nor one which will bring more satisfaction to the recipient, than a subscription to that magazine. Have you not some friend to whom a first-class periodical is a treat which cannot often be afforded? Remember, too, that this will be a monthly reminder of the giver for a whole year. New subscriptions should be sent with the November number, that the valuable issue, rich with the contribution of Cable, James, Warner, Alphonse Daudet, Burroughs, Mrs. Oliphant, and many other writers, and containing some of the most beautiful engravings ever published in a magazine. Price, $4 a year; an additional ten cents will pay for the pamphlet containing the chapters published before November of that famous anonymous novel, "The Bread-Winners." A Splendid Holiday Book for the price of a Christmas Card.

The Double, Holiday Number of ST. NICHOLAS is the most beautiful book for the money that was ever issued. It contains 184 pages and nearly as many wood-engravings, with a coloured frontispiece, etc. This extra issue is intended only for those who are not regular readers of ST. NICHOLAS, as it is the November and December numbers of that magazine bound in a special cover. The latter, printed in eleven colours, is worth more than the price of the whole book as a Christmas card. When you are buying gifts for the children, leave a place for this. All dealers sell it. Price, 50 cents.
