LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Oh, why does the comical pause In the midst of his grand discourse, Just when his well-made points Are swelling with greatest force?
And why does he look so mad, As though something did him vex?
Oh, because he's forgotten his lines, And he's also forgotten his speech.

—Warm rain is what farmers are anxious for.

—The general meeting of the Board of Trade will be held this evening.

—A number of the Seventh Fusiliers were practicing at the Cove ranges Wednesday —Mrs. Nettleton and daughter, of Collingwood, are the guests of W. D. Eddy, Cartwright street.

—Fruit growers state that many grape vines and other fruits have been totally destroyed by recent frosts.

—The new grand stands at Queen's Park are almost ready and will be in shape for the Turf Club meeting next week.

—The "Chimes of Normandy" will likely be given at Chatham by the Young Conservatives of this city before long.

—The construction of the new club house of the London Canoe and Boating Club, across the river from the Sulphur Park, has been commenced. It is being rapidly pushed forward.

—Mrs. L. U. Titus and son, of Trenton, Ont., and Mrs. A. H. Smith, of Colborne, Ont., left yesterday for Woodstock, after having spent a very pleasant time with Mrs. Jas. Shand, York street.

—The artificial stone pavement on west Richmond street, between Maple and Fullerton streets, is about finished, and pedestrians who have taken the road for two weeks have now a first-class walk.

—The handsome costumes worn by the London Birthday entertainers at their Queen's Birthday entertainment are the property of the minstrels themselves, and will be used in future performances.

—The Globe Tobacco Company manufacture the best fine-cut chewing in the world.
The Golden Thread, the Globe, Victoria, High Court and Jersey Lily. They chew much better than plug.

—Miss Annie Silcox, of Iona, is visiting friends in the city.

—Mrs. Matheson, Milton, is visiting friends in the city.

—D. W. Mason and family spent Sunday in London. (Windsor Record.)

—W. T. Vanston has about recovered from his slight attack of illness.

—Mrs. James Hie, of this city, is visiting Mrs. G. M. Pirie, of Dundas.

—Mrs. F. E. Sage, of this city, who has been ill for a week at Iona, is much improved.

—Waterworks Foreman Allison is able to be around again. His accident was a severe one.

—Mr. Thomas Trebilcock is seriously ill.
He suffered from the grippe, and now has inflammatory rheumatism.

—The charge against John Morrison of ill-treating his horse was withdrawn at the police court yesterday morning.

—Bishop O'Connor, of this city, will hold confirmation services in St. Joseph's Church, Stratford, on Sunday morning.

—The McDonald property on the Wortley road has been sold to J. Cahill at an advance on the price previously offered.

—A young lad named Freddie Dickison, living in South London, had his right eye severely burned by a firecracker on Monday.

—The band of "D" Company, I. S. C., this city, will give a promenade concert in the drill shed, St. Thomas, this evening.

—Wm. Court, of the Wortley road has bought a pair of English pheasants from Dr. Niven, who procured them recently from the old country.

—The funeral of the late William Sloan took place from his father's residence, Elizabeth street, Wednesday afternoon and was very largely attended.

—Fourteen candidates are writing at the civil service examinations now being held at the Custom House. Dr. Thornburn, of Ottawa, is conducting them.

—Boating on the river is increasing in popularity. The trip up the picturesque Cove, beyond the open line culvert, is particularly charming at this season of the year.

—J. E. Jones arrived home Wednesday from Sydney, Australia, where he has been for nearly a year. Mr. Jones went to that far-off country owing to his wife's health, but she died while there.

—Miss Jessie Hamilton, formerly of the Brantford Young Ladies' College, who is now attending the Collegiate Institute, St.
Marys, returned home Wednesday after spending a few days in Westminster.

—The Opera House has practically closed for the season. A report was given by the London Instrumental Minstrels on the evenings on which the races are held at Queen's Park, but no definite arrangements have yet been made.

—The band of "D" Company, I. S. C., inaugurated its series of gratuitous afternoon concerts at Victoria Park Wednesday.
The programme was a delightful one and the air sufficiently cool to make the sunshine enjoyable. A noticeable feature was the large attendance of ladies.

—The members of the geological section of the Entomological Society of Ontario spent Wednesday in discussing the specimens obtained on their holiday trip to Theford, May 25. A first-class collection was obtained, the samples of Orthoceras, corals and bivalve shells being particularly good.

