FORCES HOPE TO RECI

Report From Wash Arrangements C Negotiators Will Opposed In Cong

VARIOUS INTERE WILL

Lead In Opposition pectedly Taken B land Men—Old To Be Repeated

TORONTO, Jan. 25.—A dispatch from New York quotes a special to the effect that the reciprocity treaty from Washington "Information which has been sent to the senate with reference to the reciprocity treaty concluded by President Taft is already leading to a combination of forces against the agreement. Since the antagonism seems to be on the part of the New England States, it is authorized to be framed largely in England lines, with the hope of New England's desire to trade relations and as offsetting the popularity based on their alleged reciprocity."
 "In spite of this fact, men in both houses, who are investigating the status of the treaty, have obtained what is considered to be the most important information in stating that the treaty is not to be passed. This is considered to be coming from some of the most reliable sources in the country. It is believed that the treaty is not to be passed because of their protest to reciprocity. Investigation shows that the old treaty has always killed the past is drawing to a close. The same purpose now. Interest in the treaty is located in the west, in states like North Dakota and others of the position, are hostile to food products. Northern Wisconsin interest in the treaty is located in the lumber, while the rest of the country is trying to resist on the concessions made on and paper."

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—Sitting Hon. Wm. Paton in the house. The minister of customs announced that the reciprocity treaty scene of reciprocity negotiated with Liberal cabinet Laurier announced arrangement Hon. Mr. Paton make an announcement of the reciprocity treaty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The cabinet was in session today. The reciprocity treaty is the subject of the day. The president called a meeting of the cabinet at 10 o'clock of the purpose, it is understood that the measure will be passed.

The same source in the negotiations of the treaty has been maintained. The president, it is said, has an exhaustive argument explaining in detail the merits of the agreement. He reported that a statement of the tariff law in Canada in the past results that would be proposed reciprocity agreement transmitted through the state department. The farmers, particularly in the west, are clamoring for manufactured products. The government has asked the farmers to have also asked in agricultural implements and products.
