A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

SIDE LIGHTS ON
MANY SPORTSFIRST HOCKEY PRACTICE
BEGINS IN TWO WEEKS

Princess Rink Has Been Engaged By Local Hockey Officials to Hold Initial Workouts—Largest Number of Candidates in Years—Prospect Bright for Two Fast Teams.

Although the hockey season is about two months in the future, already the local club is making arrangements for the preliminary training work. This year the Princess Rink has been engaged, and the teams will hold workouts there about twice a week. The first workout will be held in a couple of weeks, according to one of the officials. Shower baths and conveniences for preliminary training will be installed in the dressing-rooms of the rink, and with the large floor space, the candidates who will try for the teams will have plenty of opportunity to get into shape before the first of the ice practices begin.

More Running This Season.
The object in hiring the Princess rink this year for workouts was to get a large floor space in order that more running could be indulged in. In former years, the initial workouts have been held in cramped quarters, and when a large number of candidates turn out it has been found impossible to indulge in running exercises to any great extent. This year, running will be the chief method of training. A large number of good hockey players, especially juniors, have been uncovered in the past two years, and it is likely that one of the best junior teams that this city ever boasted will wear London colors in the O. H. A. this year. The intermediates will also be a much faster team than last year, according to expectations, and London should regain the position on the hockey map it occupied three years ago.

Senior Hockey, Maybe.
The advisability of entering a senior team in the O. H. A. this winter has been given serious consideration by the local management, but it is likely nothing will be done in this respect this year. With an arena here, senior hockey could be worked in very nicely, but it would be useless to compete with some of the Toronto teams, who have the advantage of good ice and a large rink space all season.

WINNIPEG BEATEN
BY AUSTRALIAN TEAM

Visitors Are Now on Their Way to Vancouver.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—The Australian cricketers completed their visit to Winnipeg tonight, after defeating the local fifteen here today by seven wickets. Their bowling was magnificent, their fielding was as good as could be expected under the conditions, and their batsmen showed themselves capable of doing what they liked with the local attack. The Winnipeg team completed their second inning with a score of 152, of which Loughton and Macfarlane starred with the bat. The runs came fast when the Australians went to bat, Mayne being

TY COBB GIVEN
OVATION BY FANS
OF GRAND RAPIDS.

Grand Rapids, Oct. 22.—Ty Cobb was given an ovation here tonight by local baseball fans. He is a stockholder in the W. D. Jarvis Company, with a branch in Detroit. Ty dropped in town to look over the sporting goods situation, and the fans got wise to his coming. The company's stock has thought would improve the team. The general manager of the club owners, Miller Huggins, the Cards second baseman, it is rumored, will be the 1913 leader.

NOT A LEMON ANYWAY

Pug By the Name of Citron Knocks Out McCluskey.

New York, Oct. 22.—Sam Citron, the local heavyweight, knocked out Tom McCluskey, of Bangor, Me., in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout at the New Star A. C. tonight.

Another National League Manager
Who Has Been Asked to Step Out

ROGER BRESNAHAN.

Confirmed reports have it that the talented manager of the St. Louis Cardinals has been asked to step down and out. There has been more or less friction between Mrs. Britton and the National League manager ever since the club changed hands, through the death of the late Stanley Robison. It is said that Roger resented the interference of the new owner in the matter of making deals with players. His rather poor showing this season is charged to the new policy of the club owners. Miller Huggins, the Cards second baseman, it is rumored, will be the 1913 leader.

CHANCE BLAMES MURPHY
FOR RUINING HOFMAN

Was One of the Best Outfielders in the League, Says Peerless Leader.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22.—President Murphy's ruling against Artie Hofman cost the Cub baseball team one of the best players on its roster, according to Manager Chance. Hofman was the club's leading hitter and base runner up to the time he had his clash with Murphy in the winter of 1911. For three years he led the team in every department of the game, but after this set to be lost, interest, grew sour and refused to give the team his best efforts because there

WOOD'S CRUSHING DEFEAT DUE TO DELAY AND NOT FIST FIGHT

Much stress has been laid on an alleged fist fight between Joe Wood and "Buck" O'Brien as the probable reason for the "Smoky Boys" poor showing in the seventh game of the world's series, but many baseball critics who saw this contest are inclined to place the blame in another quarter.

