Dear General.

I am writing to ask you to do what you can for me, with the Soldier Settlement Board authorities at Ottawa, as I find myself in a bad fix here. After 4 miserable years in N.Z., where I went after the war, I ended up with a year in hospital in England, which left me flat broke. I managed to get some funds from relatives and after interviewing the S.S.B man in London and filling up forms, I was told that I was eligible and qualified. I made particular enquiries as to the latter and was thoroughly given to understand that I would have no difficulty in obtaining a farm. I have also a son of over 17 who has had 3 years dairying experience. Acting on his information I considered that two months would be ample to find a suitable farm, so decided to come to Nova Scotia and try and make use of my 3½ years dairying experience in New Zealand. I had
