

THE WEST AND ITS PEOPLE

A black and white illustration of a man in a top hat and a woman with an umbrella. The man is in the foreground, wearing a dark suit and a bowler hat, looking towards the right. The woman is slightly behind him, holding a large, dark umbrella. She is wearing a light-colored dress and a hat. The background is dark and indistinct.

DROVE INTO A QUARRY.

Carl Farmer Has a Narrow Escape With Life.

Mary's Aug. 10—John Gillies, a son of Cherry Grove, West Nile, was in town on Saturday doing business. Returning home at night he drove down Wellington-street southward, and buggy, and on the corner of Cherry-grove, he was thrown out of the buggy and lay prostrate across the east end of it to reach the street. In the darkness he took down leading into the quarry. He was the buggy was thrown out of the rocks. Mr. Gillies was bruised about the head and on his wrists, and also bruised about the face. While he lay prostrate the quarry, disengaged itself, and ran away with the buggy in it. In the meantime some boys were in the quarry, and they were in it. Beware of Impostors

Some unprincipled men have been going through the country passing themselves off as F. E. Luke, and on such representations they have sold cheap, worthless spectacles to people who later ascertained they had been defrauded. It is desired that information concerning these men, also a description, be sent to F. R. Luke, 11 King St. West, Toronto, so that action can be taken to prevent further misrepresentations. I wish to inform the public that I don't go around from door to door, neither have I any person representing me, so beware of such impostors.
