OTTAWA HERE TOMORROW
FOR A THREE-GAME SERIESFrank Shaughnessy's Team Should Prove Easy Picking for Manager Deneau's Crowd, However—Senators
Look Weak This Season.

[BY JINX.]
With the weather man promising warm weather for the next few weeks, the Canadian League clubs should get down to real baseball, and those teams who have been exceeding the speed limit lately owing to the breaks in the luck be put in their proper place in the league standings. Manager Deneau and his fast-flying Indians will meet Jo Jo Keenan's sausage-eaters again today in the Dutch town, and then will be back home tomorrow entertaining Frank Shaughnessy's Central League gleamings.

Ottawa Looks Weaker This Season.
The Ottawa team which will appear here tomorrow is a vastly different team to that which won the pennant for the capital last season. Viewing them at St. Thomas on Monday, one is impressed with the fact that the 1913 Senators and the 1912 pennant-winners are not in the same class. The Ottawa club is weaker this season, and Manager Deneau and his hirelings should have little trouble in taking at least two out of the three games from the Shaughnessy folks.

Saughnessy a Hard Master.
Shaughnessy, himself, is vastly different than the pilot of the champion Senators. He is the biggest crab the writer ever saw on a ball field, and when one remembers Frank Deneau as manager of the London team, Mr. Shaughnessy's title of "the biggest crab" puts him in a class by himself. He nags his players for the least mistake, and watching said players during one of Shaughnessy's outbursts, their deep affection for him is visibly impressed upon one. They appear to like him about as much as a chicken likes a wolf.

Old-Timers Look the Best.
Outside of "Cosey" Dolan, Mike Callahan and George Robertson, all remnants of the champions, Shaughnessy does not seem to have picked one good ball player. Large, the little catcher, is only ordinary, and the other new players do not seem to be above average Class D players. Ostermeier and Lill look like good pitchers, especially the latter, but they are both high-strung players, and unless they are getting all-edged support they are settling into trouble all the time. Of course these are only impressions gained from the appearance of the Ottawa team during the games at St. Thomas on Monday, and it was a particularly dry day for the men from the east but even then we venture to predict that the Ottawa club is at the present time will have a great deal of difficulty in remaining in the first division, let alone winning another rag for the capital fans.

But the Senators will be here tomorrow for three games, and when one remembers Frank Deneau as manager of the London team, Mr. Shaughnessy's title of "the biggest crab" puts him in a class by himself.

NOW FOR SOME REAL BASEBALL

Having from time to time heard rumors to the effect that our Richmond street contemporary has organized a baseball club and has been casting defiant eyes in our direction, we hereby recklessly hurl a challenge to said team for a game some afternoon next week at Tecumseh Park when the London Canadian League team is not using the diamond to maul its opponents.

The only conditions are that each team be composed of employees of the Free Press and Advertiser, and that the opposing pitchers be members of the editorial staff of each paper.

McCarty Only Left $30,000
Says Mrs. McCarty's Lawyer
Money Will Go to Widow and Daughter of Late
Fighter—McCarty Did Not Leave a Will
So Far as Is Known.

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, May 28.—Luther McCarty, the heavyweight boxer, killed in his fight with Arthur Pelkey at Calgary on Saturday, left an estate worth $50,000, according to the estimate yesterday of Attorney V. R. Lovell, of Fargo, N. D., who came here in the interest of the fighter's wife.

The lawyer believes that McCarty made $100,000 from his fights on the Pacific coast, and in the east, and his stage appearances in the last eight months. He understands that McCarty was under contract with Billy McManis, his manager, who received in the neighborhood of one-third of the fighter's earnings.

McCarty spent considerable traveling and living, and I don't think there is much more than $30,000 left," said the lawyer. "This belongs to the widow and daughter of the fighter, and he has been caring for in Fargo for the last two years. Mrs. McCarty still works in a restaurant there. So far as we know McCarty did not leave a will."

