

WARD, LOCK & CO.'S POPULAR FICTION

HAROLD BINDLOSS

THE TRUSTEE.

Another powerful and well written story of hardihood, love and adventure in Canada. The clean, fresh atmosphere which pervades it is distinctly exhilarating.

THE PIONEER.

THE BOOKMAN.—"Altogether a fresh, stimulating, wholesome story, and one which should only be banned by parents who do not wish their fledglings to succumb to the fascinating lure of the wilds."

THE PROTECTOR.

MORNING POST.—"Mr. Bindloss is always a sure find for a good story, and in this one he has, if possible, excelled himself."

THE LIBERATIONIST.

MORNING LEADER.—"This is the author's best novel, and is one which no lover of healthy excitement ought to miss."

HAWTREY'S DEPUTY.

THE WESTERN DAILY MERCURY.—"The whole story is told with the most spontaneous verve, and is tinged with a delightful element of romance which renders the book complete in its appeal from start to finish."

THE IMPOSTOR.

THE QUEEN.—"Mr. Bindloss writes books which are always good to read. His writing is uniformly good, and his books are always sane, intensely interesting, and dealing with subjects that cannot fail to concern a wide public. He has a real gift for telling stories, and the interest that he arouses in the reader's mind on the first page he sustains up to the last page in the volume."

HEADON HILL

THE COTTAGE IN THE CHINE.

Will make a strong appeal to lovers of sensational fiction; every page has its incident or adventure, and the most exacting reader will not find a dull moment until the last page is turned.

A TRAITOR'S WOOING.

DUNDEE ADVERTISER.—"Its plot has the freeness and force of a single inspiration, and that a peculiarly happy one."

MY LORD THE FELON.

THE BOOKSELLER.—"Every page of this book has its incident or adventure, while the reader's interest is kept up to the last chapter."

J. C. SNAITH

MISTRESS DOROTHY MARVIN.

THE NOTTINGHAM GUARDIAN.—"Mr. Snaith stirs the blood, from the first page to the last, and all the characters live, move, and have their being."

LADY BARBARITY.

BLACK AND WHITE says:—" 'Lady Barbarity' would cheer a pessimist in a November fog. It is so gay, so good, so sure, so full of the influence of youth and beauty."
