

CULTURAL CONSULTATIONS - THE NETHERLANDS/CANADA
CONSULTATIONS CULTURELLES - PAYS-BAS/CANADA

Secteur de coopération Programme:	Domaine d'activité Field of Activity:
Archives	Books, Literature and Archives

Description:

Exchange of archivists between the Public Archives of Canada and the Rijksarchiefdienst to identify archival documents of interest to each country which will allow the subsequent exchange of copies of the documents over the following years. The Canadian archivist and the Dutch archivist selected would spend a maximum of 21 days in the other country on this project. The visits would be coordinated through the national archives of both countries.

Origine/Background:

As with other European countries the Netherlands has been a source of immigration to Canada. This link, that of trading relations and wartime activities all represent areas of interest to the archives of both countries. Records exist on these topics which are useful to researchers in various fields in both Canada and the Netherlands. An exchange of such documentation can broaden the understanding of the ties which exist between our two nations.

Objectifs/Objectives:

The exchange of copies of archival documents as a result of this initial project which is to identify what Canada and the Netherlands wish to exchange.

Décision et mise en oeuvre/Decision and Implementation:

The Netherlands welcome this proposal. Both parties agreed to encourage the exchange of archivists through the Bank of Mission in view of exploring the possibility of developing concrete proposals for cooperation.
