Gleanings from Within and Without the Fraternities.

MASONIC.

Meetings next week: — Monday, The Masonic Lodge, No. 155; Tuesday, Corinthian Lodge, No. 230; Thursday, St. George's Lodge, No. 42; Friday, St. John's Lodge, No. 258—all at Masonic Temple.

The D. D. G. M., R. W. Bro. E. T. Essey, purposed paying an official visit to The Masonic Lodge, No. 155, on Monday night next, when W. Bro. S. J. Laidlaw, the W. M., will present one degree work for his inspection. He has also arranged to pay Henderson Lodge, Hibernia, a visit a week later (26th), and Hibernia on the following night. On the 13th he will officiate as Chairman at an entertainment at Hibernia to be given on behalf of a sick brother. He is in company with a number of city brethren, and St. Paul's Lodge, No. 107, at Lambeth, an official visit on Wednesday evening last, and was heartily received by the Craftsmen of that Lodge, who tendered him and the visitors an exceedingly fraternal welcome. Among the visitors on the occasion were R. W. Bros. Essey and Ellwood, and W. Bros. Scott, E. W. M. Brock, W. S. Davidson, John Layton, John Punt, R. Galpin, John Hobbs, W. H. Irvine, C. C. Reed, J. A. Tancock, and Bros. J. O. Weldon, Neil McGill, and others of this city, as well as Bro. H. C. Garnet, of Delaware, and others from sister lodges. W. Bro. Thompson, the W. M., conferred the 3rd Degree in an exceedingly creditable manner, and was deservedly complimented by Bro. Essey and other visitors. R. W. Bro. J. Laidlaw, P. D. D. G. M., acted as Director of Ceremonies on the occasion, and proved himself the right man in the right place. At the after-entertainment, which the Lambeth brethren had provided in the lower part of the hall, almost every brother present "spoke his piece," and songs were given by Bro. Harry Pools, which brought down the house. Bro. McGregor's recitation was also especially appreciated. The Londoners were very hospitably entertained, and will long remember their journey to St. Paul's, No. 107, in this year of grace.

The pilgrimage of the London Knights Templar on Friday week to Chatham to attend the District Preceptory of Instruction there is said by all who participated in it to have been one of the pleasantest ever undertaken by them, and will long be remembered by the Londoners as an occasion well worthy of the time and effort required to accomplish it. Over twenty escorts accompanied E. Sir Knight John Graham, and he was assisted in the degree work by R. E. Sir Kts. Dandara and Campbell, and E. Sir Kts. Andrews and Esott. Sir Kt. A. K. Wadsworth, of Sarnia, in chronicle the event in the Observer, says: "Five candidates—Comps. Dr. McPhail, J. G. Crosby, J. H. Ward, Chas. S. Thornton and S. H. C. Foster, all of Highgate—were received into the order. The Assembly was held under the auspices of R. E. Sir Knight E. H. Swift, Provincial Prior of London District, and E. Sir Kt. E. L. Worth and the officers and members of Kent Preceptory, of Chatham. In the afternoon, the Illustrations Order of the Red Cross was conferred by the officers and Sir Knights of Windsor Preceptory. At the evening session the officers and Sir Knights of Richard Court de Lion Preceptory, of London, exemplified the major portion of the work of Richard Court de Lion Preceptory, and it is only fair to state that the excellent service rendered by the officers and Sir Knights of that Preceptory were well merited. London Fratres have every reason to be proud of their officers. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and the visiting Sir Knights pleasantly entertained."

