Easter falls on March 29, an unusuall early date. The carliest date on which Caster can fall is March 22, and this only n case the moon is tull March 21, when his date happens to fall on Saturday. This combination of circumstances is extremely are; it occurred in 1093, 1761 and 1817 rare; th occurred in 1990, 2076 and 2144, while during the three following centuries it is not once "on the books" at this early date. On the other hand, Easter never falls later than April 25. This was the case in 1666, 1734 and 1889, and will only nappen once in the next century--namely,

"The French Spy."

The popular military and spectacular drama entitled "the French Spy" was the attraction at the Grand Friday night. The attraction at the Grand Friday light. The piece is carefully staged and the company is much above mediocrity. M'lle Adele La Gros, a very capable French artist, handles the title role and appears in two other characters as well. Some very excellent contortionist's work is introduced during that made he capable has not been appeared. the evening that needs be seen to be ap-preciated. Curtain calls marked the con-

South London Liberals.

"Honor to whom honor is due," remarked a veteran South London Liberal Saturday.

"The Liberal secretary worked hard throughout the south riding; but the organization and the bringing out of the vote in South London was largely the work of the young men, headed by such energetic committee men as Geo. Norton, John Pritchett, Wm. Westland and Wm. Regan. South London will be the banner Liberal ward when it figures in city elections as it ward when it figures in city elections, as it will do in the next election for the Legisla-ture and in future Dominion elections.

Frank Daniels Welcome.

The visit to London at the Grand this evening of that clever comedian, Frank Daniels, is an event of much gratification among a numerous class of theater goers. Frank Daniels is a master of delightful drollery. He has a quaintness about him possessed by few comedians engaged in farcical work at the present time. He is at all times irresistibly funny, and certainly is inimitable in his special line of comedy characterizations. He has quietly and good-naturedly wormed himself into the affections of the fun-loving and quickwitted American people, and, as intimated above, the announcement of his return here will be welcomed. He will present again that fantastically ludicrous piece, "Little Puck," which has been freshened up this season with a lot of new music, songs and dancing. The company is almost entirely new. Strathroy Items.

Strathroy's new chief of police, Mr. J.

N. Dodd, entered on his duties on Sunday.

Another old and respected resident has passed away. Richard Coy, who came to Strathroy 36 years ago and resided here ever since, died on Monday morning in his 87th year. He was remarkably vigorous for a man of his age, and had excellent health until a few hours before his death, when he was struck down with paralysis.

The Wesley centenary was observed in both Methodist churches here by appropriate services. Rev. Wm McDonagh preached in the Front Street Church and Dr. Aylesworth in the Frank Street Church. A suitable service was held in the former church on Monday evening.

The regular monthly meeting of Town Council was held on Monday evening, but there was scarcely any business of more than local interest. The finance report was read and adopted, and a bylaw to bonus a proposed factory was advanced a stage.

Steps were also taken to pass again the Maitland street drain bylaw, which had been found illegal on a technicality.