BRAVES BEAT
GIANTS TWICEOnly Got One Run Off Mathewson,
But That Was Enough
—Dick Rudolph Saved the Second Game for Boston.

Boston, May 27.—Baseball historians will have to delve deep into the past to uncover a previous date when the Boston National League Braves beat the New York Giants in both games of a double-header. The first contest was a wonderfully interesting one, with "Lefty" George Tyler at his best, and Christy Mathewson going steady as a clock until the ninth inning, when the Braves got the only run and won the game 1 to 0.

The opening game was decided in an unusual manner. In the ninth Marvyn Miller singled and Myers sacrificed. Connelly followed with a single, but an accurate throw by Shaver retired Marvyn at the plate. Sweeney then singled to right, dropping his bat as he ran. Connelly raced for home, while Burns made a pretty throw to catch him, but the ball struck Sweeney's bat and rolled away from the waiting Myers, and Connelly scored.

In the second game the Braves thought nothing of a two-run lead acquired off "Hub" Perdue, Chief Stalings giving the chubby one the hook at the end of the second inning, and sending in Rudolph, who held New York to four singles, scattered along through seven innings. Meantime the championship was in the air, and during the sixth inning, when, with the bases full, Titus hit the centre field bleacher fence for a double and sent three Braves scampering across the plate. Daily Bulletin of Major League Players.

Jennings has picked up several promising young pitchers in Hall, House, Claus and Klawitter to bolster the Detroit staff.

Mark Hall is about the best of the lot. He comes from Omaha in the Western League, where he had a peach of a record, 25 won and 9 lost. He has won several games for the Tigers so far this year, and has his job in the majors clinched, as long as he keeps up his present gait.

NEWARK BATTED ORIOLE
PITCHERS OUT OF BOXMcTigue and Betts Were Easy for Indians, But Morrisette Held Them
Safe in Final Sessions.

Baltimore, May 27.—The Indians drove Jack McTigue from the box in the fourth inning today, and defeated Jack Dunn's Orioles in the second game of the series. Charlie Bates, late of the Cincinnati Reds, succeeded today, and he was also hit hard, and had to be relieved by Morrisette, a young college pitcher, in the eighth. The latter hurled the last three innings in masterly style. Betts 2, Lee 1, on the hill for Harry Smith Smith's men, and he had little trouble holding the locals in check. The score:

Game—Bender Held Senators in Second Affair.

Philadelphia, May 27.—The Athletics experienced little difficulty in winning a double-header from Washington today, taking the first contest by 3 to 0, and the final conflict 1 to 1.

In the first game Plank held Washington to two singles, not a Senator passing first base. He dead-headed three, but three fast double-plays by the infield cut down the only chances Washington had. Bender was baited from the box in the third inning, and Gallia, who succeeded him, besides being wild, was hit hard in the eighth inning.

Philadelphia knocked Tom Hughes from the mound in the fifth inning of the second contest, while Bender was effective all the way. When men were on bases the Indian was at his best, he fanning ten batters, Moeller falling a victim three times. Oldring's hitting and baserunning featured. Scores:

Way of White Hobes
to Championship[Canadian Press.]
San Francisco, May 28.—Hugh McTigue, retired fight promoter, of Australia, has arrived here from the antipodes with news that Sam Langford, the colored light heavyweight, may be expected to follow on next steamer.

"Langford, McVey and Jeannette," he said, "stand as a black barrier against all the white heavies in sight. The only hope of a white champion is to pick out the likeliest candidate in sight and experience counts for a great deal in the ring, and the three negroes I have named have been in the game for from ten to fifteen years. They know too much for any of the inexperienced white men."

"As for Jack Johnston," he continued, "he is definitely out of it, whatever the outcome of his legal difficulties."

"Very likely by the time a dangerous white man is developed, Langford, McVey and Jeannette will have outlived their fighting days. As things look now that seems the likeliest path by which a true champion of the world will arrive."
