SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

The new building in Halifax occupied as a School for the Deaf is fast becoming a credit to the city. It is one of the most handsome of the benevolent institutions, of which the city has a considerable number; and the work done in the school, under the direction of Principal Fearon and his staff, is of great value.

Jean Veinot, whose case has created a great deal of interest and sympathy, has just completed the school course. "She has now a good command of English, speaks fluently and intelligently, type-writes very correctly for a deaf-blind girl, and is at present learning fancy basket-making."

Mr. Fearon says she is now practically without a home, and hopes that a home and help may be provided for her until she is able to provide for herself by her basket-making.

INTERVED IN SWITZERLAND

A number of British soldiers taken prisoners by the Germans have been interned in the High Alps, in charge of the Swiss military authorities. One of them gives an interesting account of their life in these snowy altitudes.

On the battle-fields and in the trenches there were mud and cloudy weeping skies. Up in the mountains they have "the best of doctors" (the sun), which has given to them three weeks of nearly unbroken sunshine.

One of their recreations is skating, and another is the two-mile toboggan run which they descend rapidly and end by a turn over in the snow.

One of their temptations is alcohol, to bring which seemed to some of them to be the principal design of the railroad on which the cars are drawn up the steeply by strong cords. It was therefore decided by the better-minded to start a temperance society to combat the special conditions. They gave to it the name of the "Murren Rambling Club," after the name of the locality, and soon gathered a good proportion of loyal members.

Each man, besides signing the pledge, promises to pay one-eighth of his monthly allowance into a fund for the purpose of excursions. When they had accumulated a sufficient sum, they approached the Swiss military authorities for permission to spend a day at Lusterbrunnen, about four miles down the mountain.

After a good many committee meetings and much red tape, permission was granted them to make the trip half at a time on different days. On the first occasion a part of the lance and wounded, with a few ladies, went down by the railroad referred to. Some rolled or slid or tumbled down according to the character of their boots. Only one man, who had the precaution to borrow a pair of "cream pumps," or creepers, made the descent without more or less convolutions.

On the second occasion, two days after the lame and wounded were accommodated by a two-horse sleigh, in which were attached a number of toboggans, while the remainder took the responsibility of endeavoring to foot it. At the hotel where they dined, one London boy hobbled up to the piano on two sticks and sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and a Scotch lad sang "My Ain Wee Home." This shows what day their thoughts and hopes were turned. These excursions were greatly enjoyed after the monotony of the camp. Yet, the time is not spent uselessly. Classes have been organized in various languages, book-keeping, shorthand, motor, club aid. Others use note-books in which they keep a diary, which will be interesting to those at home, and to which they refer in after days in order to live over some of their experiences. The narrative closes as follows: "The question we often ask ourselves is whether our people at home are seeing to it that when these men get the desires of their hearts, they will find the home land a cleaner and purer place than when they left it."

THE RIVERSIDE CEMETERY

We wish to call special attention to the statement of the directors of the Riverside Cemetery, presented at the recent birthday meeting. Those who met together on that occasion were much pleased with the favorable showing, and the statement is now published for the information of the friends of the undertaking and others who, it is hoped, will be added to the number. It will be observed that the brief reference to the matter in the last number contained an error. The sum mentioned should have been credited to the birthday effort, instead of being referred to as the ingathering of the whole year.

The suggestion of a general rally on Arbor Day for the purpose of tree planting on the cemetery grounds, and the new road leading thereto, is a good one, which we hope will be acted upon by a goodly number.

