CRISTALL'S HAMS WIN LONDON GETS DECISION OVER BRANTS IN OPENER

Timely Hitting and Good Pitching by 'Cuz' Hammond Result in Brantford's D efeat by 5 to 4 - Good Crowd Witnesses Game.

They're off! Manager "Doc." Reisling and his London Tecumsehs took a flying start in the Canadian League race by getting the jump on "Rube" Deneary's Brants over in Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. The score was 5 to 4, and it was the initial spasm of the 1915 season. The opening day crowd was slightly smaller than last season, but then it was a perfectly good opening day crowd, and a but then it was a perfectly good opening day crowd, and a but then it was a perfectly good opening day crowd, and a but then it was a perfectly good opening for their little old "two-bits" back, so we take it everyone was pretty office was not besieged by people clamoring for their little old "two-bits" back, so we take it everyone was pretty well satisfied. The London baseball club directors beamed on everybody, and the home team looked about as good as any home team could look. The day was sunny with a suggestion of a chill in the air. If you should ask us, we would estimate that the total attendance numbered somewhere around 500,693. We were always the total attendance untmbered somewhere around 500,693. We were always would likely place the figure somewhere between 2,500 and 3,000. The directors estimate it from the gate receipts while our estimate its taken from having to wade through the crowd while it is trying to eject itself out of the park after the game.

mound the opposing team usually finds it rather difficult getting those old base hits. "Cuz" was right in form yesterday, and up to the seventh inning, had only allowed the Brants two safe blows, one of these coming right off the reel in the first session, when Bill Green, the first man up, singled to left and went to second on Whiteraft's sacrifice. Lamy flied to Brooks, but Reidy made his third hit off the reel in the first session, when Bill Green, the first man up, singled to left, and Hess counted. The visitors nearly tied it up in the eighth. Up to this time London had been playing a nice fielding game, but the second on Whiteraft's sacrifice. Lamy flied to Brooks, but Reidy made his third hit of the game, a clean single to left, and Hess counted. The visitors nearly tied it up in the eighth. Up to this time London had been playing a nice fielding game, but ner, a right-hander, with a roundhouse curve and a fast one that breaks nicely in front of the plate. In the early innings, the home boys found this curve rather troublesome, but they got onto it finally and were able to land on it quite frequently in the latter stages of the contest.

Cy Reidy was the big noise in the hitting line. The old boy from Windsor, diving partner of George Deneau, the Brantford manager, had a perfect day at bat, getting three safeties in three times up. Cy was up four times, but was passed once. He had a double and two singles and scored a run, besides driving in two others. Cy was a real help yesterday, all right.

Danford Drives in First Run.

Deneau hit to Whitcraft, but he pegged wide to Myers, and Harry dropped the ball, both runners being safe. Dunlap singled to right, and Green registered at the plate. Whitcraft let Mullin's fast grounder go right through him and Deneau scored. Dunlap scored on Burrill's hit to Whitcraft, which forced Mullin at second. Brooks filed out and ended it. London went out one-two-three in the eighth and Brantford followed suit in the ninth.

Both Teams Look Good.

Danford Drives in First Run.

To Jack Danford goes the credit of driving in the first run of the game and also making the longest hit of the afternoon. Jack came up in the second inning with two out and Cy Reidy on second base. Cy had singled to open the inning. Danford hit the ball over Burrill's head in right field for three sacks, Reidy scoring. Danford's hit went nearly to the big gate in right field, and only fast fielding by Burrill prevented it from being a home run.

Both teams had a big innings. London, however, managed to get a couple of plays, but through no fault of his own. Harry will stick at second and should improve every time out.

On their showing yesterday, both teams looked as good as any that have played in the Canadian League in the directors of the London club, together with a couple of newspaperman, will motor over to Brantford for today's game.

"Cuz" Hammond got a nice start yesterday. When this boy is right no team will be heard from this season. Harry Myers was criticised by the crowd, but it was not his fault. He looked bad on fault of his own. Harry will stick at second and should improve every time out.

CUELPH, May 19.—Fully two thousand people were on hand to welcome the prodigal Canadian League team back to its own home and hearth, after it had wandered a year in Erie. The local fans had the satisfaction of seeing the home team romp off with the big end of the opener by four to a big round blank. There were plenty of fluffy-ruffles to mark the opening of the season. Mayor Mahoney heaved the first shoot across the rubber, while Controller Thompson, of Toronto, team was on the horizon for the opening together with other celebrities.

Knotty Lee picked on Kirley and Harkens for his battery, while Shaughnessy sent in Peterson and Lage to look after his interests. The locals had it on the Senators at every stage of the game and the Ottawa team will have to show miles more than it did to. Harkins and Grieves are the pick of the Guelph crew, being about the best catcher and first baseman, respectively that have ever played on the local grounds. Guelph got three runs in the fourth, when the Senators were aeroplaning and they picked up another in the next innings. It was clean fast ball for a starter and the crowd was satisfied.
