REPOSITORY SPEED SALE.

"Toronto Belle" is Sold by Burns &

Sheppard for $825

The annual speed sale was held yesterday at The Repository, on Simcoestreet. The character of the horses sold was probably superior to that of any ever offered in a sales ring in Canada. Certainly the average speed of the offerings eclipsed that of any lot previously cataloged. Prior to the sale the principal animals were paraded, and presented a really remarkable sight, with the world's champion wasplendid form. Lady May 2.06, leading in splendid form. Lady May was the admiration of the large attendance, a gathering which was in excess of that at any previous speed sale. At first the bidding was inclined to be a bit slow, after the first lot had been disposed of to Mrs. Gordon of Concordavenue for $825. This was that charming many Toronto Relle by Oscar and ing mare, Toronto Belle, by Oscar, an Ge especially good-looker. After a pro- bu mising start, there was a bit of a Ch rightened up, and, on the whole, the day's proceedings were most satisfactory. Mr. Burns was in the box and chasers alike, were distinctly satisfied.