RIVERSIDE CEMETERY BIRTHDAY PARTY

In response to the Riverside Cemetery Birthday invitations, a large number of the residents of Bridgetown and vicinity gathered in Warren's Hall on the evening of April 17th to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the organization of the company and attend its regular annual business meeting. After a brief program—music, reading, brief addresses by the clergy—men of the town and others interested in the work—the treasurer's report for the year was given, followed by the reading of encouraging letters and messages from absent friends. Limited space forbids the publishing of these inspiring letters, and as so many were present to hear them our readers must be satisfied with a mere summary of their financial contents. It is impossible to convey in this report the impression produced at the meeting on the letter after letter was read and cheering messages opened, several enclosing a $5 gift, others $10, $20, $25, $50, and two letters brought us $100 each. The total receipts for the evening, including some $60 taken at the door, amounted to $470. Since then additional contributions have increased the sum to $515.00. Almost $250.00 of this goes into the Perpetual Care Fund and will enable us to take some more bonds in the next war loan issued, while the balance will help out with current expenses. The generous response to the birthday invitations is simply wonderful just now when there are so many patriotic demands on our people. It surely goes to prove that "we learn by giving" and "the more we give the more we have."

From the treasurer's report we learn that the Perpetual Care Fund has grown within the year from the $1,200 reported at last annual meeting to $2,400. Taxes are being more regularly paid each year and the finances of the company are steadily improving.

Work for the season has already begun in the Cemetery, and it has been suggested that on Arbor Day the citizens turn out and give a part of that day in planting trees along the avenue leading from Granville street down to which is to be eventually the main entrance to the Cemetery. It may be some time before this driveway is opened up and made into a regular street, but in the meantime those trees would be gradually growing and it is as easy to plant them now as later. It is hoped therefore that those who own teams will arrange to bring loads of elms and maples for this driveway, and also small spruces to fill in gaps and complete the hedge around the Cemetery, while the men of the town will turn out and help plant them. The ladies of the town will cheerfully provide a free supper for all who lend a hand. In this way, at little expense, a great deal can be done toward the permanent improvement of our Cemetery.

With this month the taxes are due for 1917. Lot owners should see that these are promptly attended to and all old dues cleared off. Carelessness in this matter causes needless trouble to those who are endeavoring to carry in the Cemetery work systematically.

THE DIRECTORS.

N. B.—As we go to press a check for $25.00 has been received from Attorney-General Daniels, to be added to the amount mentioned.

MEETING OF THE BRIDGETOWN PLANTING CLUB

A meeting of the Bridgetown Planting Club was held on Monday evening for the purpose of making more definite arrangements to carry out the work of increased production.

The following committee was appointed to look after ploughing of lots:—W. R. Longmire, Dr. M. E. Armstrong, J. I. Foster and E. A. Hicks.

Any parties wishing lots, or having lots to offer, or wishing ploughing done, should notify the above committee as soon as possible.

The matter of a half-holiday once a week was discussed and the following committee was appointed to wait on the business men of the town to see if they would give their consent to this proposition in the interests of increased production:—C. B. Longmire and R. E. Thurber.

The Club also thought that the time usually spent in out-of-door recreation should be given to planting. This matter was referred to the ladies' committee.

On account of the poor response to the circulars sent out, the Club felt that the citizens generally did not realize the seriousness of the situation. Perhaps the following facts gleaned from the Toronto Globe will serve to arouse a little more interest:

