

The gun carriage—an old English one of oak, made in 1843—was presented by Sir Frederick W. Borden

Minister of Militia.

The pile of solid shot number 91. This shot was brought from Cuba after the Spanish-American War.

R. W. McLachlan, Esq.

Cannon from one of the nine ships of Sir Hovenden Walker's fleet, wrecked on Isle-aux-Oeufs, Aug. 26, 1711, in the expedition which sailed for Quebec to wrest Canada from the French.

Geo. Boulter, Esq.

The front tower of the Château is surmounted by an antique wrought-iron vane (from the old Recollet Church, Notre Dame Street), made in 1692.

On the rear tower of the Château is the Cross of the Recollet Church, 1692.

Hon. Judge Baby.
