

Lace Curtains, Madras, and Coin Spot Muslins, at the Globe House, Mrs. Wm. Rae.

From the world He would wean His children, unto a higher life;
Where free from grosser trammels they need not fear the strife.
We come from the Lord to help you; oh, do not be weak and blind!
Come, come to the sinner's haven of Jesus—loving, kind!

NO. 16.—CHORUS OF CONVERTS.

God-sent Teacher! guide us, lead us, thro' life's journey here below;
Let not earthly sin impede us, for to God we long to go.
Should we wander from the pathway, oh, restore us to Thy fold!
Jesus, help Thy new-found servants, in Thy train are we enrolled.

Too long plunged in darkness fearful have we been, but gloom hath fled?

At Thy coming radiance cheerful breaks the night, and light is shed.
Keep us, Jesus, gracious Master, from all error, from all sin;
With Thy Spirit now endow us, and the goal we then must win.

NO. 17.—CHORUS OF HEBREW WOMEN.

Weary, despairing, before Thee we kneel; wretched, and crushed by the world's iron heel;
But Thou wilt list to our earnest appeal—grant us peace, Master, let troubles cease!
Should we e'er falter or fail in the fray, droop in the heat and the toil of the day,
Do not rebuke us, but lighten our way—be Thou our Pilot, our Hope,
and our Stay!
Guide us all safely on life's stormy track, then worldly tempests will ne'er drive us back;
Safe in love's haven, oh, what can we lack?—grant peace, O Master, let troubles cease!

JESUS OF NAZARETH PASSETH BY.

NO. 18. DUET, QUARTETTE AND CHORUS—"WHO IS IT PASSETH?"
THE BLIND MAN CRIED.

"Who is it passeth?" the blind man cried, as he sat and begged by the highway side;
And quickly to him a voice replied: "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by,
Jesus of Nazareth passeth by,
Jesus of Nazareth passeth by, passeth by, passeth by!" etc. etc.