David Lubin, representative of the United States to the International Institute of Agriculture, maintained by forty governments, reports officially to Washington that the food grains of the world on March 31st, 1917, showed a shortage of 150,000,000 bushels below the amount necessary to feed the world until August, 1917. He declares beyond question that unless a greater acreage is put to crop in 1917 there will be a "World Hunger" before 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Oulitt visited friends at Niagara one day last week. Mrs. Clark of Victoria is a guest at the home of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. E. F. McNeil for a few days. Miss Martha McMurry of Margareville is spending a few days with friends in this place. Mrs. L. R. Rath of South Farmington was the guest of her friends, the Misses McNeil, one day last week. Miss Marjorie Baker left on Saturday last for the United States, where she has a good position awaiting her. Mr. Avery Patterson is, we are sorry to state, still on the sick list suffering from weakness super-induced by pneumonia. Miss Alice Nichols of Nicholasville, Kings County, is the guest of her friend, Miss Beatrice Phinney, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrews of Prince Albert visited Mrs. Andrews' mother, Mrs. Sophronia Pierce, during last week. Mrs. Effie Copeland went to North Kingston a short time ago, where she will probably spend the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Priest. Miss Wass of Boston is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Leonard Goucher, who, with her family, has returned from Halifax to Melvern for the summer. Mrs. Percy Demmons and three children visited Lawrence town quite recently, where they were the guests of Mrs. Demmons' brother, Dr. W. S. Phinney. The two men, Carter and Crouse, who a short time ago were supposed to have forcibly entered the store of E. F. McNeil and carried away goods, have been captured, one in St. John and the other in Middleton, and will probably be dealt with according to the law. Mr. Ernest Thompson, who has been spending the past year in Melvern Square, left on Monday, April 22nd, for Halifax, where he will be under military training for overseas service. Our best wishes will follow and remain with our young friend, Ernest Gates, who attempted to enlist at the same time, was detained at home on account of being under age. The young ladies of the Junior Red Cross Society gave a very interesting entertainment in the hall on Friday evening last, consisting of songs, recitations, tableaux, instrumental music, etc., and last, but not least, a very amusing farce, which was well received by the unusually large audience, who favored the young performers with the best attention during the evening. As this was the first attempt of the "Juniors" to raise money by the way of entertainment for the public, they certainly ought to feel encouraged in their patriotic work, as the sum of $26.00 was realized that evening. Great credit is due the senior Red Cross workers of Melvern, who in their quiet way are "doing their bit" day by day; but to the "Juniors," with their youth and enthusiasm, belongs the way of raising money by other means than steady industry—see edit page.

CLEMENTSPORT

April 30. Mrs. Jessie A. Balcom is at present visiting friends at Bear River. Mr. Herbert Hicks went to Windsor on Tuesday of last week on a business trip. Steamer Valinda, Capt. Lewis, called at this port recently, from St. John, to land freight.

Mr. Wylie Burns of Bridgetown visited his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Amos Burns, here recently. Mr. Charles Ritchie, postmaster, went to Annapolis Royal on Saturday last on business. Mrs. A. W. L. Smith, who has been on the sick list for a time, we are glad to learn, is much improved.

Capt. Herbert Rawling is building a garage. This building will add greatly to the appearance of his fine home. Capt. Holmes and Mr. Hayden, Collector of Customs for Port Wade, were in the village one day last week on business.

Cold easterly winds have been blowing for the past few days, which have arrested to some extent the progress of farming. The Rev. A. W. L. Smith, rector of the Parish of St. Clement's, attended the Deacons Meeting recently held at Granville Ferry.

A Red Cross Pie and Ice Cream Social was recently held in the Baptist Hall, the result being $30.00 added to the fund of this important society. We observe quite a verandah, glassed in, has been added, which adds very much to its appearance and comfort.

Capt. Amos Burns, of the firm of Cochran, Burns & Farnsworth Co., Boston, Mass., has been spending a few days at his home here, taking a short rest.

Miss Margaret Roop, who has held an important position in Yarmouth for some time, is spending a few weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roop.

The Rev. A. M. McIninch, pastor of the Baptist Church here, attended the District Meeting recently held at the town of Digby in connection with the immediate Baptist churches.

Mrs. A. D. Roop, proprietress of the "Rest," our popular summer hotel, arrived home here on Saturday last looking hale and hearty, after spending the winter in Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. Forbes Tupper, the popular proprietor of the Tupper House, has recently made some important changes in connection with this house, adding to its convenience and comfort. Our village was visited by a number of commercial men last week. Among them was Mr. Venning of St. John, N. B., who remained in the village some two or three days showing up his goods.

CONFERENCE ON LORDS DAY OBSERVANCE

Lawrencetown, N. S., April 30th, 1917. To the Pastors of Annapolis County: Dear Brethren.—Believing that something ought to be done to stem the tide of Sabbath desecration which threatens to destroy what is most vital in our Christianity, and in the hope that, if the pastors of the various churches came together in the name and fear of God, something might be accomplished in this respect, the undersigned are hereby calling for a conference of all the ministers of Annapolis County to meet at Lawrence town on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 15th and 16th.

