

Argus Comparative Chart—We have to thank our contemporary the Argus of Chicago for a copy of its Comparative Chart of the receipts and losses of the principal Fire Insurance Companies doing an agency business in the Western States, in 1885.

The New York Assembly rejected the (Harper) Bill, the object of which was to allow the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association to re-incorporate, and thus transact business under both the assessment and old-line plans. The Bill was defeated by a vote of 21 to 67.

$100,000.00.

THE ONLY PURELY MUTUAL CANADIAN LIFE COMPANY.

Total Number of Policies in Force December 31st, 1885,	6,381
Covering Assurance to the Amount of	$2,288,341.71
Net Reserve to Credit of Policy-holders,	$668,601.36

The rapid growth of this Company may be seen from the fact that, in 1879, the first year of its business, the total assets amounted to only $4,714, while last year they reached the handsome total of $2,288,341.71, all made from savings on premiums and from interest on the investment of these savings.

In addition to the rapid growth of its assets, there has been an increase in profits during the year, an increase in dividends paid, an increase in total assets, an increase in total investments, an increase in profits, and an increase in dividends paid.

ITS CASH INCOME AVERAGES NOW $1,000 DAILY.

The largest and most successful Life Insurance Company in the world are quickly established, and the New Ontario Mutual Assurance is not an exception.

THE ONTARIO MUTUAL is a purely mutual life insurance company. It has no speculative feature. It issues no Term Policies, at the expense of the many and for the benefit of the few. In fact, it is a purely mutual company, and the profits are all divided among the policy-holders.

THE ONTARIO MUTUAL guarantees to pay the policy on its face, and the policy is not subject to any other condition or restriction. It is a purely mutual company, and the profits are all divided among the policy-holders.