—J. R. Seavey, art director of Hell-mut College, London, has been added to the teaching staff at Alma College. He will still retain his connection with Hell-mut, and other art teachers will remain at Alma as at present, and Mr. Seavey will teach branches not hitherto taught at Alma.
Mr. Seavey will attend the closing exercises and exhibit a number of his pictures. (St.
Thomas Journal.)

—A Windsor dispatch says: "Charles Barnwell, the Englishman arrested by Officer Melkay Wednesday for trying to assault Susie Williams at 95 Charlotte avenue, has just got out of London jail, where he served a term for a like offense.
He was "fanned" out to a Tilbury, east Ontario, farmer by his relatives in the old country, but did not like the work and went to London."

—The second ministerial concert was given last evening in Askin Street Methodist Church, and like the one of the previous evening, interested a large audience. The contributors have established for themselves a reputation as vocalists of no little merit. Rev. W. J. Little gave an excellent account of himself. Thomas Conford was the chairman of the evening, and filled his role to perfection.

Accident in Hunt's Mill Race.
Yesterday noon a young man named John Hunt, while returning home to his dinner, slipped down the bank of Hunt's mill race.
He was unable to swim, and his cries attracted several men in the neighborhood.
Hunt Bros., was the first on the spot, and rescued Murphy, who was utterly exhausted and was about to sink for the third time. He is at present in a critical condition, but it is hoped that medical aid will pull him through.

Defeated by the People, but Rewarded.
In alluding to the defeat at the late elections of a number of those members of the House of Commons who voted for the Jenni Bill, Grand Master Newman, in his address before the True Blue Grand Lodge, has this to say: "In some of the districts where the insult was resented by leaving at home those of the 188, the most villainous act has been committed against the constituents—that of placing in a higher position by the Cabinet Ministers of our country those refused and unprincipled men, thus bidding defiance to those who by right passed judgment at the polls."

What Funny Things We See.
The school-girl who cooks.

The person who eats the product of her cooking.

The summer hotel announcements.

The funny man laughing at his own jokes.

The woman who always approves of another woman's dress.

The small boy who has not already forsaken firecrackers.

The way a man talks who has recently bought a dog.

The pride of the youth who wins a boat race on the Thames.

The crowds which do not patronize the merchant who does not advertise.

The city firemen in a holiday procession without uniforms.

The large property owner who will not pay for street cleaning, though his poorer neighbors subscribe their share.

The number of bearded men who are "not yet 21" when the statute labor tax collector calls.

The difference between the number of docs whose owners pay taxes and the number to be seen daily on the streets.

The man who goes on an excursion and misses the return train.

The Collegiate Institute cadets in their uniforms; especially those who have never worn long pants before.

The difference between the cost of sugar

HARKNESS' Famous aking Powder.

and other articles of general consumption in Windsor and their cost in Detroit.

The number of "bare winners" which are in training for next week's Turf Club races.

The man who plans this year's summer vacation before last year's holiday bills have been paid.

Strathroy Sketches.

A meeting of the Executive of the Young Men's Association was held on Tuesday evening, when steps were taken to complete the organization and at once open the rooms. The capital has been fixed at $1,000 in shares of $5 each, and already nearly 100 shares have been sold. The entrance fees will probably be $2 for the balance of 1891. No gambling, betting or intoxicating liquors will be permitted, and a small fee will be charged for the use of the billiard tables.

On Sunday the members of Beaver and Euclid lodges, A. F. and A. M., will meet at their lodge room at 9:30 a.m., and march in procession to the Presbyterian Church, where the annual sermon will be preached by Rev. W. G. Jordan, B.A.

Mr. Manning, chief inspector of licenses for Ontario, was in town on Wednesday.

About 120 candidates for first, second and third-class certificates will write at the examinations in the Collegiate Institute, Strathroy, July 1.

The two fine new stores erected by W. C.
Moore on Front street, to replace those recently destroyed by fire, are now rapidly approaching completion.

The annual three days' conference of Christians, gathered in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, has been held in the Mundy Hall, Strathroy, and was largely attended, many being present from a distance. The Word was ministered by Messrs. D. Munro, of Toronto; J. Smith, Strathroy; Alex. Matthews and others. On Sunday morning there was baptism, after which about 200 partook of the Lord's Supper. The meetings closed on Monday evening, after having been the means of much blessing to those attending.

For bracing up the nerves, purifying the blood and curing sick headache and dyspepsia, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla.
