

NIAGARA FALLS SOUTH, ONT.—Plans have been prepared for improvements to store of E. Dal' on.

NEW GLASGOW, N.S.—I. Matheson & Co. will build a brick and stone addition to their machine shop.

NANAIMO, B. C.—Frank Price, of the Cowichan hotel, will build a $12,000 hotel near Duncan's Station.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—The school board have decided to build addition to present school building.

SARNIA, ONT.—The Cleveland Saw Mill Company have commenced work on their proposed saw mill.

NORTH TORONTO, ONT.—Debentures issued for waterworks construction will be offered for sale by the village.

CARTWRIGHT, MAN.—J. C. McKibben will erect a building on Front street, stone foundation, brick front.

CARBERRY, MAN.—Manville Bros. intend erecting large brick building, corner Main street and Third avenue.

SHERBROOKE, QUE.—No definite steps have as yet been taken towards the erection of the proposed city hall.

COLLINGWOOD, ONT.—Architect Palin is preparing plans for modern two-storey brick residence for M. P. Byrnes.

WALKERTON, ONT.—Tenders are wanted by R. Truax & Co. up to 16th inst. for erection of brick residence.

SWAN LAKE, MAN.—It has been decided to build a new school to cost $2,000. Particulars from R. C. McLean.

PARRY SOUND, ONT.—Mr. Arz has been instructed to prepare estimate of cost of proposed waterworks extension.

RICHMOND, QUE.—A large iron bridge over the St. Francis river at this place was carried away by a flood on the 7th inst.

MADAWASKA, ONT.—Wm. G. McKay invites tenders up to 15th inst. for erection of public school here. Plans at post office.

GRAND VALLEY, ONT.—Contracts are about to be let for building new Presbyterian church and a residence for L. Graham.

BROMPTON FALLS, QUE.—Work has not yet been commenced by the Brompton Falls Pulp & Paper Co. on proposed pulp mill.

FORT WILLIAM, ONT.—A by-law to raise $10,000 to extend the waterworks system of the town has been passed by the council.

ST. CATHARINES, ONT.—W. B. Allan, architect, is this week taking tenders for erection of residence on Ontario street for W. G. Finlay.

MCLEOD, N.W.T.—Tenders will shortly be invited for new court house to be built here, to cost $40,000. It will be 76 x 95 feet, three stories.

BUCKINGHAM, QUE.—It is said that A. B. Cameron will erect a brick block, and that work will shortly be commenced on the proposed pulp mill.

LUNENBURG, N.S.—An act to enable the town to borrow money for water, electric light and sewerage purposes has been passed by the Legislature.

SYDNEY, N.S.—The Sydney & Louisburg Railway Co. will lay about two miles of sidings at the works of the Dominion Iron & Steel Co. this spring.

SHAWVILLE, QUE.—Robert Surtees, C.E., of Ottawa, has conferred with the village council regarding plans for waterworks and sewerage systems.

MIMICO, ONT.—Mr. Davidson, secretary of the Sick Children's Hospital, has purchased a lot on the water front on which to build a summer cottage.

ALGOMA MILLS, ONT.—It is said that Mr. Haines, late of the Blind River Lumber Co., intends building a saw mill at Lake Lauzon, near this place.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.—Schurman, Lefurgey & Clark are about to build a large planing mill here, and are prepared to receive quotations for machinery.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—It is the intention of Thos. A. Gorham to build a residence. The plans are being prepared by R. J. Edwards, architect, of Toronto.

MOOSE JAW, N. W. T.—Tenders for building Presbyterian church are invited by Thomas Miller up to 18th inst. Plans by W. H. Shillinglaw, architect, of Brandon.

CHATHAM, ONT.—J. L. Wilson & Son, architects, have taken tenders for alteration to brick block on King street, to be used as offices for Drs. J. P. Rutherford and Son.

CARAQUET, N. B.—Engineer Day, of St. John, has taken soundings in the harbor here with a view of selecting a site for the deep water terminus of the Caraquet railway.

KINGSVILLE, ONT.—Separate tenders for masonry, carpentry, and painting and glazing required in building an addition to the public school will be received by L. Allworth up to May 1st.

CORNWALL CENTRE, ONT.—The township council of Cornwall intends constructing a sewer in the village of Beaconsfield, cost $3,129.62. Particulars from James Mullen, township clerk.

HAMILTON, ONT.—Building permits have been granted as follows: Thomas Allen, store and dwelling, corner Catharine and Augusta streets, cost $2,500; John Henry, brick dwelling on Park st., cost $1,100.

KINGSTON, ONT.—The action of the Ontario Government in making a yearly grant of $6,000 to the School of Mining will enable the directors to at once proceed to erect a science building; probable cost, $100,000.