Whether Wood and O'Brien actually engaged in fistfight after the battle that the youngster lost in New York is a matter of opinion. A number of supposedly reliable sources have come forward with statements that there was a mix-up in which Wood was knocked senseless, while the other person equally likely to have been the victim was O'Brien. In the facts in the case say that nothing of the sort took place. Among those who deny that there was an encounter between the two pitchers is Ty Cobb, who is so close to the Boston players that he is in a position to hear all that goes on. Ty was assured by Larry Gardner, one of his closest friends in baseball, that there was absolutely nothing to the story but a lot of talk.

Something actually did happen, however, in the presence of thousands of spectators that probably served to upset Joe. After he had gone to the mound to begin that seventh game, the Royal Rooters' jumped their reservations in the left field temporary stand and swarmed on the field excitedly intending to hold some sort of a parade. Cobb and the Boston players rushed to the spot and headed off this demonstration, and finally headed the crowd back where it belonged.

McGraw Holds Up Game.
Manager McGraw of the Giants would not let the game begin until the late afternoon, and the fans had been chased back to his seat and the section of the field that had been reserved for the parade. Cobb and the Boston players rushed to the spot and headed off this demonstration, and finally headed the crowd back where it belonged.

At any rate, he appeared to have absolutely nothing on the ball when the game finally started, and the Giants were quick to take advantage with his mentally flustered and of his physically chilly condition to score a bunch of runs. Questionably this waiting for the crowd to be got out of the way would more likely impair Wood's efficiency than a personal encounter with O'Brien which must have taken place at least 24 hours earlier.

BIG ATHLETIC MEET AT WOODSTOCK MONDAY

Woodstock, Oct. 23.—One of the greatest days of sports ever held in Canada will be pulled off in Woodstock on Thanksgiving Day at the Athletic Park. Mr. Alby Robinson, the well-known promoter of sports, is in charge. The program consists of the Curtis sprint race, which will be held in Woodstock on Friday and Saturday of this week on exhibition in the curling rink. Besides the above there will be a tennis professional footrace, with all the best men in America entered; the Galt Kilties' Band, motorcycle races, tug-of-war, Hal B., the wonderful fast pacing stallion; baby show and many attractions worth journeying miles to witness.

BRESNAHAN LET OUT
BY ST. LOUIS CLUB

Former Giant Has Been Ousted From Position as Manager of Cardinals.

HUGGINS MAY GET JOB

An Attempt Was Made to Keep Matter a Secret, But Affair Leaked Out—Legal Proceedings May Ensnare.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 22.—Roger P. Bresnahan was called before the owner, president and attorney of the St. Louis National League Baseball club yesterday and discharged as manager of the team insofar as those in authority could discharge him, according to a friend of Bresnahan today. Although he holds a four-year contract with the club, one of which he has served, Bresnahan was told that his services were no longer wanted.

Mrs. Helene Hathaway Britton, the owner of the money interest in the club, J. C. Jones, president, and Lon O. Hooper, attorney, were present when Bresnahan was discharged. Bresnahan today would not admit that he knew of the owner's action. Mrs. Britton, Hooper and Jones refused to talk about it.

Make Fight in Courts.
A man close to those in control of the team declared Bresnahan would make a fight in the courts to compel the club to respect his contract, which calls for a salary of $10,000 a year and 10 per cent of the net profits.

"It is said the club's officials offered to make any reasonable settlement with him, but the meeting it was reported, virtually broke up in a row, and there will be another conference to determine what course shall be pursued.

Mrs. Britton and her advisers are said to be sanguine of success in depositing Bresnahan should the case reach the courts, but should they fail, it is learned that they plan to keep the manager on the bench. Mrs. Britton, when asked for a statement, said: "I don't want any thing printed about that. It is terrible what it has got over."

Were Not in Harmony.
In baseball circles here it has been known that there had been no harmony, and that Mrs. Britton had refused to approve certain trades which Bresnahan was about to close. Bresnahan recently and that Mrs. Britton had refused to approve the trades which Bresnahan had been reported that Miller Huggins had been picked as successor in event Bresnahan surrenders his contract.

SIX DAY RIDERS
KEEP UP FAST PACE

Only One Spill Marks Second Days Riding in Toronto Arena—Eight Teams Still Tied.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—Just as the riders and management were congratulating themselves that there had been no smash-ups in the six-day race at the Arena yesterday or last night, a terrific sprint was started and two riders came to grief. The accident happened at 10:55, when the entire pack were tearing around the embankments in an effort to land the $100 offered for the leading team at the finish of the night's racing.

