"There has been a wonderful in-crease in the interest taken in this question since I addressed a similar meeting some weeks ago," said Dr. MacGillivray, "yet there is still an appalling lack of knowledge what it means. On the other hand, opposition to the proposed merger is growing rapidly. In this connection, I would say that a statement in the press that the Glengarry Presbytery was unanimously in favor of union was incorrect. The opinion was not unanimous in Toronto, where similar meetings to this are now being held.