The sessions will be held as follows: Tuesday, 2.30—Conference in the Baptist Church. "The Moral and Religious Aspects of Lord's Day Observance." Rev. J. A. Corbett. Discussion. Resolution. Tuesday, 8 p.m.—Public meeting in Baptist Church. "Some Causes of Lord's Day Desecration." Rev. F. C. Simpson.

"How to Preserve the Sanctity of the Lord's Day." Rev. J. W. O'Brien. Wednesday, 9 a.m.—Conference in Methodist Church. "The Legal Side of Lord's Day Observance." Rev. E. Underwood. Discussion. Resolution. Meetings are being timed to suit trains. Free entertainment will be provided.

We earnestly urge you to attend and to take part in the discussions. Fraternally yours, F. H. BEALS, S. J. BOYCE.

MELVERN SQUARE

Weather cold and backward with the ground freezing every night. Don't look much like farming. Our community felt very deeply the news received of the death of Harry Chute, as he was a former resident of this place and highly esteemed. A number of people are laid up with sickness. Avard Riteen is quite sick with mumps, and Joseph Marshall is braving a severe attack of quinsy. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Foye Templeman were pleased to see them return home on Saturday last, after spending the winter in Cliftondale, Mass. Our genial friend, Capt. Reid Rice, went one day last week to Bridgetown to bring his power boat to Hampton, but since clearing from that port we have not heard from him. The Women's Missionary Aid Society gave an entertainment in the church on Sunday evening, which deserves credit, as they had no time to practise; but the audience felt well repaid by the treat in the recitations and music given by the sisters. The sum of five dollars for Foreign Missions was taken.

CLARENCE April 30. Victor Chute has arrived home for the summer. Mr. D. E. Foster of Torbrook is visiting at Avard Jackson's. Clyde Morse of Lawrence town spent Sunday with his friend, Clyde Nelson. W. P. Fenery arrived on Wednesday with ten horses from Prince Edward Island. Annual Roll Call in the Clarence Church on Sunday next—afternoon and evening. Mr. E. R. Webster is putting a bow window in his house, and building a piece on his barn. Quite a stir in real estate. W. P. Fenery has sold his farm to Mr. Louis Dimock of Windsor, and Mr. Fenery has bought his late mother's property; and Mr. Wm. Sutton has sold his farm to Caleb Slocumb of Mt. Hanley. We hear Mr. Sutton will return to Kings County.

TOBRROOK April 30. Mr. Martin Uihman is south looking for oxen. Mrs. Dan McLeod of West Gore was calling on friends one day last week. C. R. Banks was in the woods last week and secured a fine catch of trout. Miss Helene Durling of Lawrence town has returned home after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. S. Bartheaux. Blake Armstrong, Frank Thomson and Leonard Neily returned from Worcester, Mass., on Saturday, after an absence of four months. Mr. Robert Neily, who has been confined to his bed since New Year's, is slightly improved, and hopes to sit up as the weather gets warmer. Mr. Percy Banks returns to New Glasgow today. Guy Neily and Kenneth Bartheaux will remain here the summer and engage in farm work. The United States will send overseas from 4,000 to 5,000 trained aerial flyers to assist the Allies, within six months, many of them within a few weeks.

UPPER GRANVILLE May 1. Winter still lingers on the lap of spring; piercing winds and snow squalls in the air. Mr. William Wheeler and wife, who have resided at Granville and Clarence alternately for a few years, have moved recently to Pictou County, near New Glasgow, where, with their son Frank, they will make their home, having purchased a farm in that vicinity. Mr. Cuthbertson, who has been a resident in this vicinity for three years, has sold his farm to Mr. Sanford of Aylesford. Mr. Cuthbertson and wife are leaving on Wednesday of this week for Bridgeport, Conn., where they will visit relatives, and then make an extended trip over several American cities. On account of delicate health and lack of competent help, Mr. Cuthbertson has found farming life rather too strenuous; but being well pleased with the Valley and surroundings, purposes returning in the near future to reside permanently. The friends who have had the pleasure of a short acquaintance with these gentle residents wish for them a safe and pleasant journey and return.
