sters taken from the coastal waters of Canada every year. During the fishing season, which extends from April 27th to June 30th, roughly, 11,000 men are engaged in actual fishing and 8,000 people are employed in the 682 canneries. In short, Carada possesses a more extensive and valuable lobster fishery than any other country in the world. Lobster canneri s were first established in Canada in 1869, and in that year el,000 disposal of the body. that year there has been a decline. 10,000,000 pounds and since 1909 there has been a further falling off.

In addition to the canned logisters a very important trade is carried on in live lobsters. There is an active demanl for live lobsters wherever they appeared in some of the memoranda can be shipped in cold storage. Anywhere from 100,000 to 120,000 hun- young man. The department of marine and fisheries has tried a number of experiments in the hope of regulating the lobster fishery with a view to its better conservation. Hatcheries have been encouraged and efforts made to have the fishermen bring the eggbearing female lobsters to these hatcheries. This has been fairly successful. There are now thirteen lobficially hatched annually and the as follows:young fry planted. This has been found very beneficial, because it saves the destruction of the female lobsters by the fishermen as well as preserving large numbers of lobster eggs, which would be lost if they are deer it is planted. No economical mears have yet been devised for preplanting. If this could be accomplished, a very great advance would have been made in the conservation of the Canadian lobster industry.

Unknown Victim Has Been Indentified

Friends Are Coming to Halifax to Claim Body of James M. Irwin.

(Halifax Chronicle, July 15th.) That the un nown young man who lost his life in the wreck of the Maritime Express at Grand Lake on last Wednesday was James Moore Irwin, has been made reasonably certain and tefore many hours, it is expected that the identification will be made possible and the tody claimed.

The too's and trinkets found ':pon the tody gave the authorities many Sketch of the Industry-Work of the clues to work upon, and in the cases where an address was mentioned with a name, the person was asked for information. Major J. G. Corbin, of Bedford, who held the inquest into the cause of the death of the young man, telegraphed to the Chief of Police of Toronto, asking for informs tion concerning the supposed uncle of the victim, whose name appeared in one of the books found upon his body Westerday Major Corpin received a telegram from Toronto stating that the relatives of the deceased have been located and would communicate direct with Major Corbin regarding the
