

are discussing this further, and I hope to be able to have a decision from the prairie producers in the near future.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. A number of hon. members want to ask supplementary questions but we have gone ten minutes beyond the question period. I think we should call orders of the day.

FOOD PRICES

MOTION TO APPOINT SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE

The House resumed, from Monday, January 22, consideration of the motion of Mr. Gray:

That a Special Committee of this House be appointed to inquire into and make recommendations upon the trends in food prices in Canada and factors domestic and foreign which account for these trends:

That 20 Members of the House of Commons to be designated by the House at a later date be the members of the Special Committee and that Standing Order 65(5) of the House of Commons be suspended in relation thereto;

That the said Committee have power to send for persons, papers and records and examine witnesses; to sit during periods when the House stands adjourned; to report from time to time and to print such papers and evidence from day to day as may be deemed advisable; to delegate to sub-committees all or any of their powers except the power to report direct to the House; to engage the services of counsel, accountants and such other clerical and technical personnel as may be deemed necessary.

And the amendment thereto of Mr. McGrath (p. 477), and the amendment to the amendment of Mr. Harney (p. 478); the amendment, Mr. Woolliams (p. 536), and the amendment to the amendment, Mr. Knowles (p. 537); the amendment, Mr. Atkey (p. 538).

Mr. Speaker: In accordance with the special order made at yesterday's sitting, the House will now proceed to the taking of deferred divisions and to the putting of any other question necessary to dispose of the amendments now before the House in relation to the motion to appoint a special committee to inquire into the trends in food prices.

The first question will be on the sub-amendment proposed by the hon. member for Scarborough West (Mr. Harney), seconded by the hon. member for Sault Ste. Marie (Mr. Symes).

The House divided on the amendment (Mr. Harney) which was agreed to on the following division:
