

CHAPTER XVI.

	Page
Lion Reef.—Seals.—Mountains.—Ducks and Divers.—Daily Routine. —Flaxman's Island.—Ice.—Large Drift Wood.—Bury Penmican. —Dog seen.—Native Huts.—Presents.—Ethnographic Distinctions.—European Knife.—Send up Rockets.—Native Wonder.—Oomiaks' mimic Manœuvres.—Esquimaux Family.—Whales.—Herschel Island.—Wind shifts Suddenly.—Difficulties.—Calton Point.—Esquimaux bring Fish.—Tracking.—Paradoxical Barrows.—Land near Sabine Point.—Huts and Women.—Buy a Frock from a Lady.—Thefts.—Compasses affected.—Approach to Mackenzie.—Tracking up River.—Change in Vegetation.—Bear and Deer Tracks.—Erect a Cross.—Indian Visitor.—Peel River.—Mr. Hardisty visits us.—Proceed to Fort McPherson.—Changed Phase of Existence.—Departure of Mr. Pullen.—Annual Despatch.—Indian Paint and Decoration.—Loucheux or Quarrellers.—Rat Indians.—Gluttony.—Indian Betrothals.—Forty Skins for One.—Indian Currency.—Esquimaux and Indian Feuds	251

CHAPTER XVII.

Horrible Esquimaux Attack.—Massacre of Loucheux.—Indian Bravery.—Anatomical Research.—Five Commoners make one Chief.—Mr. Peers' unsuccessful Mediation.—Indian instincts of Revenge.—Indian Supplies.—Leave for Fort Norman.—Indian Guides.—Followers dog us.—Enemy captures our Stores.—Enter Mackenzie.—Guides quit us.—Dogs again.—Encamp.—Our Hut takes Fire.—Pine Forests.—Ice-master frost-bitten.—Reach Fort Good Hope.—Mr. Mc Beath; his kind Attentions.—Cent Sous Rapid.—Bear River.—Burning Banks.—Reach Fort Norman.—Mr. Mc Kenzie; his Hospitality.—Salteaux' Legend of the Deluge.—Wolf Brothers & Co.	274
--	-----

CHAPTER XVIII.

Gastronomy.—River Ice.—Trapping.—Start for Great Bear Lake.—Cross the Mackenzie on the Ice.—Felling Trees to encamp.—Raising the Wind.—Penetrate dense Forests.—Cross Lakes.—Cranberries, &c.—Indian Hut.—Salmon Trout.—Summary Ejectment.—Slave Indians.—Indian Divorce.—Selling Wives.—Cannibal Acquaintance.—Sir J. Franklin's Hut.—Dreadful Starvation.—Eating an Orkney man.—Our Hut.—An airy Situation.—Occasional House-warming.—Lots of Tin.—Fish and Fish with it.—Swamp Tea.—Aurora.—Literary Destitution.—Novel burial of a Brother-in-law	296
---	-----