A Bad Spill.
"Jumbo" Wells, one of the Australians, who teams with Mitten of Davenport, Ia., skidded on the south turn and slid to the bottom of the bank. His feet were strapped to the pedals, and he tried to rise. Lotus, of Providence, came tearing around the turn and down the embankment. Lottum, leg hit Wells on the head and rendered him unconscious. The injured rider recovered quickly and was not seriously hurt. A cart-wheel without serious consequences.

The Exhibition Miles.
World champion Frank Kramer rode an exhibition quarter-mile in 1:24.5, four-fifths of a second slower than his Monday night performance. In the motor-paced exhibition, Elmer Collins, of Lynn, Mass., did a mile in 1:44. Charles Stein again beat Jimmy Hunter in the motorcycle race. The riders tore off two miles in 3:27.

The spectators in the front rows of seats moved back to the more remote sections of the Arena when the booming motors, with their cut-offs unmuffled, took to the track.

The standing of the teams so far:

| Teams                     | Miles | Laps |
|---------------------------|-------|------|
| Grenada and Pye           | 231   | 8    |

Marquard Leading
Pitcher in Series

Seventy-three regulation innings were required to decide the world's baseball championship in Boston's favor. While the eight games total 75 innings, two are erased because one team or the other failed to take its time at bat. Rube Marquard, the brilliant southpaw of the Giants, is the leading pitcher for the series.

The records of the pitchers, including the 2-6-5 game, are as follows:

| W         | L | Ins | H  | R  | SO | BB |
|-----------|---|-----|----|----|----|----|
| Marquard  | 2 | 0   | 17 | 4  | 9  | 2  |
| Bedford   | 1 | 0   | 18 | 11 | 2  | 7  |
| Wood      | 1 | 2   | 27 | 10 | 21 | 3  |
| Torreau   | 1 | 2   | 23 | 19 | 10 | 14 |
| Collins   | 0 | 1   | 14 | 13 | 11 | 8  |
| O'Brien   | 0 | 1   | 8  | 12 | 7  | 4  |

Knight Type Motor Abroad.

The many achievements of the sleeve type of motor abroad during the past season speaks volumes for its success here. In the great Australian Alpine Contest, in which contested practically all the great cars of Europe, the sleeve motor more than demonstrated its superiority. The "Amoco" says: "Nothing more strenuous or more exciting has ever taken place in the annals of Automobile Contests."

The car to come in first was the Mercedes-fitted with the celebrated Knight Motor. This victory for Knight engines goes far towards proving the superiority of the sleeve type of motor, now the leading feature of the world's best cars.

SOME SPLENDID PRIZES FOR EAST LONDON RACE

Junior Cup is One of Best Trophies Ever Presented for Such an Event.

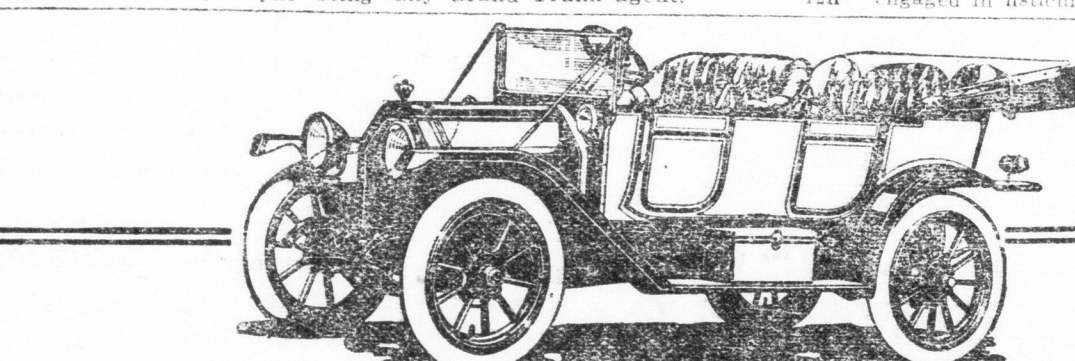

The prizes for the East London road races on Thanksgiving Day are on exhibition in East London, and a finer lot of prizes was never given in this city for such an event.

The silver cup for the juniors' race, donated by Mr. J. E. Young, is one of the most splendid trophies ever given for any kind of event held in London, and it becomes the sole property of the winner of next Monday's race.

Several entries have been received for the races, and if the weather is at all favorable, the event promises to be the most successful of its kind ever held in this city.