The reception to be tendered Grand Master Harding by the London brethren on Wednesday evening next promises to be a brilliant success from every point of view. The tickets of admission are being eagerly snapped up, and the different committees are leaving nothing undone to make the occasion one of more than usual pleasure to all who have the good fortune to be present. The programme includes the presentation, at the City Hall, of an illuminated address to the Grand Master, which will be read by R. W. Bro. McWhinney, P. G. S. W., the Chairman of the General Committee, which will be replied to by Bro. Harding in his usual characteristic style. The ladies will occupy the galleries while this function is in progress. Subsequently an adjournment will take place to the Banqueting Hall of the Temple, where a large attendance of members of the Masonic building by means of a hall-way at the south-west side of the Hall—where a musical and literary programme will be followed, in which Mrs. Calder-Stock, Miss Hamblin, Mrs. C. H. Wheeler, Mrs. Thompson, A. Brown, and others will take part. Bro. Wheeler officiating as accompanist. The programme will be more popular to the City Hall, where dancing will be inaugurated and continued until the participants feel that they have had enough. Supper will be served in the Banqueting Hall later on. The function will be open to Masons only, the tickets for lady and gentleman being $1.50, and for extra ladies, 75c. As mentioned at the outset, the Committee fully expect to see the Grand Master greeted by a large and representative body of craftsmen from London District, and promise that everything that can be done to make the occasion one of pleasure and comfort will receive their undivided attention.

The reunion of the Scottish Rite bodies held during the week was an unequalled success from every standpoint, and more particularly as regards numbers and the class of work done. The degrees from the 4th to the 14th were exemplified with an impressiveness and decorum which showed the great care taken by the local brethren to whom the different parts were assigned, among whom were W. Bro. Munson, Young, Karm, Cooper and Stewart, and S. V. Bro. McWhinney, Jeff Wood and Bro. McKel. The class numbered twenty-three from the country and seven from the city. The attendance from the Hamilton Lodge of Perfection was disappointed, only W. Bro. Liddell and Robertson being in attendance. Where all plume themselves on having their lines as nearly correct as possible, it is satisfactory to know that even the local brethren, who are at times accused of carelessness, when occasion is their opinion warrants it, were a unit in regard to the correctness of the work done. Indeed, no reunion in the past has such excellent rendition been demonstrated, and the members of the class, at the banquet which followed on Wednesday night, gave expression to their opinion in unsolicited notices of the beautiful work done during the afternoon. W. Bro. Munson, 32, as Chairman of the General Committee, occupied the chair, and excelled himself as toastmaster on the occasion. On Thursday afternoon, through the courtesy of Bro. H. R. Abbott, about 25 brethren and visitors were entertained to a trip around the Belt Lines and out to the Kemels, where a pleasant time was spent. On Thursday night, W. Bro. A. E. Cooper, 32, communicated the 15th, 16th and 17th degrees, and worked the 18th on a class of thirteen brethren. Sav. Prince McWhinney, 18, assisting. The work was quite equal in point of solemnity and impressiveness to that done at former reunions by imported talent, demonstrating conclusively that the Hamilton brethren who make a specialty of these degrees will have to look to their laurels in the future. The meeting closed with light refreshments, which were much enjoyed by the class and members of the Chapter from the city and neighborhood. Short speeches and vocalists followed, and the reunion concluded with "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem shortly after midnight on Friday morning.

At the annual election of officers of London Lodge of Perfection, 14 deg., on Monday night, the following brethren were elected for the year 1903-4:—T. P. G. M., Sav. Prince W. D. Taylor, 18; S. G. W., W. Bro. C. F. Non, 20; J. G. W., H. Bro. W. A. Pizer, 30; Secretary, Sav.

Prince, Thos. G. Davis, 18; Treasurer, Sav. Prince A. G. McWhinney, 18; Orator, H. Bro. W. A. Karm, 32 (Woodstock); Almoner, H. Bro. A. E. Cooper, 32; M. of C., Sav. Prince J. N. Wood, 18; Tyler, Sav. Prince John Robertson, 18.

The Conductors of this Column has much pleasure in noting that at the recent annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Canada, held at Toronto, V. ex-Comp. Wm. O'Brien, of St. John's Chapter, No. 3, of this city, was honored by being appointed Grand Pursuivant. The appointment was made by the M. E. Grand Z. Shaw, and he showed good judgment in the selection. Comp. O'Brien is an earnest, zealous and hard-working Craftsman, and deserves the honor conferred on him.

R. W. Bro. J. B. Martyn, M. D., D. D. G. M. of St. Clair District, No. 2, A. F. & A. M., will pay an official visit to Washington Lodge, No. 290, Petrolia, on Wednesday night next, the 14th of March.
