IN THE FIELD OF ATHLETICS

An unusual star card was presented last Saturday at the Commonwealth Sport Club of New York, when Black Bill, Joe Hall and Cirolin Orlando appeared in 10-round matches.

The little flash, Black Bill, who is a strong aspirant for the flyweight crown of the deceased Pancho Villa, met a "tough one" in Wee Willie Woods, flyweight champ of Scotland who succeeded Jimmy Wilde for the crown in England. The undefeated little Cuban conquered the Scotchman for the second time however, after a whirlwind battle. Villa's countryman, Orlando, who was Cuba's official entry in the recent light-weight elimination tournament completely outclassed Andy Tucker (white) a veteran New York boxer.

Joe Hall of Buffalo had a hard time with Charley Manty, a New Bedford star. The best he could do was to get a draw after ten rounds of vicious fighting.

Villa, one of the greatest fighters in fistic history amassed a fortune of more than $150,000 in the six years of his ring career during which he has defeated scores of prominent fighters, but died leaving an estate of considerably less than $10,000, according to the estimates of friends. In fact they said Villa spent his ring earnings so lavishly that he was nearly flat broke before he engaged in his last contest.

The little Filipino boxer gained the reputation as one of the greatest spenders the ring has produced in years. During the time he lived in New York he occupied an expensive apartment and at one time he owned two automobiles. He was an immaculate dresser and bought eight or ten expensive suits of clothing at a time.

When he returned from the Philippines recently he paid the expenses of four friends to this country.

Chances for a Harry Wills and George Godfrey mix-up have faded as a report came that Wills has refused $125,000 to box the "Black Shadow of Leipersville." Now, negotiations are under way to match Godfrey for a bout with Luis Firpo in Buenos Aires. Godfrey has already agreed to the match.

The St. Thomas Tennis Tournament which will be held in Chicago next Friday and Saturday, July 24 and 25, is bringing together a brilliant assembly of tennis stars and promises to rival the National Tennis Tournament in action. Some of the stars who are listed are Samuel C. Butler, Pacific Coast champion; and U. S. C. Star; E. R. Simmons, Western singles champion; W. L. Kean and C. H. Parrish, Louisville stars; Ted Thompson, runner-up in national Championship; Tally Holmes national champion; Edgar Brown, former national champion; Richard Hudlin, U. of Chicago and Dr. O. B. Williams.
