MESSENGER ITEMS

Those who have sent in requests to the Sacred Heart offices for relics of our Canadian Martyrs will receive them, neatly set in a vignette, in a few days.

We again call the attention of Local Secretaries to what we said already in the July number: If they wish that we should acknowledge the receipt of intentions in the "Correspondence" columns, they must inscribe on the Intention sheet the name of the place, convent, school or parish, otherwise they will be disappointed. Many have been omitted this month from the list, as it was impossible to make out the place from which they were sent.

Some of our readers no doubt have been mildly shocked, like ourselves, at the discovery that the verses sent to the MESSENGER from Galt by little "B" were not original. The work of composition consisted in selecting
