FORTUNE SMILED ON SICOX AND HE BEAT HIS OLD PALS

Former London Pitcher, on Mound for Guelph, Holds Tecumsehs to Six Hits and Two Runs—Fitzpatrick Pitched Good Ball—Fox Played a Great Game.

[BY JINX.] The Barrett Binglees Brigade got rid of one of the remaining few at the local observatory of pleasant pastime yesterday afternoon in most exasperating fashion. It was ladies' day, and one of the largest gatherings of millinery seen at the park this season occupied the grandstand. And to cap all, the old-time ladies' day hoochie was back on the job working overtime. Mr. Needham and his near-cellar occupants were the main gazaboos, with Mr. Tommy Sicox, late of these parts, occupying the bright spot in the glow. "Sili" had his first chance at his former team-mates since he was chased by the local management a few weeks ago, and he came out of it with a collected and collected with the figures dancing a 5 to 2 tune in his favor. Talk about rubbing it in, eh? The former pride of the home folks was there as large as life, and he let his one-time team-mates down with a measly six bingles.

But it was not all due to Mr. "Sili" Sicox. No, not all of it. The local pill-peddler turned a few tricks that for plain and fancy home-headers had it on a billion ball in forty different aspects. They just could not bear to see Mr. Sicox lose his game, having failed to get rid of the habit to help him win. It almost seemed as though both teams were trying to make it a big day for Tommy, and he was handed all the bouquets when it came to presentations.

One memorable occasion, 'twas in the eighth inning, Fitzpatrick led off with a double, and Linnburn followed with a single to centre. Now, in the ordinary case of events, this would have been sufficient for a run, but there are times when it does not always work out this way. In this particular case Linnburn's hit was a short one, and Dinsmore fielded it quickly. Fitzpatrick is a slow runner, or at least a slow man to get started. He has to cover about two bases before he hits his stride. He was only at third when Dinsmore got the ball. Manager Barrett was coaching, and should have known better than to let "Fitz" go the distance. He should have tripped him up and sat on his neck until it was too late. But the professor said "dig," and "Fitz" dug. He should have dug an underground passage and subverted to home safely, but he did not. He just came on in the ordinary or garden variety of sprint, and he died at the plate. Yes, friends, he died at the plate. And with him, his own chance of the locals had of annexing Mr. Sicox's goat for this season.

Frank Fox Was There. Outside of the Sicox performance, one of the most remarkable pieces of pleasing sight-seeing for the home folks was the work of Frankie Fox, who, owing to a bad finger, was swayed from third base while Linnburn cavorted around the three-ply of scoring. The box score will show that Frankie had ten chances without a slip-up, and he had the fans and fanettes sitting up and taking notice of things he was doing in the middle infield. Everything was coming Frankie's way, and it was no place for a man with an invalid digit. But Fox was right on the job every time, and he pulled off some real home-coming fielding stunts, his catch of Brady's fly in the fourth, when he had to run out to right field, being a clever bit of work. And with him, his own chance of the locals had of annexing Mr. Sicox's goat for this season.

Fitz Pitched Good Ball. Fitzpatrick was picked up by Manager Barrett to go in and serve up the wobbly ones. And the only reason for the selection of sluggers who board with Manager Needham, "The Buffalo had did not do so badly, but it cannot be said that

Some Foul Tips and a Few Liners

It is a funny day that does not see second place undoubtedly. Bobby Robinson's heart will rejoice at the news.

Some are comparing this year's team with last year's, and saying that the team of the year is the team of the year. Some are saying that the team of the year is the team of the year. Some are saying that the team of the year is the team of the year.

Judging from the frequency with which the "Twins" Brant and Nichols are being booed, it is a wonder that Muggsy McGraw or Frank Chance has not grabbed them off before this. Apparently they are too fast to step alongside Donie Bush, or any of the players of that calibre.

Oskee Neale is near the top of the Tecumsehs hitters, which shows just how bad the outfit is slipping. The report that Chaucer Elliott is in a serious condition is received with regret in London, where the former leader of the Tecumsehs team is popular. Chaucer was one good soul, and it is hoped that he will recover.

Fox handled ten chances at second base yesterday without a slip, that is some busy afternoon. Ernie Dinsmore is quite a globetrotter. He played with Guelph yesterday, and was up to his old tricks, throwing men out at the plate from the outfield. He can do that cute little turn in grand style.

The Tecumsehs are not quite as bad as the Tigers, but they are not the best on earth. Next season there should be a different tale. The Brantford team will finish in TRACEY TRIMMED TOPNOTCHERS TWICE Won the First in Fourteen Innings and Were Ahead in Five Innings of Second Contest.

Peterboro, Aug. 30. — Peterboro took two games from Ottawa today, making the sixth straight win for the champions. Tracey, who beat the leaders on Tuesday and Wednesday, pitched both games today, giving him four wins in four days. The first game was a sensational 11-inning duel between Tracey and Herbert. Brant's single with two out, scores Nichols from second with the winning run. Peterboro won the second 4 to 0, with Thompson, a Toronto amateur recruit, working for Ottawa. Both teams fielded exceptionally throughout the afternoon. The scores:

NEWARK OBLIGES AGAIN

Rochester Was Beaten Again By McGinnity's Crew—Buffalo Beat the Birds Twice.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—Welcoming the change from the "two-a-day" of the past week to the commonplace one game, the Leafs took just one hour and twenty minutes to chase the Providence Clams back into their cyclone celled yesterday. The plain, unvarnished statistics are 7 to 3. But that is not all. Somehow for the past three baseball seasons the fans have been accustomed to saying "How did Rochester do?" It is said that Jim McCaffery says that in his sleep, from a Toronto standpoint Rochester did very handsomely, thank you. McGinnity's Indians walloped 'em. Wyatt Lee was foreman of the job. It seems that buggers like Lee have their uses. Kelley and McCaffery sent McGinnity and Lee an illuminated letter of thanks and congratulation last night, for didn't the trimming of the Hustlers and the victory of the Leafs out us four games to the good? "Yu betcha." The score: TOR. A.B.R.H.O. ROC. A.B.R.H.O.