GUELPH, ONT.—Tenders for annual supply for the city of nails and Portland cement are invited up to the 11th inst. Address Richard Mitchell, city clerk.—L. C. Wideman, architect, has just taken tenders for brick residence on Dublin street.

ALMONTE, ONT.—Andrew Bell, C.E., of this town, has been engaged by the Dominion Government to make a survey and report on the Rideau floods from the summit to the falls, with a view of taking steps to avert the annual freshets.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—The council will take steps immediately to procure a site for the proposed public library building to be erected as a result of the gift of Mr. Carnegie.—The time for receiving plans for police station and two fire halls has been extended by the council to April 22nd.

ALBERT, N.B.—John C. Calhoun has formed a company for working the large deposits of bituminous shale to be found in this county, and expects to spend $500,000 in establishing the necessary plant. A railway will be built connecting the mines with the Albert Southern Railway.

PENETANGUISHENE, ONT.—A. Tessier and N. Payette intend building several dwellings this year, and J. C. Nettleton will build a store and dwelling.—W. H. Hewson, town clerk, invites offers up to April 30th for purchase of $28,000 20 year 3½ per cent. debentures and $5,000 10 year 4 per cent. debentures.

MIDLAND, ONT.—The council has decided to employ Willis Chipman, C.E., of Toronto, as engineer for the waterworks system in the event of the by-law carrying on April 19th.—The Midland Iron & Steel Construction Co., just incorporated, will erect buildings at once for the construction of boilers, bridge work, etc.

RENFREW, ONT.—W. B. Eady is taking tenders up to the 15th inst. for erection of school house for S.S. No. 4, Forton.—Mackay Bros. invite tenders up to April 19th for excavation, stone, brick and carpenter work, plastering, painting and glazing, heating, plumbing, galvanized iron work, and electric wiring for addition to store and for a dwelling house.

HULL, QUE.—Plans are being prepared for the Ottawa and Pontiac Junction railway; two stories, brick or stone, cost $4,000.—The city has for sale $25,000 of debentures.—The question of building a new pump house is under consideration by the council.—The E. B. Eddy Co. will shortly commence work on the erection of tub, pail, and fibreware factories and a new office building.

ORILLIA, ONT.—The supplementary estimates of the Ontario Government contain a grant of $2,500 to complete the waterworks system at the asylum here.—The vestry of St. James church has decided to increase the Sunday School accommodation, at an estimated cost of $2,200. Plans of proposed addition have been prepared by W. H. Croker, architect. Tenders close 18th inst.

MONTREAL, QUE.—The Montreal Bridge Co. is said to contemplate the construction of a bridge between this city and Longueuil, at a total cost of $1,600,000. The government will be asked for a subsidy of $400,000. Henry Hogan, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall, is one of the promoters of the project.—Ald. Ames will shortly introduce in council a by-law authorizing the construction of one hospital with accommodation for both Protestants and Catholics, and to borrow the sum of $100,000 for the purpose.

QUEBEC, QUE.—It has been decided to build a wing, 75 x 55 feet and three storeys high, to the Villa Mastai, recently purchased by the Sisters of Charity.—Negotiations have just been completed between the government and New York capitalists for the erection of immense pulp mills at the Grand Discharge of Lake St. John. It is said that operations will be commenced this spring.—The Dominion government invites tenders up to 10th inst. for heating apparatus for the citadel in this city. Plans at office of P. H. Beland, post office building, and at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—Tenders are asked by the city council up to 18th inst. for annual supply of lumber, hardware, cement, etc.—J. Greenfield, architect, has just taken tenders for erection of brick store on Main street for J. G. Hargrave & Co.—The city engineer has given the following estimates of the cost of proposed pavements: Macadam on Logan avenue, $5,335; asphalt on Notre Dame avenue, from Portage avenue to Charloite street, $21,490; asphalt on Bell avenue, $3,452.—A. H. Pulford, 246 Portage avenue, invites tenders up to 13th inst. for erection of brick block.—Mackenzie & Mann will build an extension of the railway from the end of the old Hudson Bay grade to Oak Point, on Lake Manitoba.

LONDON, ONT.—The new theatre to be built on Richmond street will be 180 x 88 feet, with auditorium on the ground floor. Col. Leys, of this city, is interested.—The public library building will be altered and extended.—Willis Chipman, C.E., of Toronto, was consulting engineer in connection with the construction of basins in this city, for which tenders have just been taken.—Permits have been granted to John Wilkie, R. Brookes and W. Rutherford for brick residence.—Tenders for erection of public school building in East London will be received by Herbert Matthews, architect, up to 5 p.m. of 19th inst.—H. C. McBride, archi-