JUST PUBLISHED! A NEW BOOK!

FROM WEALTH TO POVERTY:

Or, the Tricks of the Traffic. A Story of the Drink Curse. By the REV. AUSTIN POTTER.
12mo, cloth, 328 pages, price 90 cents. A New and Startling Temperance Story, by a Canadian Author.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF THIS BOOK.

"It is no ordinary story. . . . The book is a fervent and powerful plea in behalf of temperance. . . . It is strong and vigorous in sentiment, and clear in style. Its publication is most opportune. Advocates of the Scott Act will find their zeal intensified by reading the book. Though admirably fitted for the present, it is worthy of a permanent place in temperance literature."—Canada Presbyterian.

"Some of the scenes are portrayed with much more than ordinary descriptive power. . . . While the story is entertaining, it presents vividly and truthfully the terrible evils of the liquor traffic. . . . Its wide circulation cannot fail to help forward the cause of temperance and prohibition."—Christian Guardian.

WEBSTER'S CONDENSED DICTIONARY.

800 pages, 1,500 Illustrations.

Price by mail, postpaid, $1.80.

This work is of especial value to all who desire a fresh, full, and trustworthy dictionary for constant use on the desk, or in the travelling bag. The CONDENSED is not a reprint, but an entirely new compilation on a novel and original plan, which allows more matter in the same space, with the same type, than any other dictionary. It is the latest, and its etymologies and definitions are thorough and complete. It contains a Pronouncing Vocabulary of over 24,000 proper names—a feature found in no other Abridged Dictionary.

GREAT REDUCTION!

FATHER LAMBERT'S NOTES ON INGERSOLL

Prices reduced to: Paper, 20 cents; Cloth, 50 cents.

"Should be read by Christians of all denominations. Father Lambert scourges the little infidel with his own whip."—Springfield (Mass.) Herald.

"It is a masterly refutation of Ingersoll. It should be widely circulated."—REV. T. G. WILLIAMS, Ex-President Montreal Conference.

"Full answers the blatant infidel."—The Central Methodist.

"Humorous and entertaining—pungent and incisive; they are centre shots and never fail to floor the rhetorical blasphemer."—Western Watchman (St. Louis.)
