Heard the Dr. say to Snyder: "That man" (speaking of the man in the house), "wanted to get money," and I told him if he wanted money he would have to go to Mr. McKim.
Swear this was not said to me. Snyder didn't say anything about Campbell.
Will not swear that the Dr. said: "I would not give him money." When the Dr. was going away in his cutter he said: "Remember not to make any promise, or give any man anything to influence his vote." I hadn't been speaking about buying votes. Dr. Orton had previously warned me not to go into the Township of Peel, for fear, I suppose, that I would do something wrong. After the Dr. went away I turned and went into Campbell's and asked him how he was going to vote. He said he didn't think he would go out at all, unless he could make something by it. I told him I supported Orton, and if he would take his team the following day and put out in Douglas, and help Dunlop take voters to the polls, I would support him; I was going to vote. He said he didn't
