

I need not assure you that I would not take advantage of the signal honor you have conferred upon me to talk politics.

The issue is the eternal conflict between aggressive Government and the Liberty-loving citizen; not between parties or candidates of parties.